Trinity Lutheran.—The decoration consisted of a very beautiful silk flag, suspended in front of the pulpit to represent the American shield, above and around which are large pieces of drapery drooped in folds; the chandeliers on each side of the pulpit, and the reading desk in the altar are also draped in a fitting manner.

St. James Episcopal-Was appropriately draped in deep mourning, consisting of pieces of drapery tastefully drooped from and above the pulpit and the reading desk, the whole presenting a solemn appearance First Reformed-Was decorated with a large bunting flag, suspended in the rear of the pulpit, draped above and across the same with deep mourning in folds. The gaslights on either side of the pulpit were covered, and many smaller pieces were suspended from other parts of the church and along the galleries.

St. Paul's Reformed.—This church was decorated in an extensive manner, consisting of a large piece of drapery drooped in folds in the rear of the pulpit, below which are two small flags, crossed. From the pulpit is suspended a flag, in the shape of a shield, surrounded with drapery.

St. Mary's Catholic.—The church was draped as usual upon all such occasions, which consists in covering the pictures statuary, and chandeliers with mourning The services, which were observed at nine o'clock this morning, were very solemn and impressive. The venerable Father Keenan officiated and the Miserere and hymn appropriate to the occasion were sung by the choir, accompanied with the organ Moravian.—This church was very neatly and tastefully decorated by suspending a small silk flag in front of the pulpit, representing a shield, draped above and across in mourning. Union Bethel .- The drapery in this church consisted of lengthy pieces drooped in folds along the galleries and back of the pulpit, from the middle droop of which was suspended a placard with the words,

The Nation weeps; Her Honored Chieflies low," The pulpit was also draped, and covered with a large flag. St. John's Lutheran .- This church was draped in deep mourning, with a flag stretched across the pulpit, and also draped There were no services at this church, the pastor being absent from the city. St. John's Episcopal.-Was very neatly placed in mourning with very lengthy pieces of drapery extending along each side of the church, and drooped in folds. On the arch above the altar was displayed a small flag draped. Presbyterian.—The draping of this church was also very neatly arranged, consisting of large pieces of drapery suspended rear of the pulpit, and many smaller pieces from the gas-jets along the sides of the church and the gallery. First Methodist Episcopal.—This church presented a beautiful, solemn and sorrowful appearance. A very extensive piece of drapery was suspended like a curtain in rear of the pulpit to the left, crossing a large flag suspended in a similar manner to the right. Various other smaller pieces were drooped from the gas-jets on the sides and galleries. Above the clock, facing the pulpit, were two small silk flags crossed and draped. The members of Conestoga Council No. 8, O. of U. A. M., attended in a body at this church, where an appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor.

Salem Evangelical,—The decorations in this church were similar to those of the First Reformed. St. Joseph's German Catholic Church-

Was appropriately draped in a manner befitting the occasion. St. Paul's M. E. Church-We failed to get a sight of, but we understand the drapery in it was tastefully disposed.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF THE LATE PRESIDENT LINCOLN.-At the stated meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Association of this city, held in their rooms on Thursday evening last, the following resolutions offered by Mr. Peter Wanner, were adopted:

WHEREAS, The time has come when we are about to hail the joyful day of peace, the restoration of the Union, the supremacy of the Constitution, and the return of brotherhood throughout the land;

AND WHEREAS, We acknowledge, under the internation of the land of the land. the inscrutable dispensations of an All-Wise Providence, a sad public affliction in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, the late

Chief Magistrate of the country; therefore Resolved That in the hour of this deplorably sad event, we do not for a moment despair of the ultimate speedy triumph of our cause, trusting in a kind Providence, and the common virtue and intelligence of the American people.

trial, and which involved an interesting question. A man had been convicted of larceny, the charge having resulted from the following state of affairs: "The defendant, it is alleged, had eloped

"The defendant, it is a lieged, and eloped with a married woman. The woman in her flight carried off certain articles which her husband charged the partner in her, flight with stealing. They found the defendant guilty, but his counsel moved for a new trial, on the ground that the charge could not be larger under Ludlow efficiency. not be larceny. Judge Ludlow affirmed this a good law, and laid down the rule that in a case of this kind, unless the property taken by the woman had passed into the actual custody of her paramour, he could not be charged with the larceny. A new trial was awarded."

According to this decision, a man can run away with the wife of another without rendering himself liable to indictment for the dry goods she carries off. This makes the path of such runaways still more easy

THE PASSAGE OF THE PRESIDENTIAL FUNERAL TRAIN THROUGH THE CITY.aturday was truly another sad and mournful day. The remains of the late President Lincoln were announced in Fridayevening's Intelligencer to pass through this city at nineteen minutes after 2 o'clock on Saturday, but after going to press we learned that the schedule had been changed, and that the remains would pass through an hour earlier. This fact was duly announced on our bulletin board this morning, and at an early hour hundreds and thousands of people were wending their way to the When the funeral train arrived at 1 depot. o'clock the crowd was so dense that it was almost impossible to get the train through. And in all appropriately and properly observed, and of the people there was nothing but gloom and sadness denicted on their countenances Engine 186, with one passenger car attached, acted as pilot, and preceded the funeral train some ten minutes. The funeral train which consisted of nine cars, was drawn by engine 331. In the first car were the remains of the deceased President's son, Willie Lincoln, who died some two years mains were was the second from the rear The train stopped for so short a period of

In the car immediately preceding the one in which the deceased President's remains were we noticed Capt. All places of business were closed at noon. and many buildings, public and private, are heavily draped with the emblems of mourning. The bells are sadly tolling, and erything betokens the grief and gloom of the people in this dark hour of our country's history.

Below wil lbe found a description of the appearance of the Depot and the Norris Locomotive Works: THE DEPOT. The Pennsylvania Railroad Passenger Depot was most extensively and elegantly corated with flags and drapery, and presented a beautifully solemn and impressive appearance. From each one of the columns. large American flag was suspended drawn o a side like a hanging curtain, and fasmed to each again at the end with crape. Along the side of the Depot, both inside and outside, lengthy pieces of drapery were drooped in festoons above and across the flags. On the outside of the different offices, above each door, was a piece of drapery suspended in two festoons between each of which hung a small flag. pon the walls, between some of the doors and windows, were displayed numerous nall flags crossed and bound with drapery. and between others many larger ones taste ully disposed and draped. Between the Telegraph and Adams's Express Offices, were displayed two large, beautiful silk flags, crossed and draped, one being the United States Flag and the other the colors of Pennsylvania-above which was sus-ent Lincoln, surrounded with a wreath of oxwood and covered with mourning. Below the portrait was a large placard, bearing these words: ABRAHAM LINCOLN, pended a large portrait of the late Presi

ILLUSTRIOUS MARTYR OF LIBERTY! THE NATION MOURNS HIS LOSS.

BUT THOUGH DEAD, HE YET LIVETH The draping of the Depot was superin tended by Messrs, Geo. L. Boyle and John Keller, assisted by Messrs. Lewis Haldy, Charles M. Howell, John B. Kevinski Lieut. John Rees, and others.

THE NORRIS LOCOMOTIVE WORKS were also very beautifully and becomingly decorated, which consisted of large pieces of drapery, from one end of the buildings to the other, suspended in festoons, and looped between the windows with red, white and blue ribbons. The large flag was twined around the flag-staff upon the top of the main building, with emblems of mourning around it. A smaller flag, draped, was displayed in graceful folds above the office door. Here, too, were also assembled a large number of citizens, besides the employees of the works. As the funeral train passed slowly along, the employees, who had been previously drawn up in line, stood with their heads uncovered n respect to the remains of the late Presi-

THE MEETING ON SATURDAY,-The ounty meeting, called by Messrs. Benjamin Champneys, James M. Hopkins and Andrew Armstrong, convened at the Court House on Saturday last, at 11 o'clock A. M. The meeting was organized by the appointnent of Hon. Benjamin Champneys as President, with a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Judge C., on taking the chair, proceeded to deliver a somewhat engthy address in the course of which he ade several characteristic flings at ex-President Buchanan. The whole address was full of the blood-thirsty vindictiveness of the fanatical crew now ruling the country. Our readers would not thank as for reporting this windy harangue in full. At the conclusion of the Judge's address the meeting adjourned for the purpose of proceeding to the depot to view the funeral train, containing the remains of the late President Lincoln, pass through the city. The meeting re-assembled at 2 o'clock, P. M., and an Address to the People of Lancaster county was read by Mr. J. R. Sypher which we do not care to burden our columns with. It was written in the usual style of allthe Abolition stay-at-home warriors-the terms found only in the blood-thirsty ocabulary of the radical fiends making up was "full of froth and fury, signifying nothing." Addresses were then delivered by N. Ellmaker, Esq., O. J. Dickey, Esq., Col. D. W. Patterson, J. B. Amwake, Esq., Prof. J. P. Wickersham and Mr. Andrew Armstrong. The speakers took their cue from he speech of Judge Champneys and the address of the committee. They raved, fumed, and swore terribly, "like the army in Flanders," and fairly made "Rome howl" with their burning invectives. Col. Dickey, who always "snuffs the battle from afar." offered a resolution, the subject of which was that no peace should be made until the rebels were made to suffer horible imaginary things. What a terrible fate is in store for them if this valiant Colo-

the sum and substance of the address, which nel should get hold of their precious carsses! Doubtless he would hang them all on a "sour apple tree." The meeting, which was nothing but a beggarly account of empty benches" in the morning, was well attended in the afternoon. It adjourned about 4 o'clock, and the leaders were well satisfied with the manner in which they performed their labor, which was to renew the hate and rage among their "loyal" followers to the people of the South. A great many persons, who had become disgusted with the proceedings, left pefore the close of the meeting. LANCASTER HORSE MARKET, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1864,—The arrivals and sales. vith but one exception, have been unusually slim during the past week, TROUT'S .- The only arrival was Phil Morgret, from Bedford county, with 17 head, which were shipped off by D. M. Sharp & Co. this morning, leaving 63 head—the same number as in our report last week-remain-ng in the stables. FUNK's,—The arrivals have been as folows, viz: Gilbert & Weiler, from Mercersourg, Franklin county, 12 head; Luther Spiehlman, of same county, with 8 head, and Steckman & Logan, of same county. with 14 head. On Wednesday last, John P. Law bought and shipped off 16 head for the Government, and about 7 head were sold to various other parties throughout the county. There remains on hand 28 head. LEMAN & Co.'s.—The arrivals were about 8 or 10 head, bought up in the county. A car-load was shipped to Harrisburg last week, and a few sold singly to different parties. About 5 head remain in the stables. COPELAND & CLINE'S .- No change since expected during the present week. SAMBURG PORT WINE.-This wine known to be the most healthy and invigorating beverage now in use. It is recommended by physicians and other professional men, and is particularly adapted to the present weather—keeping the stomach in a clear and healthy state. Our druggists sell this wine.

COURT PROCEEDINGS-Tuesday Afternoon.-In the case of forcible entry, Henry Miller claimed possession of a house be longing to Valentine Miller, until the 19th day of April, 1864, he having paid rent to that time. The defendant, however, it was shown, forced the house before the expiration of the lease, broke the lock, put out the furniture, and committed other depreda tions. The jury returned a verdict of no guilty, and costs to be paid equally by defendant and prosecutor. Com. vs. John Miller. The defendant, an illiterate German, was accused of the larceny of an overcoat and shawl, valued at about eighteen dollars, from Thomas E. Franklin, Jr., of this city. Testimony was produced to show that the articles were ound in the hands of Miller, who equivo cated in reference to them. Found guilty and sentenced to pay one dollar fine and costs, to restore the property stolen, and undergo six months' imprisonment. Several cases were continued for want of witnesses, &c. Wednesday Morning .- Com. vs. John Alexander, of Martic township, charged with selling liquor on Sunday and also to minors. Plead guilty to each indictment and was sentenced to pay fine and costs, and ten days imprisonment in each case. The case of Jacob German, charged with assault and battery, with intent to ravish, was continued over from yesterday's un finished business. The plaintiff, Mrs. Amelia Weidman, lives in Warwick township, and swears that on the 8th day of Oc tober, 1864, the defendant called at her house (in the absence of her husband) under pretence of exchanging guns with him. He then locked the door and attempted the outrage upon her person. She resisted, but made no outcry. The defence was very strong. Many witnesses testified to the good character of the defendant, his truth and good morals, and his inability to commit the assault on account of a very sore arm, which would necessarily prevent him from using it. Her general character for untruthfulness, not to be believed on oath, and other minor matters were dwelt upon and the fact of her silence, when she lived but 120 steps from a neighbor's house, within easy hailing distance. The rebutting estimony to all this was that her character had been always good, though the witnesses on the plaintiff's side were in several instances not very definite in their assertions, and their appearance and actions not very flattering. This case pending, the Court adjourned at 10 o'clock, on account of the funeral onors to President Lincoln. Com. vs. Henry Myers, charged with the arceny of sheep and calf skins from David Killinger and Isaac Evans on the 29th of March. Plead guilty, saying he was inoxicated at the time, and did not know what he was doing. Sentenced to nine months' imprisonment. The case of the attempt to commit rape was argued at much length, occupying the greater part of the term of the morning, and the jury had not returned a verdict at the time our report closes.

The jury in case of Jacob Garman, charged with assault and battery with inent to ravish, returned a verdict of not guilty, defendant to pay costs. This was a very interesting case from the points incolved, consuming much time, and productive of a good deal of legal argument on both sides. Com. vs. Henry Yeager. Plead guilty to stealing money (bank notes) from Lewis Suter. Sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar, costs, to return the amount stolen, and andergo fifteen months' imprisonment. Com. vs. Henry Bear, charged with the arceny of a grey horse from Samuel Homert, of Germany township, Adams county, about the time of the invasion of our State n 1863. The horse was first with a man amed Wolgomerth, near Mt. Joy, who said he purchased the animal from Bear in October, 1863, for $85, and Samuel Hossler testified that he had bought it from Wolgomerth for $125. The defendant, it apears, was connected with the emergency men who enlisted to defend the State and ville. The horse was missed about the 26th of June, and at that time the whereabouts of Bear was not distinctly given, as the organi zation of the militia was not perfected. It appears that somebody else had taken th orse to escape from the rebels, and left it n charge of Bear, who was living near Mt. Joy at the time, thereby implicating him, to all appearance, when eventually he was compelled to sell it on account o the cost. Com. vs. C. Kreiner. The defendant wa charged with stealing and destroying hoop ooles, &c. Plead guilty, sentenced to pay the usual tine, to restore the property and under go three months imprisonment. Com. vs. John Brosey. Assault and batery on a boy 6 years of age. The mother the child, Mrs. Amelia Harnish, and the defendant live in Manheim. She swore hat her child had been beaten very severely by Mr. Bear, and hurt a great deal, and sh declared her intention with true maternal affection to "fight for her children." Mr. B's character as a quiet, peacable citizen was also testified to by a number of witnesses. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and he was sentenced to pay six ents fine and costs of prosecution. Com. vs. Jacob Nagle, charged, on the ath of Sarah Geib, with fornication and bastardy. Found guilty, and sentenced in the usual manner to pay lying-in expenses. and the sum of seventy-five cents per week to the mother till the child reached the age of seven years. The defendant exhibited nonchalance, which was truly refreshing in fact, it appeared as if he was proud of the lignity of a father, to which he had arrived. He was quite young, not over seventeen vears of age. Friday Morning .- Com. vs. Wm. Mc Quaid. This was the case of a small boy, aged about eight years, who stole a nocket book and money from a Mrs. Robinson, n Columbia. He plead guilty, being frank and innocent in his answers and appear ance, evidently not realizing the enormity of his offense. The court directed him to be sent to the House of Refuge.

Com. vs. Christian F. Herr.-Selling liquor on Sunday and to minors. Plead guilty. Sentenced to pay twenty dollars fine and undergo ten days imprisonment. Com. vs. Elim Kryder.-Fornication and bastardy on the oath of Susan Kendig. The parties live in Paradise township. The child was born on the 17th of Jan., but the prose cutrix was unable to say whether it was be gotten on the 17th of April or 7th of May, '64, difference of three weeks, and on accoun of the informality in the complaint, the counsel for the defense wanted the case dis missed, which was, however, overruled by the Court. Kryder was found guilty and the usual sentence given. Com. vs. Sophia Loney. Adultery. The parties in the case are all black and a good deal of color was thereby given to the story. It appears that the defendant and John Burrel, both married folks, were too intimate, being found in an equivocal position by Burrel's wife, whose jealousy was aroused, and hence the suit. The case was productive of several funny incidents, the witnesses' quaint remarks and replies causing much laughter. The parties live in Columbia, witnesses and all (with but one notable exception) being of the race that was "born to blush unseen." The lady was found guilty and sent to prison for nine months, after which it is hoped that her darkened life will assume a new phase. Com. vs. C. Bigler .- Plead guilty to the charge of stealing a gold ring and other small articles from John Mattern, saying, in excuse, that he was a little drunk at the time. The usual sentence was given, and six months' imprisonment. The hearing of the application for tayern licenses will be heard on the first of May. REPORT OF THE GRAND INQUEST.

REPORT OF THE GRAND INQUEST.

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Lancaster:

The Grand Inquest of the county respectfully report that they have acted upon all the indictments presented by the prosecuting attorney. They have had before them thirty-five bills of indictment, of which thirty were returned true bills, and five were returned information. M'CORMICK'S IMPROVED SELFRaiking Combined Reaper and Mower for 1865, one of the greatest labor-saving machines of the age, It is superior to all others, because it is made of the best material, and for field work strong enough to be safe, durable and reliable at all times. It has the advantage of making a perfect separation by the Rake, in all kinds of grain, whether tangled or lodged, long or short, by reason of the operation of the Rake in revolving over the reel, and making the separation in the uncut grain, or oefore the sickel. The certainty of a clear cut apparatus and platform at the making of each sheaf, no matter how tangled or short the grain may be. The grain may hang over the separator to the left and be out of reach of other Rakes and make a trail certain, while ours cannot fall to clear all out every time. The motion of the Rake and Sickel can be stopped at pleasure. It rakes the grain off the side of the Machine, and deposits it in a most excellent shape for binding. Yet so loosely does the gavel lay on the top of the stubble that therd can be no heating if it has to lay there a longer time than others, will dry upafter a shower of rain. This is a very important teature of our Machine. Warranted, Farmers who want to secure a Machine, should order early.

Masses, STONE & ROSSTON designed this remarkable Free Exhibition of Æfrial Flights for a GRAND FEATURE of their Interior Entertainments; but the erection of the pillars and platform occupied so much valuable time, and required so great a space, that it was found very inconvenient and quite impossible to give it to their patrons without a long interruption of the brilliant Arente Performances, and notwithstanding the enormous expense attending the production of this Gymnastic Marvel, Messrs. Stone & Rossron prefer to present it as a FREE OFFERING, rather than the Public should be deprived of witnessing the most gigantic and absolutely startling demonstrations of physical vigor and aguity over displayed by man.

The exciting nature of these prodigious and novel Flights absorbed the attention and amazed the inhabitants of the principal cities of Europe, and the Press of that country teemed with laudatory enlogiums of the unequaled feats accomplished by Sig. F This splendid GRATUITOUS EXHIBITION will be
