Monday Afternoon .- Com'th vs. Jame mch, William Minnich and Wm. Bedford. Horse stealing. Messrs, Atlee and S. H. Reynolds appeared for the Commonwealth and Messrs. Amwake, Dickey, Brown and Nauman, for the defence.

The Commonwealth opening, stated that Eugene Kurtz, John Russel, James Smith, Wm. Minnich and William Bedford, are charged on two indictments—one for stealing a horse, and the other for stealing a ouggy and set of harness-the property of Leman, Murphy & Co., of this city.

These persons, who live in Philadelphia, came to Lancaster on a horse stealing expedition; came here in the night and put up at Kendig's Hotel, under assumed names; Russel and Minnich it was agreed should hire a horse and buggy at one livery stable, and the other three should hire a two horse team at another.

Russel and Minnich got their team, but the other three for some reason did not. The whole five were arrested together in Philadelphia.

Kurtz was not placed on trial on account of illness. Russell was allowed to become i witness.

He testified that on Saturday afternoon, September 30th, 1865, he went into a cellar on North Sixth street, Philadelphia; ob-served Minnich, Bedford and Kurtz; they proposed going to Lancaster on a ho stealing expedition that night; Minnich, Bedford and myself went out and got supper; we returned to the cellar, when Kurtz and Smith joined us; we then started to the depot, and the whole five of us came to Lancaster on the H o'clock train, and went to the City Hotel; Kurtz registered our names as follows; Eugene Hawthorne and friend, New York; Alex, Harris and friend, New York; James Smethurst, Baltimore; next morning we breakfasted together, and after breakfast we strolled through the city; we then consulted together, and at was agreed that I and Minnich should go to a livery stable and get, a buggy; the rest said they aling expedition that night: Minnich

THE NEGRO IN THE POLITICAL RING PROF. (!) W. H. DAY'S LECTURE.-Monday was a bad time for negroes to be engaged in political enterprises. There was nothing tropical about the weather. A fierce snow storm was driving down upon us from the inhospitable North, which no doubt caused many a lately made freedman to sigh for the comfortable home he had left in the genial clime of the sunny South. The negro population of Lancaster city is not yery large. Somehow, in spite of the encourage ment given to them by the practice and the precepts of our representative in Congress, they do not seem to flourish in this good, old-fashioned Dutch Democratic town. But, few though they be, it seems they have got up a negro Union League, organized to take especial care of the interests of the negro race, in which respect it is an exact counterpart of all the so-called Union Leagues which we have any knowledge. The sensation of the season with them has been a lecture from a certain celebrated negro orator, who goes under the high sounding title of Prof. W. H. Day. Agreeably to ap pointment the affair came off in the African M. E. Church last night. Through the blinding snow storm, in company with a couple of friends of opposite political faith, We made our way to the rather obsence and decidedly notorious part of the city where the church is located. Entering th edifice we found it about half filled with a crowd of "free Americans of African descent," It was a motley assemblage. Some of them, both men and women, had evidently been imbibing too freely. The crowd was noisy and disorderly, and the scene witnessed did not seem calculated to

The exercises of the evening were opened by a prayer from "Brudder Bosting." The next thing on the programme was the reading of a letter from Stephen Smith and other negroes of Philadelphia to Robert Boston, recommending the calling of a public meeting of the negroes of this city for the purpose of raising money to send a certain darky named William Whipper to Washington as a member of Horace Greeley's outside Congress. The lecture was gotten up to further that result.

The lecturer is a copper colored mulatto with talents sufficient to make him something of a notoriety among the colored population, and with assurance enough for my purpose. He commenced by congratu lating those present on the great change which the war had wrought, and assured them that the time was not far distant when they would stand on the high plane of equal rights. He said the flag was worth loving now; paid a tribute to the memory of Mr. Lincoln; and eulogized Thaddeus Stevens. The mention of the name of our representative brought down the House, and a good looking wench, who had been indulging pretty freely, cried out "go in Stevens bully for you." The lecturer next proceeded to speak of an organization that exsts among the negroes of this city, being a branch of the Negro Union League. The Lodge of Lancaster it seems bears the proud title of "The Old Guard;" borrowed we suppose from the nomenclature of our clared to be to further the great object of their obtaining equal rights in the State and the Nation. They had voted, why should they not vote now. The rights of the negro was the burthen of the lecture from its commencement to \ Es its conclusion. The lecturer did not ask that it be granted but boldly demanded equality county could have been present. We really think very many who have heretofore blindly followed Thad, Stevens and his mottoe of equal rights for the negro, would have been so completely disgusted that they would have been ready to abandon that political organization which advocates so odious a doctrine. How much money was realized toward paying the salary of outside Congressman Whipper we die not learn. Hall was a perfect ovation, Fulton Hall being crowded in every part by the beauty and fashion of the city. The Cantata of "Esther" was repeated, the former amateurs all taking part, with the exception of Mr. E. H. Gast, "King Ahasuerus," who, unfortunately, was prevented from doing so by a severe sore throat. His place was ably tilled, however, by a gentleman of this city, who is one of the finest Bass singers in the State. Mr. John Hart read the Scriptural parts of the Cantata in a clear and distinct manner. The second part of the programme was admirably arranged and carried out. The Misses Bare again sang several pieces with charming effect, and were heartily encored. Messrs. Hall and Heinitsh, in costume, sang the humorous song of "Billy Grimes, the Drover," amid shouts of laughter and applause. Mr. B. F. Shreiner performed a superb solo on the Piano, of which instru-ment he seems to be perfect master. Miss Josephine Boyd kindly consented to appear, and sang with exquisite sweetness "Robert Idol of my Heart;" the "Laughing Song," and "Kathleen Mayourneen." Her full, ach Soprano voice is under thorough cultivation, and her singing fairly took the audience by storm. This concert has proved beyond all doubt that we have an abundance of first-class musical talent in this city, and the thanks of the entire community are due Prof. Hall for his efforts in developing the same.

Now, we are somewhat fond of babies (albeit, we are fast approaching bachelordom) when they are in their proper places in the nursery; but are most decidedly opposed to their being brought to concerts and other places of amusement, where they generally prove a great annoyance to e who go to see what is to be seen, and appreciate what is to be appreciated.

ed Treasurer and Librarian DEATH OF AN OLD FRIEND.-We regre o announce the death of Mr. John Eshleman, which occurred on Saturday at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. William Johnson, on East Chestnut street. Mr. E. had been a sufferer from that dread disease, Consumption, for the last twenty years, but always bore his affliction with Christian fortitude and resignation. He was one of the noblest-hearted men that we ever knew. In his political principles he was a firm and undeviating Democrat, and as a friend was steadfast and sincere. It can be truly said of him that he was "an honest man, the noblest work of God." He was one of the best and most intelligent machinists in the country, and the gentlenen of that profession to whom he was well known will learn of his death with much years ago we learned to respect and esteem. THE Samburg grape of Portugal is now cultivated in this country for the preparation of a wine unexcelled by the vintages of the choicest port, to which it strongly asof the choicest port, to which it strongly assimilates in its mellow juiciness, richness of flavor and brilliancy of color. The fruit has flavor and brilliancy of color. The fruit has been brought to a perfection never attained in Portugal, by Mr. A. Speer, in his vine-yard, New Jersey. Physicians say it is superior to port for invalids. Clergymen use it for its purity as a communion wine, while the most fashionable families drink it as a dinner wine.—N. Y. Tribune.

WELL BESTOWED.-Rev. S. W. Reigert, formerly the able and efficient Principal the Male High School of this city, is now pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Sun bury, Pa. By his Christian and gentlemanly deportment, he has already won the affections and esteem of his congregation, and on the 22d ult. a surprise visit was paid him and his estimable lady, the agreeable nature of which is described in the Sunbury American of the 6th inst., an account of which follows:

An Agreeable Surprise.—The Presbyterian congregation of this place paid their pasor, Rev. S. W. Reigart, a very agreeable risit on Friday evening, the 22d uit; Mr. R. has recently gone to housekeeping, had just taken possession of his house had just taken possession of his house, in Fawn street, when it was besieged by his people, who came with bags of potatoes, sacks of flour, packages of coffee, sugar, tea and other groceries; cans of fruit, baskets of cakes, strings of sausage, turkeys, chickens, &c., to start him in housekeeping. One gentleman contributed a car load of coal. Donations in money, amounting in all to forty, six dollers, were also provided All. forty-six dollars, were also received. this was very pleasant and creditable to the liberality of the congregation. After the donations had been made, one of the ladies, donations had been made, one of the ladies, who were chiefly concerned in getting up the affair, read the following amusing verses, which were briefly, but suitably, responded to by the Reverend gentleman: We're a coming, dear pastor, with greenbacks, and so fort.

To show you the whyfore "we sent for you here,"

We were greatly in need of a shepherd to go forth, To lead the wild sheep and the goats by the ear. A farmer was asked what he'd give toward the preaching; This farmer, in "raising," had always good luck, Said he, "I will ray in potatoes and cabbage, I always deal fairly, and give truck for truck." We come with our truck, sir, of various pat-terns,

And beg you to notice—what's hard to be seen— The stamp of affection, that marks every par-Cei, To show we don't truckle to anything mean.

Mr. Montelius, your good predecessor, Has left his arm chair, for the use of you, sire, And some other good soul, has made you possessor Of stone coal sufficient to keep a good fire. In the sausage, behold notes of admiration!

PURCHASE OF REAL ESTATE. - Dr. Misher, the famous Bitters' Manufacturer, has purchased the front part of the Inland Insurance Company's building, on Centre Square, now occupied by Lieut. J. M. Johnston, as the Swan Hotel, for the sum of 12,500. It is three stories high, bas a fron of 14 feet and a depth of 441 feet. The building has already been rented by Mr. G. S. Rowbotham, "Honest John," 64 North Queen street, who will occupy the same for nis business. Jack Johnston removes his quarters to the South Queen street front of the hotel, and will have a front of 30 feet, a depth of 55 feet, and a building four stories high. Although considerably cut up, there will be plenty of room for all parties concerned. Dr. Mishler, by this purchase, secures some 30 feet of ground in depth and 70 in width, which he has found necessary to have on account of the great increase of his ousiness. As soon as the weather permits he will commence enlarging his establishment, and when his improvements are completed he expects to be fully prepared to meet all demands for his invaluable and efficacious Bitters, BANK DIRECTORS .- At a meeting of the tockholders of the First National Bank of Strasburg, held on the 9th inst., the following named gentlemen were elected as Diectors for the ensuing year:

They ceensed was for many years a consistent and faithful member of the Presbyterian Church. The virtues and amiable qualities of this excellent young lady, will live long in the memories of all who knew her, and will speak her best andmost glowing eulogy. As advughter and a sister she was proverbially affectionate, and as a friend she was ever found among the most faithful and sincere. In a word, in all the relations of life her example was most excellent and praiseworthy. It was but as yesterday she was in our midst, beloved by all who knew her; but oh, what a sad reverse. We hear her name enrolled among the dead, and the clods of the valley resting upon her bosom. In the untimely death of this interesting young Lady, the church has lost a valued member, the ifamily in which she vood connected a most affectionate child, ard the society of young friends of one of its brightest ornaments. But our joss from the confidence she expressed in her Saviour, we hope is her eternal gain.
