Address of the Constitutional Union Na tional Committee

The Constitutional Union National Committee, headed by the venerable Jacksonian, Hon, AMOS KENDALL have issued an address to "Friends of Union, Liberty and Law," from which we make the following extracts:

The choice is between George B. McClel-han and Abraham Lincoln. The former has shown himself possessed of the first order of ability as a soldier and statesman, and is ardently devoted to the Union and the res toration of the authority of the Constitution His every day life is adorned by the prompt ings of sterling integrity and common ings of sterling integrity and commonserver, and is marked by the characterist of a true Christian gentleman. The lat has proved himself wholly unit for the h station he now holds, and viewing his pub-lic acts in the light of the Constitution, it becomes a serious question as to the extent of acquiescence men can vield to his re-elec It has been truly alleged that there s not an intelligent man in America who believes him fit for the Presidency of this Republic. Previous to the Bältimore Con-Republic. Previous to the Baltmore Con-vention, prominent men of his own party asserted and published their convictions that the government could not safely be re-entrusted to his hands. While the people have proved their willingness to respond to very necessary call for men and means to uppress the rebellion, he has declared his suppress the rebellion, he has declared his intention to change the character of the war from the single object of upholding the Gov-ernment to that of a direct interference with the domestic institutions of States. He has suppressed the freedom of elections in the indicative states in the line utilizer reasonsion border States by taking military possession of the polls. He has stricken down the freedom of the press where rèbellion did not exist. By the intentional destrucnot exist. By the intentional destruc-tion of the Peninsular campaign, by despotic assumptions under the plea of "military necessity," by a refusal to listen to terms of peace upon the sim-ple basis of the Union and the Constitution, and by the prostitution of all the powers of the government to the base purposes of for-cibly securing his own re-election, he has mind the Southern neople in rehefition and anited the Southern people in rebellion, and dienated the heart of the Northern masses, nore necessary now than ever before in naintaining the dignity and rightful power namuaning the dignity and rightful power of the government. In view of all that is ranspiring, while our noble generals and rave soldiers are battling against the arm of forces of secession in the ideal, we have he right to demand that the army shall not a most to ideafore with the right of Sectors. e used to interfere with the right suffrage s regulated by the States, and that the ex-cutive shall not supersede the great princies on which the government was founded ples on which the government was founded by the corruptions and fanaticisms of his party. Those who are in favor of algudon-ing the pole cofthe Administration, and thus rendering peace and remnion possibles; who are in favor of free suffrage, free speech, a free press, the habeas corpus with trial by jury; of maintaining the Constitution and the government bequeathed to us by Wash-ington and the fathers of the republic; those who are ready to contend manifully for the rights of freemen, and are determined to ights of freemen, and are determined t rights of freemen, and are undermined to ; dide by the will of the majority as fairly expressed through the ballot-box, will sup-port McClellan. Those who are in favor of allowing the President to override the Con-stitution and trample upon our fiberties under the plea of " military necessity," of an indefinite degree of national debt and layation with an unlimited expansion of axation, with an unlimited expansion of paper currency, of permitting the government to be controlled by contractors, of [-hanging the war for forcible emancipation, changing the war for foreine emancipation, confiscation and miscogenation, and of an-other conscription immediately after elec-tion, with the unnecessary sacrifice of hun-dreds of thousands of Northern lives, will vote for Mr. Lincoln. The members of the National Committee, in making their anneal for the summert of

The members of the National commute, in making their appeal for the support of McClellan, are actuated solely by a desire to save the country from the horrors of disnion, financial ruin, anarchy, and foreign itervention, which are sure to follow with continuance of Mr. Lincoin's the continuance of Mr. Lincoin's policy. They are patriotically devoted to the Union, and opposed alike to the doctrines of the Secessionists on the one side, and those of the destructive radicals on the other. They hold that, if the present Administration had administered the Government in accord-ment the Covernment on a mith a shift mee with the Constitution, and in the spiri of its founders, instead of adopting a policy at once sectional, barbarous, and subverat once sectional, barbarous, and subver-sive of the fundamental principles of the Government, the leaders of the rebellion would have been compelled to contend, not only with our armies, but with what is more potent than armies, an inborn love of the old Union on the part of the people of the South; and the rebellion would have been crushed and peace restored helfore a single year could have passed. In this light, they believe that the war is being unnecessarily prolonged; for if it is possible to weaken the rebellion, and destroy the people, by assuring the latter that the North cople, by assuring the latter that the North vants nothing more than the re-establishionit of the government on the basis of the oustitution—to withhold such assurance, o refuse the terms of the Constitution, and instead to proclaim the dogmas of radical-

Theasame rates also extend to real estate, whether derived by will or attained by succession. The law is a very important one, and should be carefully examined and understood by all persons acting as executors, administrators or trustees, and by their attorneys. Personal property passing from husband to wife, or from wife to husbaud, is not taxed, but we see no such reservation in the succession of real estate. The tax on personal property will be a lien on it for 20

A GLORIOUS MEETING AT ADAMSTOWN -The Democracy of the extreme northern portion of the county had a glorious and tremendous meeting at Adamstown borough on Saturday last. There were also a number of delegations present from the neighboring townships of Berks county. There was a fine procession, headed by the Ringgold Cornet Band of Reading, under the di rection of Capt, Lenhart, late of the 3d Pennsylvania Reserves, as Chief Marshal. There were one thousand two hundred people, 150 horsemen and 250 wagons in the prossion, and about 2,500 persons at the meeting. Col. Jesse Reinhold presided, and addresses were made by Hons, J. Glancy Jones and S. E. Ancona in English, and Daniel Ermentrout and J. B. Bechtel, Esqs. in German. The meeting was in all respect the largest, most enthusiastic and best con ducted of any ever held in the northern part of Lancaster county. The Democracy that region are gloriously alive and awake to the importance of the crisis.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE .- By the provision of the Act Regulating Elections by Soldiers in actual Military Service, one of the poll books, with the tally list and tickets, is t be sent to the Prothonotary of the county in which the soldiers would have voted, if at home; and the other poll book is to be sent to the Secretary of the Commonwealth. The Prothonotary is required to deliver a certified copy of the returns so received, to the Return Judges of the county; who, at the time of their meeting now fixed by law to count the votes regularly poiled, shall adjourn to meet at the same place on the third Friday after the General or Presiden tial election, for the purpose of counting the Soldiers' Vote; and shall include in their enumeration the votes so returned. The Return Judges of Lancaster county therefore, who met on Friday, according t law, to count the vote of the county, will meet again on Friday, October 28th (being the third Friday after the General Election to count the Soldiers' Votes, and add the same to the returns already officially published.
