

With the printing press free to every citizen, the masses of the people are being educated...

An Interesting Question.

A serious question may arise hereafter, in consequence of the refusal to admit the Southern delegations to their seats in Congress...

Let Every Man Read and Think for Himself.

In the midst of political revolutions the voice of reason is almost always drowned by the noise of popular clamor...

General Grant Shows up the Radical Fortifications.

While Thad. Stevens has been whipping the whole horde of Republican crudeness and ill-will...

The Frank in the 16th District.

The Frank in the 16th District, the Senator elected in the 18th District, is being shown up already...

The Proclamation of the President.

The Proclamation of the President deploring the marches of the Unionarmies, and finally the sections of sovereignty...

Slavery Abolished—The Constitutional Amendment Adopted.

Wm. E. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States, to whom the President has addressed a letter...

The Chicago Stock-Yards.

A Great Enterprise—The Cattle and Hog Yards of the World—Thirty Miles of First-Class Hotel...

Will Agitation End with the Abolition of Slavery?

In our columns of to-day appears the official announcement of the adoption by the requisite number of States...

Excusing the Jamaica Insurgents.

The report of the Governor of Jamaica has appeared in the columns of the Intelligencer...

The Negro the Only Obstacle to Reunion.

That nothing but the impracticable theories of the radical Republicans stand in the way of a speedy, perfect and permanent reunion...

Doollittle Castigating Stevens.

On the occasion of the consideration in the Senate of the joint resolution...

The Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama.

The Warrant for Attachment Against the Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama...

The Fenian Trouble.

New York, Dec. 18, 1865.—The discussion of the Fenian trouble...

Pork and Packers.

The receipts of hogs at Cincinnati and Chicago, left for packers, this season and last, compare as follows:

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio.

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, in one of his campaign speeches...

The Beginning of the End.

In to-day's Intelligencer will be found two official papers which are just now of the most important significance...

Excusing the Jamaica Insurgents.

The report of the Governor of Jamaica has appeared in the columns of the Intelligencer...

The Negro the Only Obstacle to Reunion.

That nothing but the impracticable theories of the radical Republicans stand in the way of a speedy, perfect and permanent reunion...

Doollittle Castigating Stevens.

On the occasion of the consideration in the Senate of the joint resolution...

The Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama.

The Warrant for Attachment Against the Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama...

The Fenian Trouble.

New York, Dec. 18, 1865.—The discussion of the Fenian trouble...

Pork and Packers.

The receipts of hogs at Cincinnati and Chicago, left for packers, this season and last, compare as follows:

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio.

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, in one of his campaign speeches...

The President.

Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, in his speech at the serenade given to him at Washington on Thursday night, said: "Andrew Johnson is no hot-head..."

Excusing the Jamaica Insurgents.

The report of the Governor of Jamaica has appeared in the columns of the Intelligencer...

The Negro the Only Obstacle to Reunion.

That nothing but the impracticable theories of the radical Republicans stand in the way of a speedy, perfect and permanent reunion...

Doollittle Castigating Stevens.

On the occasion of the consideration in the Senate of the joint resolution...

The Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama.

The Warrant for Attachment Against the Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama...

The Fenian Trouble.

New York, Dec. 18, 1865.—The discussion of the Fenian trouble...

Pork and Packers.

The receipts of hogs at Cincinnati and Chicago, left for packers, this season and last, compare as follows:

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio.

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, in one of his campaign speeches...

The President.

Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, in his speech at the serenade given to him at Washington on Thursday night, said: "Andrew Johnson is no hot-head..."

Excusing the Jamaica Insurgents.

The report of the Governor of Jamaica has appeared in the columns of the Intelligencer...

The Negro the Only Obstacle to Reunion.

That nothing but the impracticable theories of the radical Republicans stand in the way of a speedy, perfect and permanent reunion...

Doollittle Castigating Stevens.

On the occasion of the consideration in the Senate of the joint resolution...

The Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama.

The Warrant for Attachment Against the Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama...

The Fenian Trouble.

New York, Dec. 18, 1865.—The discussion of the Fenian trouble...

Pork and Packers.

The receipts of hogs at Cincinnati and Chicago, left for packers, this season and last, compare as follows:

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio.

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, in one of his campaign speeches...

The President.

Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, in his speech at the serenade given to him at Washington on Thursday night, said: "Andrew Johnson is no hot-head..."

Excusing the Jamaica Insurgents.

The report of the Governor of Jamaica has appeared in the columns of the Intelligencer...

The Negro the Only Obstacle to Reunion.

That nothing but the impracticable theories of the radical Republicans stand in the way of a speedy, perfect and permanent reunion...

Doollittle Castigating Stevens.

On the occasion of the consideration in the Senate of the joint resolution...

The Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama.

The Warrant for Attachment Against the Habeas Corpus Case in Alabama...

The Fenian Trouble.

New York, Dec. 18, 1865.—The discussion of the Fenian trouble...

Pork and Packers.

The receipts of hogs at Cincinnati and Chicago, left for packers, this season and last, compare as follows:

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio.

Gen. George W. Morgan, late Democratic candidate for the Governorship of Ohio, in one of his campaign speeches...