Joseph Musketnuss. Involuntary Manslaughter, in causing the death of Albert Wenditz. The affair happened at a ball given at Fulton Hall, in this city, on the night of the 28th of last September. Wenditz came to the entrance of the ball room. and while there, it is alleged, conducted himself in a disorderly manner. for which he was ejected from the hall by Musketnuss, who was one of the managers of the ball. During the scuffle, both parties fell out of the door on to the pavement, Wenditz being so severely injured by his head striking the pavement that he died on the ninth day afterward. After examining some half dozen of the Commonwealth's witnesses, the District Attorney abandoned the case, and the Court instructed the jury to render a verdict of acquittal. Jury returned a verdict of not guilty, without leav ing the box. John Goeble plead guilty to the paternity of a child belonging to Mary Greble, and received the usual sentence in such cases. James Duffy. Horse stealing. The defend ant took a horse belonging to Wilson Brubaker, while the animal was hitched at a house at Binkley's bridge, on the New Holland turnpike, on Tuesday evening of last week, and rode him to the neighborhood of Intercourse, where he stopped over night. He did not offer to sell the horse, and said that he had "got him up the road." When the owner came after the horse the next morning, the prisoner attempted to make his escape. Jury out. James Cosgrove surety of the peace. Nol. pros, entered.

James Scott, Junius Potts, and John Spence--Assault and Battery upon Daniel Clark. A verdict of not guilty was, by permission of the Court, taken.

The jurors empanelled to try the case of Rittenhouse and Powell, after having been out five hours, returned into Court, and asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the case, as they were not able to agree upon a verdict. The Court refused to discharge them, and they again retired to deliberate further upon a verdict. Jacob Weaver-Larceny. This defendant, a boy of about eleven years of age, was indicted for stealing a turkey from David

Mrs. Roat and Mrs. Peters came to my place; Peters told me that Mrs. Tag-gert and Mrs. Peters were going to tar and feather him; he said I am ready for them; I have the seven sisters with me; he then went down to his house; heard him talk to ania, was introduced, and delivered very able address in favor of the Fenian cause. He gave an interesting sketch of ancient Fenianism, and of the meaning o the word Fenian. He spoke of the gallan services of the Fenian brothers of old in time of battle. Letters from Georgia. SAND HILLS, NEAR AUGUSTA, GA.,) April 12, 1866.

Editors Lancaster Intelligencer: DEAR SIRS: By the heading of my letter ou will see that I am again at the Sand Hills, after a very pleasant journey into the interior for four days. While there I learned many melancholy truths, and the state of affairs in that region is much to be deplored. Confidence between the whites and blacks is at an end, and the terrible fact is being fully realized by both that freedom has come entirely too suddenly upon the blacks for their benefit, and has so far rather proved a curse than a blessing. The whites see it, and the blacks feel it. At the close of the war the negro, although free, was, generally speaking, still the same faithful, polite and trustworthy individual that he was before the war, and until tampered with by unprincipled white men, was contented and happy in that freedom to do what was right for a liberal remuneration; but now his whole nature seems to have been changed and instead of being a faithful, honest and aw-abiding creature, he has become indo lent, vain, lawless and impudent, so that n many places, (where they have been led astray or improperly advised), there is a state of things bordering on anarchy, and reedom (as they have been taught to embrace it) instead of conferring a blessing upon the race has proved their misfortune. ou ask me how this is possible? I answer, in the first place, that as a general thing the blacks, from a combination of natural and other circumstances, are ignorant, dependent, improvident and conse uently unfit for self-support, or of providing for their families; and as a proof o this, hundreds are returning in a beggared condition to their former masters, whon they had left but a few months before in nfidence, well provided with clothes, furniture and means for their prosperity, i they had possessed the necessary qualifica tions. Many of those who thus return state that they were robbed of everything, under false pretences, by the very men (the white Yankees) who had persuaded them to leave their former homes. Secondly, it cannot be denied that evil-disposed persons, who for the sake of gain, have not only per uaded these poor, confiding and ignorant creatures to desert their homes for the purpose of filching from them, under the cloak of friendship and freedom, their hard and scanty earnings; and when they had effect-Adieu. ed their ends, they deserted them in their need, and, to avoid starvation they, (the blacks,) were obliged to return to their former masters for that sustenance which was denied them by their seeming friends. Ever this were little, were this all in the terrible chapter of iniquity which has been prac-ticed upon this unfortunate race. But their misfortunes do not end here, for the same wolves in disguise have caused unholy ser nons to be preached to them, and the most barbarous Jewish customs held up to them is examples to be followed, which in many listricts has maddened and caused them to commit crimes that civilization shrinks rom. I am happy to learn, however, that teps are about being taken to convey the bove facts to the heads of Government, and it is to be hoped that measures will soon be taken to remedy the evils, too villainous to be for a moment tolerated by a civilized government. Those who come ere as officials, to be useful, must direct all their efforts to undo the mischief that has been instilled into the minds of an ignorant race, and teach them their true po sition, as well as their duties to God and man, and that freedom means industry, a due regard for the laws and moral go ness. W. B. F. SAND HILLS, NEAR AUGUSTA, GA., { April 16, 1866. Editors Lancaster Intelligencer : DEAR SIRS: Those correspondents who ave represented the people of the South as eing still disloyal, full of wrath, and disosed to be rebellious, because they will ot worship at the shrine of those who only conquered them, but despoiled their very hearthstones, have done them great injustice, for they are not only loyal but submissive, even now, subjected as they

garded, never can be evaded or indefinately

Nine tenths of the Southern people ar positively loyal, and cheerfully submit to circumstances which the failure of their revolt has brought upon them .-

But they object most strongly to be deprived of rights which the Constitution of the country (under the circumstances) has guaranteed to them as well as to others Can any reasonable man, who has a spark of kindness or justice in his composition, object to this, or say that because nine enths of the Southern people have been orced into a war against the Government by designing men-that they shall not when circumstances have brought them. back to their first and only love) again be restored to that favor which they were for a season compelled to forsake? 'I can conceive of nothing more unmanly and revenge ful than such a conclusion, and to act upon it or carry out the principle, is not only an act of injustice, but a vindictive bitternes that Christian forbearance must ever loat and despise. What (let me ask those who are still disposed to press the South to the wall) are the facts in the case? A few mis guided, unprincipled bigots in both sections of the country forced a war upon the great majority of the nation. The one to bolish, and the other to perpetuate-not only slavery—but an aristocracy, as selfish. and as unwarrantable as their ambition. Now the great question is : Ought the innocent majority to suffer privations and indignities because the minority is fanatical on the one hand, and aristocratic on the other? Or, since the hopes of the aristocrats are scattered to the four winds, shall the najority, both North and South, still be held upon the rack by a minority (party aside) that has dwindled to a merchandful? I appeal to the good sense of the conservative portion of the nation to say whether they will be unjust to themselves, and again submit their necks to the yoke that has so everely galled them? Again: what has the opposition to slavery truly effected? Its abolition, you would say. Truly! but what benefits has sudden emancipation conferred upon the slave? Alas! nothing but misery in the shape of negligence abandonment and starvation, and as they are naturally, and from circumstances, both ignorant and improvident, this otherwise much-to-be-cherished freedom has proved to be their bane. But I must close

Mishier's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a per-manent cure. 3d, Sait Rheum.-Sait Rheum is a vague, in-definite, though, popular term given to al-most all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an erup-tion of vesicies in smail, disinct ulcers, ac-companied with asmarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or sprend over the ad-joining surface. Mishier's Bitters are a sure cure for this disease. 4th. Pimples and Biotches.-Pimples and Biotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, ex-cept in cases of carbuncles, they are very dis-agreeeble. Often we will see the most hand-some features rendered hidoous by great blotches and biothes are nothing but disgust ng corruption; for rupf accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishier's Bitters'will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimplesand blotches. Ladles who desire a lair completion, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind. apr 23

Walter F. Neal, in Fulton township, which was burnt on the 6th of last month. She was living in Mr. Neal's family at the time of the fire. There was no evidence of guilt in the matter, except the girl's own confession. Shortly after the burning of the building, she remarked to a member of Mr. Neal's family, that she was tired hearing of the fire, and that if she had $5,000 she would pay for the barn. When on the way to prison, she told the Constable that she had set fire to the barn, accidentally, with a corn stalk, and that she did not think she committed anything wrong. The counsel for the prisoner contended that his client was not of the proper age to distinguish between right and wrong, and did not therefore possess the guilty knowledge required to convict in such cases.

A verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy, was obtained. The prisoner was sent to the House of Refuge for colored children at Philadelphia.

James Duffey, in whose case a sealed vordict of guilty of horse stealing, with a recommendation for mercy, was this morning returned, was sentenced to an imprisonment of two years in the Lancaster County Prison,

Henry Nieffer. Selling liquor to a person of intemperate habits, after having receeived notice not to do so. The case was returned from Columbia, where the parties to this suit reside. Sarah McClune, the prosecutrix testified that her mother, Elizabeth Norris, was in the habit of visiting Nieffer's place and drinking to intoxication while there, and that the defendant had furnished her with liquor, after having been notified not to do so. Jury out.

Wednesday Afternoon.-The Jury in the case of Henry Nieffer returned a sealed verdict of not guilty, but ordered defendant to pay the costs of prosecution.

Christian M. Graeff, having plead guilt of fornication and bastardy with Elizabeth Hackman, received the usual sentence im posed in such cases.

Harrison Grosh, indicted for fornication and bastardy with Eliza Buch, was found not guilty, in accordance with instructions from the Court, the child having been born on the 15th of July, 1863, and the complaint made on the 17th of July, 1865. The statutes require complaints in cases of this kind to be made within two years of the time the child is begotten. Jacob Foos and John Hensler—Procuring an illegal vote. The defendants are indicted for taking Elias Byerly, an unnaturalized German, to the polls of the Southeast Ward of this city, on the day of the last city election, and inducing him to vote. The case was still on trial at the adjournment of the Court

Wednesday Evening .- The voting case wa concluded and given to the jury. George Stape, Horse Stealing, A horse saddle and bridle belonging to Michael Shabah, were stolen from his stable, in Maytown, on the evening of the 18th of last Jan uary. On the same evening, the prisoner, with the stolen property in his possession came to Jacob Hiestand's Hotel, in Springville, Mount Joy township, and remained their over night. The next morning he offered to trade the horse on a pair of mules, stating that he wished mules to use in the boating business. He finally agreed to sell the horse, and put a price upon him, and he then put a price upon him. One of the persons who examined the horse, remarked to the prisoner that the animal resembled one which he had a short time before seen at Maytown. Upon hearing this, the landlord locked the door of the stable in which the horse was. Stape left the hotel immediately afterward, unobserved, and the next place heard from him, was at Mt. Joy in the evening of that day, where he was in company with two other young men, and purchased a ticket for Harrisburg. He was subsequently arrested at Harrisburg. The examination of witnesses had not been concluded at the time of the adjournment of the Court.

Thursday Morning .- The jury in the elec tion case this morning rendered a sealed verdict of guilty, when the Court sentenced each of the defendants to pay a fine of $20, and undergo an imprisonment of 20 days in the Lancaster County Prison. "

The trial of George W. Stape, indicted for caused; seemed to have been made by a horse stealing, was resumed. SUSQUEHANNA SHAD. — A gentleman from Lancaster yesterday informed us that the price of shad ranged there at one dollar for six, "taking them as they run." The same sized shad for which dealers in Phila-dolphic mode which dealers in Philadelphia ask thirty cents may be had at Lancaster city for ten cents each.-Forney' Sunday Press.

Who is the fortunate person that bought his Shad for ten cents each? The "gentle-man from Lancaster" must have evidently ust awakened from a "Rip Van Winkle" sleep, and imagined himself living at a period anterior to the war times when the finest of Susquehanna Shad could be bought in our market, the best in Pennsylvania for 50 and 25 cents per pair. Shad possibly "may be had at Lancaster city forten cents each." but we have not yet been able to buy or see any of these cheap specimens of

They have sworn to be loyal and are faithfully living up to their oath, but the happy feelings and kind conciliations which existed immediately after their submission have in some measure been soured by the unholy measures and speeches of those who professed to represent the sentiments of the Northern people. Notwithstanding all this, every man I have met considers secession a thing that is numbered with the dead who lost their lives in its support, and, like them. never can be resuscitated, and it is perfectly absurd to suppose that any one, even in his wildest dreams, has any idea of resisting the Government.
