It is well known to the medical profession that IRON is the vital Principle or Life Ele-ment of the blood. This is derived chiefly from the food we cat; but if the food is not properly digested, or if, from any cause whatev r, the necessary quantity of iron is not taken into the circulation, or becomes reduced, the whole sys-tem suffers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will elog up the lungs, will stupefy the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will send its disease producing elements to all parts of the system, and every one will suffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease.

to Major Gilmer. This answer was satis-factory to Major Young, and he at once started for the dwelling house, and was met at the door by the landlady, to an interrogatory put to her as to who was in the house. She said no person ex-cept members of her own family. The answer was unsatisfactory, and a search of the premises was commenced when To such ing to be aslave to his own negro. To such degradation and disgrace war has not yet brought any of these people. Reconstruc-tion and separate State action are all that this peace commission has effected, and these it has killed dead. Now, since the enemy have told us their ultimatum, and will not entertain any other proposition; since we must light or we are slaves; since now the question of recon-struction is one of fact and not of theory— that, too, the fact of slavery for the white man, freedom for the negro, poverty for the a long time. Some individual in Philadel phia;received one, and was assured by everybody that it was a counterfeit. To test the matter he presented it at the counter of one of the city banks, which also threw it out. A wager having been made on its character, of the premises was commenced, when, a visit had to be paid to Norristown to have reaching a room on the second floor, the its genuineness proved. loor was gently opened, when Major Gilmer and his cousin, a rebel officer, were found lying in bed awake.

Infi, too, the fact of slavery for the white man, freedom for the negro, poverty for the white man and our property for the Yankee —let us all unite in harmonious and deter-mined effort to defeat the eneny, and teach him that though we are for humanity's sake desirous of ending the war, yet not for the life of us all will we consent to such tterms as those proposed. The campaign of 1865 must go on, and on its issue depends the he of us an interview. The campaign of 1865 must go on, and on its issue depends the future of these people. If defented and vive will have nothing worse to submit to than is now demanded by the enemy, while those that fall will be at least free from slavery, dishonor and infamy; while, if we are successful, we shall not only escape the fate of infamy proposed for us by the enemy, but secure the blessings of liberty and prosperity to us and our children for-ever. Since nothing is left us but to fight, since the enemy will not permit any discus-sion of the means of our ending the war. vive will have nothing worse to submit t since the enemy will not permit any discus-sion of the means of our ending the war, let all determine that so far as we can the fight shall be a good one—shall be a fight to which our children's children can point with the pride of freemen, as the campaign which made their country free from the despotism of a mean, low, wretched people. Let us fight the fight out, and leave to God the issue of its battles. Let us do our duty and God will neither forsake us nor permit its to be overcome. be overcome. e learn that the Commissioners will make a report in writing to the President to-day. The Conference a Studied Insult on Mr. Lincoln's Part.

[From the Richmond Sentinel, Feb. 6.] The peace embassy is at an end. When the treatment with which it met is consider-ed, it is difficult to understand why Blair was sont to invite. The only one was ed, it is difficult to understand why Blair was sent to invite it. The only apparent purpose was to gain an opportunity for of-fering us a fresh insult. When Virginia, in April, 1861, sent a deputation of her citizens to Washington city in the interest of peace, Lincoln greated their arrival by his declara-tion of war and a call for troops. Such was his brutal response to her pachic overtures. Such was the slap in the face which the proud old Commonwealth received at the hand of the Illinois accident. The confel-eracy has just been visited with a similar affront from the same source, perpetrated after four years of war. after four years of war.

Affecting some sensibility as to the torren blood which he has caused to be shed, a of blood which he has caused to be shed, a messenger was forwarded by Lincoln to in-vite a conference, which he haft before re-fused, looking to a pacific adjustment of our differences. A deputation of eminent citi-zens was accordingly sent on our part. The story of their mission is told in another article. It wholly failed; and not merely that, the men who had invited it took coeractive at the whole is told in another article. It wholey failed; and not merely that, the men'who had invited it took occa-sion to make their action as offensive as possible. Aftersending their overture, they set diligently to work to secure the passage through their Congress, or of a so-called amendment to the constitution, upturn-ing the * social institutions of these States, robbing our people and doing on their oaths what on their oaths they had abundantly admitted they had no right to do. The New York Herald tells us that Seward hurried this projected outrage to its passage, that he might bring it in his hand to the conference which he had invited, and faunt it in the faces of our deputies. Vir-gina knew how to resont the outrage of ginia knew how to resent the outrage o 1861. Divided as she has been before, with a majority against secession, on the instant a majority against secession, on the instant of the affront her sons were a unit and her ranks were closed. At the word she drow her sword and defied the tyrant. After four years of heroic battle and glorious feats of arms, she looks in vain to see her sons play craven now. She will maintain the contest for her liberties with her uniform courage, and she will meet fresh insult with a new outburst of the old spirit, and what is true of Virginia we doubt not will be true of the whole country.

whole country. We have had some who have been hope We have had some who have been hope-ful of peace propositions. Not realizing the full enmity of our enemies, they have deemed it impossible that their devilish thirst for our blood was not yet slaked; that their rapacious designs upon our homes and property, and their desire to destroy our liberties, were not yet abandoned or abated; and hence they have been anxions that our government should extend the olive branch. The question with these so-called peacemen has been settled now. Our advance, though invited, has been met with ice, though invited, has been met with the most intolerable of insults. We have been fairly forced to the wall, and it is plain that there is no escape from utter ruin save such as we shall hew out with manful swords. There is literally no retreat but in chains and slavery. There are no peace men among us now. There is no room for one-mot an inch of ground for one to stand upon. We are all war men. Henceforth we must take our measures accordingly We must summon every resource to public defence. The people must be devoted and enthusias-in disceptess. This is no time for trilling, no time for shirnking from duty, no time for dealing tenderly with inefficient officers. Every man to his post, and the right men in right places, and we will put forth an effort that will confound our enemies and astonish file world. We are fully able to defend our liberties, to vanquish our foes, and by the blessing of God, we will cortainly do is. All that is needed is the firm con-cord, that united resolve, which, if they had been wanting before, Lincoln has now sup-lind bendence, liberty and undying fame. Let our legislative bodies, for mercy's sake, now stop debate and ack. To the Vin-shull last our dear old commonwealth should last our dear old commonwealth is hould hast our sector. most intolerable of insults. We hay en fairly forced to the wall, and it is plai Publicspirit is evidently awakened on this patriotic subject, and we have no doubt that before the draft comes off we shall have received quite a handsome sum, probably two dollars and eighty-seven and a half cents. This mode of making suitable presents to distinguished men accords with the pop-ular idea of the day. Some time ago a few gentlemen of this city, W. H. As-pinwall, Sam Barlow, August Belmont, and some other stock belders in sit and some other stockholders in oil com panies, presented General McClellan with a fine house. The friends of General Sherman are about to give him a house in Cincinnati. The admirers of General Grant have donated him a Admiral Farragut is to have a magnifi-cent house in this city. tion, then, "Colburn's Primary Arith-metic" for provost Marshal General Fry —a substantial because a most useful present—is quite in keeping with the spirit of the age, and we have an idea of taking advantage of the public generosity at the present time, by receiving sub-scriptions for a tombstone to General Butler. We see no particular objection Butler. We see no particular objection Butler. We see no particular objection to it, although, perhaps, it might have been expected that his friend, the other Ben-Hon.
