Representatives in Congress. The Bichmond Whig, which is edited by one of the Congressmen elect from Virginia, in its issue of Monday, says : Tyrginia, in its issue of alonday, says: It is gratifying to witness the calm and dignified course of our Representa-tives elect, and to perceive that they take a sensible view of their duties. To no contest for seats should they be a "party." Such a contest, if engaged in by them, would necessarily be attended by incidents of an acrimonious char-acter, and would tend rather to exesperate opnosition and inflame exapperate opposition and inflame resonances. Whatever their rights may be under the Constitution and in the President's contemplation, they, in point of fact, stand before Congress in the attitude of candidates, and by the votes of members of Congress, will their several claims be decided. They should calmly await the issue of the resolution offered by Mr. Stevens, and passed by the House of Representatives.

Another Hard Hit at "Old Thad."

Our representative seems to be catch ing it all round; and strange to say the hardest licks he is getting come from his party friends. The Pittsburg Commercial of yesterday says:

The action of the Senate and House of Representatives clearly indicates that Mr. Summer and Mr. Stevens are in a small minority. The indications point to the admission of the Tennessee point to the admission of the Tennessee members without a great deal of delay. The unanimity with which Mr. Stevens's caucus resolution has been shorn of its objectionable features is in the block deven transition the highest degree promising.

What the Rebellion has Cost the South The Confederate muster-rolls show that the State of Alabama sent into the field one hundred and twenty-eight thousand men, and that thirty-four thousand lost their lives. It is probable that a much greater number were permanently disabled. Those who escaped with life and limb have lost the greater part of their property. Such figures as are presented above show how terrible the struggle on the part of those who strove to separate themselves from the loyal part of the Union, and may enable us to appreciate the determina tion of the men who had to be overpow ered before the Federal authority could be restablished in the South.

THE Fortress Monroe correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says Jefferson Davis stillenjoys good health, has daily walks on the parapet, comfortable apartments, a genteel wardrobe, "the best the mar-ket affords" in the provision line and plenty of reading matter. He thought the President's message was in general a wise and good document, but was dis-appointed that it was not more specific relation to the ultimate disposition which is to be made of himself.

The Constitutional Amendment in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 14.—In the Ken-tucky House of Representatives, Mr. Young offered a resolution, which waordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations, "That this Assembly heartily approves the ac-tion of the last General Assembly in rejecting the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the United States and believe that vote to be a finality and that this Assembly has no right o authority to consider or vote upon thi measure until it shall be again passed on proposed by Congress."

The Safety Bridle will put an end to all such needless accidents, and with the Safety lines the speed of ever horse is easily much increas d. At a speedal meeting of the Saddlers of Lan-caster county, Pa, held in Lancaster city, Nov. Z, 1985, the following resolutions were unani-mionsly adop ed : WHERAS, The netliness, nower and safety of Dr.Hartman's Safety Bridle and Lines have been publicly demonstrated in the presence of from one thousand te fif een hundred persons to their entire satisfaction; and since it was proven at the Mi lersville horse exhibition on four of the most victous and confirmed kickers and runaways, that with the Safety Bridle and Lines it is atteriy impossible for a horse either to kick or run away; therefore Resolved, That in view of the above facts, we deem in our legitimmet duty, both individu ily and collectively, to exert all homorable means to at one introduce the Bridle and Lines, be-cause in doing so we in a very great measure from kicking and running avay. Resolved, That in view of the above facts, we deem it our legitimmet duty, both individu ily and collectively to exert all homorable means to st once introduce the Bridle and Lines, be-cause in doing so we in a very great measure prevent all accidents with horse, while with the old and detective brile we put in great legopardy both lite and limb. Keolwed, That heresiter we manufacture no other but Safety Bridles, unle s especially or-dered. In rever county there are at least twenty town-ships, and in each township at least one hun-dred persons who drive ho ses-which a five dollars for an individual right will amount to 500 per township, and ten thomsaud dol ars ($10,000) for each county at the rate of twenty townships at five hundred dollars each ! [Tayse not the least doubt but that amount of money can be made out of a county with proper bus-ness tact and energy. The price of counties is so small as to pace the favestiment in the hands of every one, for few are so poor as to be inable to raise one hundred dol lars. Another feature about this invention is that the proprietor of territory need not manufac-ture the bridles and lines, as the ordinary bridle can be easily alt red into a Safety. The lines only require to be made to order, and these can be made by any suddler for a triffe more than the ordinary lines. Hence, unlike other patents, the right to use it only is sold No man need wish for a greater f r une than right of a Siste. To show the confidence the patence has in its invention, he offers to pay one thousand dollars for any horse that can either kick or run away when under the influence of the Safety Bride and Lines.
