These Bitters are rapidly winning their way to public favor, and before long will be the only ones in popular demand. The cures they have effected for years past has induced the proprie-tor to bring them more particularly before the people. They are nore a new remedy, the recipe for making the "Bitters" having been in the possession of the proprietor for many years. The ingredients are composed of the following medicinal herbs and roots, all possessing well known curative powers, and are warranted not to contain any other article: Elecampane Bur-dock, Spikenard, Soapwort, Peruvian Bark, Buchu, Spicewood, Mulein, Stippery Elm, Sas-safras, Sursararilla, Gentian Root, Juniper, Spirits Nitre, Ralsam Copavia, Cubers, Dande-lien, Pure Spirits and Barberry. The Bitters have been used by persons afflicted with vari-ous discases for some years past, and such has been their success in curing the inost obstinate diseases, that the proprietor is now induced for the first inde to offer them to the public, with the full confidence and a willingness to guaran-tee that if properly used they will effect per-manent curces in the most obstinate cases of diseases. They are a certain remedy for Dys-ersia, Liver Complaints, Loss of Appetite, Nervous affections, Intermittent Fevere, Fever and Ague, General Debility, or Weakness Compts and (Ods, Diarrhea, Heudnehe, Cholera dorb of diseases ating from a disorganized or diseased stomach or Inpurity of Blood.
