SAD AFFAIR AT COLUMBIA-FOUR BOYS SHOT-Two of THEM KILLED.-Last night (Sunday), a few minutes before 8 o'clock, the report of a gun was heard in the neighborhood of Erisman's Saloon, corner of Front and Locust streets, Columbia, followed soon after by screams of distress. It appears that a number of small boys, two of them sons of Mr. Erisman, proprietor of the saloon, and the others children of Mrs. Felix, Mrs. Dickinson and Mr. Charles Rawlings, were playing in Mr. Erisman's vard, when Mr. E.'s eldest son, a lad of ten or eleven years, went into the saloon and came to the back door with a gun in his hand. He told the boys he was going to shoot them, and immediately drew up the gun and fired, the load taking effect upwas killed almost instantly, receiving some sixty-seven shot in different parts of his body. The son of Mrs. Felix, aged 6 or 7 years, was shot in the abdomen, and lingered until this morning at 7 o'clock, when death put an end to his sufferings. The son of Mrs. Dickinson was not seriously wounded, and Mr. Rawlings' son received but a slight wound, but one shot pene trating his breast. The gun was kept loaded for the purpose of killing rats, and the lad who fired it was not aware of its being loaded. Deputy Coroner Hunter held an inquest on the bodies of young Erisman and Felix this morning. The affair has caused a general gloom in Columbia.

THE FIRST DEATH IN AN OLD FAMILY. -It will be seen by reference to our obituary record that Mr. Jacob Mishler, proprietor of Mishler's Hotel, and a highly-respectable citizen of Reading died on Friday morning last, in the 57th year of his age, after an illness of a few days. This is the first death in a family of ten children. The father and mother, at a hale old age, are also enjoying the decline of life at the old homestead, near the village of Reamstown. in this county, where they have resided for over 58 years. The youngest of the family is Mrs. William Garrett. Mr. M. was a prother of Mr. Benjamin Mishler, the celebrated Bitters manufacturer, and Mr. Isaac Mishler, the well-known Liquor merchant of 127 North Queen street, this city. The rarity of a death for nearly sixty years in one family is well worth noting.

EMIGRANTS FOR THE WEST.—The emi grant travel, over the Pennsylvania railroad, says the Philadelphia Ledger, for the Far West, during the present month, is much greater than at the same period in 1864. The purples and the same period in 1864. The purples are the same period in 1864. The same perio 1864. The number sent for the month up to the present time is about 3000, and most of them are farmers and farm laborers. Emigration by the present route would be much increased if the Western railroad companies did not throw obstacles in the way, by frequent changes of the rates of fare, and arbitrary charges upon extra baggage, which is checked in Philadelphia to the point which emigrant desired to go to. The Western roads should encourage this class of travel as much as possible, for many o the roads would never have been built, nor would they now be of much use, but for the emigrants that have settled in the States through which they pass. The emigrant counts the cost of reaching a certain poin before leaving home, and if the Western roads demand more than a fair price, he will seek other channels of reaching his destination. Now that emigration to this country is likely to be very great, the subject of transporting them to the West is well worthy serious consideration.

STILL ANOTHER PLAN TO GET RID OF THE WORMS.—To guard against the worm nuisance next year, everybody knows that the millers of the present season must be despatched as soon as they make their appearance, which is now very shortly. The plan now suggested of ridding the trees of these pests, is to procure a few sheets of what is termed "fiy-paper" (which is nothing more than heavy paper smeared with balsam of fir or varnish,) and taking round blocks manufacture a couple of lanterns. These lanterns are to have lighted candles placed in them, and hung in the trees. The millers, attracted by the light, will flash around them, and alighting on the paper, of course stick fast. In this way hundreds can be captured and destroyed, and as the experiment is a cheap one, it is well worth trying.

COUNTY OFFICERS' FEES .- The following is a copy of the Act passed at the last session of the Legislature, increasing the fees of several County Officers of the Commonwealth. It will be observed that the Act is merely temporary in its provisions, and authorizes the increase to be demanded during the present year only:

An Act increasing the fees of the several County Officers of this Commonmealth. Section I. Be it emacted, cc. That for one year from the pussage of this Act, the Sheriff, Prothonotaries, Clerks of the Or-Sheriff, Prothonotaries, Clerks of the Orphans' Court, Clerks of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Clerks of the Court of Quarter Sessions, Recorders of 1 beeds, and Rogisters of Wills, of the several counties of this Commonwealth, shall be and they are hereby authorized to add to, collect and receive twenty per centum in addition to the sum total of all fees now allowed by law: Provided, That this Act shall not upply to the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny, Susquehanna, Bradford and Sullivan.

COLONEL BOWMAN.-Col. Bowman, to whom General Sherman addressed his re-cent letter excoriating Stanton and Halleck, s said to be the former Superintendent of West Point Academy, who was removed from that position last summer, by order of Secretary Stanton, because he invited Gen. Secretary Stanton, because ne invited Gen. McClellan to deliver the oration at the laying of the corner stone of a monument to the soldiers from the Academy who have fallen in the civil war. Our readers will probably remember the circumstance.—Cleaveland (Ohio) Plaindealer.

-The Colonel, ever since his removal from command at West Point, has been residing in this city, except at slight intervals when on detached duty. He is a brother of the lamented Bishop Bowman, of this city, and one of the noblest and most accomplished officers in the old Army. Fort Sumter was erected under his supervision, and numerous other public works constructed by him attest his great ability as an officer of the engineer corps. He is a splendid tleman, and has hosts of devoted friends wherever known. The petty and malignant spite of such a man as Stanton can never take from Colonel Bowman the re-

HORSE INSURANCE COMPANY.—The Penn Township Horse Insurance Company, for insuring horse and for the detection of horse thieves, has been organized, and is now prepared for the transaction of business. Andrew A. Zug has been elected President. and E. H. Gingrich, Secretary and Treasurer. The Board of Directors will meet at Jacob Busser's tavern, near Manheim, on the first Saturday in each month.

JUST CRITICISM .- The 14th Army Corps correspondent of the New York Herald thus speaks of the "eleventh hour" promotion of the brave, meritorious and gallant Hambright and others. The Colonel, the correspondent states, declines to accept the promotion, and very properly, too, we think: Davis' Brigade Commanders.—No corps commander in the army, I may safely say, has more able subordinate commanders has more able subordinate commanders than has General Davis; yet, strange to say, their advancement, from some cause or other, has been sadly neglected. There is Hobart, of Wisconsin, who at Chicamauga alone won a brigadier's rank, goes home next week with his regiment a simple brevet brigadier. Then there are Hunter, Gleason, Hambright and Langley, who have commanded brigades long and faithfully, and have time and again won a full star. All nave time and again won a full star these officers have been neglected, and now, when the war is over, Gleason gets a cold breast, Hunter and Hambright are recompanded for a breast brightness, and mended for a brevet brigadiership, and Langley, with a commission of full colonel in his pocket, is recommended for brevet colonel. Hambright, I believe, is the senior colonel and Langley the senior lieutenant-colonel in the army, and both of them de-cline to accent the patter. cline to accept the paltry crumb thrown to them now on the eve of retiring to civil life, when they look back and behold their ine, when they look back and behold their juniors, who have won promotion by staying at the rear on court-martials and "hobnobbing" with politicians, promenading Pennsylvania avenue beneath brigadiers' stars. The same disregard of meritextends down into positions of lower rank.

SALE OF DURHAM CATTLE.-Mr. James Gowen, a well-known agriculturist and stock-raiser, advertises a sale of Improved Durham Cattle, at his country seat, "Mount Durham Cattle, at his country seat, "Mount Airy," near Philadelphia, on the 20th of this month. Our farmer friends, who are in want of choice stock for breeding, will find this sale well worth their attention.—

WHIT MONDAY.-Great is Whit Monday ut greater still the crowds with which denizen of our goodly city is greeted in every quarter to-day. The railroad trains, private conveyances, etc., have brought in their thousands, and nothwithstanding the weather is intensely warm the thermometer being about 90° in the shade, the streets are swarming with pleasure seekers. The circus and fat woman are not here but the flying carriages are attracting a large share of attention, and a variety of other amusements are on hand to cater to every taste. Allen, the razor-powder and liniment man: McEntvre, the renowned worm-vermifuge man, and a host of les esculapian lights are discoursing on the wonderful effects of their all-healing panaceas; and many leave their rostrums relieved of a portion of shinplaster currency, on four of the boys. Mr. E.'s second son if not of the "ills to which human flesh is heir." Then we have song, picture and "valler-kivered" literature dealers, who relieve the monotony of their calling by bringing noisy drummer boys to their aid. And when the gaping crowds become athirst, why "here is your ice-cold lemon ade" to quench the same. The visitors are invited to "roll up, tumble up, any way at all, o you get up," to test the quality of the deghtful beverage, at "only ten cents a glass." f course no sun or dust can get to it, and t is gulped down with gusto by those who invest their "ten-centers." Of the numerous other "wonderful sights," is impossible to make a note. It is enough to say that everybody, his wife or sweetart as the case may, old and young, of all classes and conditions, are enjoying themselves as best they know how. Thereore, great is Whit Monday, and long may t continue as one of the peculiar yearly institutions" of Lancaster.

A CAUTION TO FENCE-BREAKERS AND THIEVES.-Among the Acts passed by the late Legislature, is one providing: "That if any person or persons, from an after the passage of this Act, shall malici-ously or wantonly break or throw down any post and rail, or other fence, erected for the enclosure of land, or shall carry away, break or destroy any post, rail, or other material of which such fence was built, enmaterial of which such fence was built, en-closing any lot or field within this common-wealth, such person or persons, so offend-ing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, one-half thereof to be paid to the informer, on conviction of the offender or offenders.

LANCASTER HORSE MARKET, MONDAY, JUNE 5TH, 1865.—The trade is very dull at present, and the sales and arrivals limited to a few; but there is apparently more reg-

STRANGE, BUT TRUE.—War, disease and famine are considered the most powerful emissaries of death. There are others, more destructive than the three united. We allude to the deadly poisons sold as rum, gin, brandy, whiskey, wine, &c. A glance at our criminal calenders, police reports and medical statistics proves this. In the State of Maine, the headquarters of the temperance movement, there is no restriction on of Maine, the headquarters of the temperance movement, there is no restriction on the sale of Speer's Samburg Port Wine—a flattering testimonial of its worth and purity. In our opinion its sale should be encouraged in every section of the country, not merely for its non-intoxicating properties, but for its rare and valuable medicinal virtues, approved by conversed to the country. virtues, approved by eminent members of the faculty, in Europe and America. Permit me to describe one of the early cenes in the grand drama, the last act f which has not yet been played. It was during the session of Congress, he winter preceding the Charleston the winter preceding the Charleston Convention, that a grave senator occu-pied the attention of the Senate on the state of the nation. His solemnity of manner, his simplicity of style, his exreme views on the subject of stat rights, all proved the sincerity of the speaker, and recalled to memory the figure, voice and sentiments of the dead he emanation of a spirit than the uttered convictions of the man who wa destined to be the leader of the great rebellion. A sort of awe spread over the Senate chamber, and even Wade and Sumner, and Chandler listened with an attention akin to respect. Among the auditory there was on more than the rest absorbed in the scene before him. The Senate ad ourned, and Stanton hastened from the chamber to one of the great hotels of Washington, and asked to be shown to he room of the venerable Governor Me lary, of Onio. Scarcely had he entered when, with a voice full of passionate energy, he exclaimed—"Medary, I have just heard Davis, and, by all the gods, he is the greatest of living statesmen! The South is right, and Davis must b he nominee of the Charleston Convention; and to secure that end, you must come at once to Washington and take charge of the government organ. Governor Medary suggested that there were certain reasons why such an arrangement might not be acceptable to Mr. Buchanan, when Mr. Stanton re-

"I will look to that; I will be responsible for that! I will go at once to the White House, and in two hours from low I will see you again. Medary waited, Stanton returned; but for reasons unnecessary here to narrate the scheme failed. This was the open ing scene which preceded the rebellion and Edwin M. Stanton played the chief role as the advocate of southern rights, and the especial friend of Jeff. Davis. Governor Medary sleeps in an honored grave, but there are yet three living witlesses to the truthfulness of this narrative. One is a state prisoner who lies in is jailer, who declared the prisoners, iews to be just, and who sought to place the man he now holds in irons, in the Presidential chair; the third and last is the venerated James Buchanan. This s but a stray scrap of history, but it is not unworthy of being presented. VOICE FROM THE GRAVE.

Mr. Vailandigham's Letter. We print, on the outside page, a letter rom Mr. Vallandigham to the Young Men's Democratic Association of Lan easter. Pa. As the calm and thoughtful utterances of one who has been grossly misrepresented, bitterly maligned, and most wantonly persecuted for opinions' sake, this letter commends itself to the attention of every unprejudiced mind. It contains nothing, in thought or lan-guage, to offend the most zealous supporter of the Administration, while at the same time, in its statesmanlike re view of the important events that have been crowded into the past four years, it constitutes a searching vindication of the position and course of the Democratic party in reference to those events The whole letter breathes the spirit of the purest and most exalted patriotism, and will leave no doubt on the mind of any one not utterly a slave to partisan oigotry, of the writer's intuitive, firm and unalterable devotion to THE UNION. In his recommendation to the Democ acy, to give their support to President son, so far as they consistently can, n all his efforts at the pacification the lately rebellious States, Mr. Vallan-digham soars so high above the com-ton and elsewhere: That Mr. Stanton should be entirely willing to leave both the War Department and the country, can readily be believed. There is a shallow press at Washington, disgracing the government by pretending to be its organ, which has ately overflowed with coarse abuse of those who condemn some things done by the War Secretary, declaring that it because of his patriotism that he is hated and abused.

to him because of any good thing he has done, or of hatred to him on any account, onally injured and insulted. The army officers have always complained that they could obtain neither just nor genlemanly treatment from the War Secretary, and his recent abuse of General Sherman has made their ill-feeling more intense. There are many men, imprisoned and released by Secretary Stanton's orders during the war, who threaten to bring suits against him for damages as soon as the reign of civil law is restored. For these and other like reasons a residence abroad for a few years will be pleasanter than any posi tion at home. THE Evening Press of last Saturday contains an editorial, evidently written by a "Minister of the Gospel." Speaking of a time just before the war commenced, the writer says:

"Then, too, our navy, small as it was, had been treacherously sent to remote seas, and the munitions of war, to a great extent, had been treacherously removed from our public arsenals and fortresses. An administration was in ower that sympathized wholly with the rebels, and which embraced men actually engaged in the rebellion. God could not have selected a time when we we seemed to human eyes an easier prey to the destroyer."

Here are three false statements, whether intentionally false or not, we cannot say. 1. Our navy was not "treacherously sent to remote seas." The largest home squadron during the previous twenty years, was that stationed on our coasts and in our harbors, during the closing part of Mr. Buchanan's term. The o ficial proof is on record.

2. The munitions of war were not "to a great extent removed from our public arsenals and fortresses."

3. The Administration in power did not "sympathize wholly with the re-bels." Neither Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Toucey, Mr. Holt, Gen. Dix, nor others connected with the Administration sympathized with the rebels, or favored secession. Floyd, Thompson and Stanton advised them to get their States out of the Union. But under Mr. Buchanar neither he, Floyd, nor Thompson, was permitted to aid them.—Hartford Times.

P. Grey Meek Arrested Again.

On Tuesday last the editor of the Watchman was taken into custody by the Deputy United States Marshal of this district and conveyed to Pittsburg on a charge of counseling resistance to the draft, and with advising drafted men not to report. Mr. Meek arrived home again late on Thursday, none the worse for his little jaunt, much to the disappointment of his abolition friends who had given it as their opinion that he was at last finally disposed of, and hoped to hear of his death by hanging or some other such dire intelligence.

This makes the fifth time that the editor of this paper has been arrested through the instrumentality of aboli-tion bloodhounds. It seems to be their intention to pursue him to death. They will fail to accomplish their object.-Bellefonte Watchman.

Andrew M'Ginley, who was convicted bout five years since of the murder of Thomas Shaveland, and under sentence of death, broke from the jail of Montour county on the night of Monday last He managed to escape from the cell in which he was confined by sewing off six ron bars of the window. This mus have taken him a considerable time, as two of the bars were three-quarters of an inch square, while the remaining bars were half an inch in thinkness by two inches width. From the window of the cell he lowered himself down to the jail yard by making a rope out of the shetts of his bed. He got out of the jail yard by digging away the ground beneath the stone sill under the gateway, there being no stone foundation to impede him in his work, the scene of Amazonian warfare. A disgraceful mob, composed of women has given the town a notoriety which its well-disposed and orderly citizens must be heartily ashained of. It ap-pears that a Mrs. Patterson, a widow lady, who has been under the Doctor's care for two weeks, was peculiarly offensive to the exclusive loyal female portion of the town, for some expressions of hostility to the Administration prior to the unfortunate death of Mr incoln. On the receipt of the news his diabolical assassination, some evidisposed person, probably a persona enemy, gave currency to the report that this unprotected and invalid woman had expressed joy at the death of the President. Without giving the subject the least investigation, and bidding de-fiance to the laws, a number of women among them the wife of the Presidir Elder of the Methodist Church, visited the house of Mrs. Patterson and compelled her an invalid, to leave he ouse, and carry an emblem of mourning which, we understand, was a flag

Her protestations of innocence, her demand for the proof, her widowhood, and even the precarious condi-tion of her health, had no power to move their pity. Go she must, and they forced her out of the house, and dragged her around the streets to be scoffed and jeered at, tearing her dress nearly off. Not content with inflicting this gross indignity upon the sick mother they attempted to compel her little daughter, thirteen years of age, to perform the same service, and because she had spirit enough to resist the out rage she was beaten and bruised until blood streamed from her nose and her arms were black and blue. The above, we are credibly informed, are facts.

What lower depth of degradation can we reach than the existence and encouragement of a public sentiment which transforms females, in the mids of schools and churcees, and surrounded by what ought to be Christian influence into the worst type of men. In God's name what kind of an example is this to set before the youth of the country?
Do these women desire that their sons and daughters should pattern after them, and trample under foot the laws of society, humanity and God? Such an exhibition of heartlessness and contempt of law, humanity and Christi-anity-disgraceful alike to the town the parties engaged in it-we venture to say has not occurred the mobs of Paris, which occurred since the bloody and disgraceful French Revo-the bloody and disgraceful French Revo-lution of 1798. Have our people gone stark mad, and are the mothers and daughturs of America to live in history daughters of America to live in history as the most degenerate type of their clas As profoundly as we pity the poor invalid mother who was scourged in the public streets of Indianola, and who wa pained by the outrages visited upon her her feelings than enjoy the unenviable notoriety and torture of soul of those who persecute her. Since writing the above, we under-tand that Mrs. Patterson went to the postmaster of Indianola, who was re ported as the witness against her, and demanded the reason for reporting such a falsehood, and he denied utterly eve naving heard or reported any such

General Halleck's Antics.

It is reported that General Halleck ias been removed from the command of Richmond, to which he was appointed soon after the occupation of that city by the federal forces. If the report is true, the removal has not been made a moment too soon, as, in his new position, he had been playing many "fantastic tricks" Among other acts he actually issued an sending him to congenial Prussia, thus order setting aside the marriage laws of Virginia, and commanded that no marriages should take place except on conditions laid down by him. This extraordinary proceeding was too much for even some of the journals which have hitherto been among his advocates, and one of them, the New York Times, is constrained to say : 'The restrictions upon matrimony i Gen. Halleck's order are absurd, and revolting to human nature. They are in antagonism with the laws of God and of man. They are a tax upon chastity, an invitation to illicit intercourse between the sexes, an encouragement to adultery and lewdness. They are an abomination that should not be tolerated in a Christian land. They are an insult to the spirit of enlightenment, and exhibit the most disgraceful illustration of tyranny that has ever de graded a nation

PRIVATE SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.—I have several Tracts of Land, that I wish to sell in Berkley and Morgan counties, Virginia:

1st. My. Homestead, the "Spring Mills Farm," containing about 630 Acres. This is one of the richest and most productive farms in the State, and will bear cropping 6 or 7 years in succession; water in all the fields; grass grows spontaneously. This land is under good fencing, mostly stone and boards. The improvements are nearly all new, and built of brick within the last fifteen years—the Dwelling is large, and finished in the best manner, with slate soof. There are four other DWCLLING HOUSES on the farm, Store House, Blacksmith and Cooper Shops, a large Merchant Mill, five stories high, in good order and plenty of water with a good Saw Mill and a large bistillery, where 25 barrels of whiskey per day was made before the war, new Brick Barn, 120 feet by 55 leet. This property is situated in the county of Berkley, Va. 8 miles from Martinsburg, I nille from Potomac river and D½ miles from North Mountain Depot on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, with a good road thereto. The neighborhood is healthy and the society good. I have at North Mountain Depot, on the railroad, a Store and Warehouse, with good Dwelling attached. This is a first-rate business stand, where a large amount of goods can be sold at fair prices.

The improvements are good two Dwelling Houses, in good order, Corn Crib, &c. The water is good and pienty. The railroad passes through this farm. I own the Depot, and have a Store, Ware and Dwelling House the Tr. This is an excellent stand for a country store. There is one of the best water powers in the State on this farm. The tencing has been destroyed during the war, but there is plenty of fine Timber on the property. I also have $20 Acres of Timber Land in Morgan country, Va., one mile from Hancock Depot, on the b. & O. R. R., covered with Timber of the best quality, with a stream of water that will answer for a Sawmill. This land will make a nice farm when the timber is taken off. There is another tract of $300 Acres of Timber Land, lying on the Potomac river at Dain No. 6, im Morgan country, Va. The railroad passes through this land for 11/2 miles; there is timber on it in great abundance. About one half of this land will make good farming lands when cleared. This land is said to have coal upon it.

I have also several thousand Acres of Timber Lands, near Paw Funnel, near the railroad. The Timber is the only value of these lands. All of the above property will be disposed of at fair prices, and terms of payment made to sait the purenaser. I should prefer let ing a part of the money remain in the hands of the purchaser.

All who try it express their surprise that so delicious a Wine is produced in this country, and that it is so far different from what they had expected.

Some who knew nothing further of the Wine then seeing it advertised, thought at first it was a humbug, not knowing it was pure grape juice, kave found out their mistake, and now lay their lives to the use of this Wine.
