Council:

MAYON'S OFFICE, Lancaster, May 1.

To the Select and Common Councils:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith transmit for your consideration and action a series of resolutions adopted at a general Town Meeting of the citizens, held at the Court House, in this city, on Thursday evening, the 20th ultimo.

the 20th ultimo.

The near approach of the Asiatic Cholera, and its probable prevalence throughout the country during the ensuing summer and autumn months, render it absolutely necessary that every timely precautionary measure should be adopted by our citizens, assuch or by the corporate authorities actas such, or by the corporate authorities act ing for them. According to the best medical advice on the subject of prevention, cleanliness should be the first thing attended to. Therefore "all accumulations of lith, street rubbish, mud, stable dirt, etc., filth, street rubbish, mud, stable dirt, etc., foul drains and cesspools, neglected privies and stagnant pools of water, ought to be carefully removed." Every house, public and private, should be thoroughly cleansed, and all the house drainage and privies kept perfectly clean. The fermenting exhalations from these are particularly to be dreaded as a means of inducing a visit of Cholera.

Cholera.

The appointment of a Sanitary Committee, under proper restrictions, as recommended by the meeting, clothed with full power of Councils to make a thorough examination of public and private dwellings, outhouses, stables and yards, sewers, gutters &c. &c. would in the opinion of all ters, &c., &c., would, in the opinion of all intelligent men, go very far towards keeping off the pestilence, or, at least, mitigate its severity should it appear in our midst. Now, then, while the terrible disease is at a Now, then, while the terrible disease is at a distance, is the proper time to provide against it by adopting and enforcing such sanitary regulations as may be deemed necessary, and I therefore earnestly invite your honorable bedies to take prompt action to the content of the property of the content of the property of

Mr. Fitzpatrick advocated the necessity of granting the prayer of the petitioners, to afford them an outlet from the rear of their lots, of which they are now and will be deprived until Councils come to their relief-Messrs, Deaner and Fitzpatrick moved that the Street Commissioner be instructed to open the street. The motion was not agreed to.

Their members were the hard-fisted boys and all good firemen. In the fall there would be a firemen's parade and their Company could not turn out with their apparatus in its present condition with credit to themselves. He thought the Humane boys had as good a right to a $1000 from the city as the Union Fire Company had, who received that sum last winter .-Unless they got this aid from Councils they would be compelled to shut up their engine house, and might as well set fire to their engine. On motion to vote the $1000, a call for division was made, resulting as follows: Yeas—Messrs, Curio, Deaner, Fitzpatrick and Lechler. Nays—Messrs, Metzgar, Mishler, Roberts, Zahm and Evans, President.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

stated meeting of the Board of School Directors was held on Thursday evening ast. Twenty-two members were present. H. S. Gara read the certificates of the elecion of the members elected on last Tuesday John W. Jackson was chosen temporary President. A communication from J. B Livingston, tendering his resignation as a nember of the Board, was read, when, or motion, the consideration of the question f acceptance was postponed, and Mr. Liv ngston requested to withdraw his resignaion. The election for permanent officers for the ensuing year then took place. John B. Livingston was elected President; Hugh Gara, Secretary; Peter McConomy. Pressurer: and Matthias Zahm, Messenger each of the officers elected receiving the manimous vote of the members present. Mr. Jackson, Chairman of the Committee f Finance, submitted the following report To the Board of Directors of the Lancas To the Board of Directors of the Lancas-ter City School District: The Finance Com-mittee respectfully present the following as their estimate of the requirements of the schools for the ensuing year, as well as the resources at command to meet them: Anticipating an increase of salaries to teachers, and necessary improvements cal culated to increase our expenses beyond those of former years, we are constrained to recommend the raising of the rate of taxation to six mills on the dollar valuation for dingry purposes. This, on a valuation of ordinary purposes. This, on a valuation of $3,859,210, making a very liberal allowance for errors and exhonerations, commission for collections, and abatement for the prompt payment of taxes, should produce $22,000; state appropriation, $1,600; probable balance from this year, $1,000, making our total receipts $24,000.

The expenditures we put down as follows:

Tuition, including a Principal for the High Schools, as established last year three addi-tional teachers for a combined primary school, if the Board shall decide that anothschool, if the Board shall decide that another is necessary, and provision for teachers of night schools as heretofore, say $19,000; interest on loans, $1,200; fuel and gas, $1,300; stoves and hardware, $400; books and stationery, $400; ordinary repairs, $400; janitors and cleaning schools, $500; salaries, $235; contingencies, $200; total expenses, $33,925—showing a probable balance in our favor at the close of the year of $075.

As it appears evident that our increasing population will in a short time render necessary the providing of additional accommodations for the children, which will require the purchase of more property and modations for the children, which will require the purchase of more property and the erection of additional school houses, we recommend the assessment of a tax of 2 mills on the dollar for building purposes. This should produce, on the same calculation of that for explanation or that for explanation are additional than the foreign are accountable to the contract of the contract o tion as that for ordinary expenses, an addi-tional amount of $7,000. This is the first time such a tax has been levied in our dis time such a tax has been levited in our dis-rict, and as a reason in favor of it, it may be proper to state that much of the financial embarrassment of the board in former years, grew out of the fact that property was purchased and houses erected, either with money realized from loans, or out of the funds raised by taxation for the current expenses of the schools. The amount may seem high, but if raised, it does not follow that it shall all be expended this year. The time appears to us to have arrived when the Board should look around and secure suitable property for their future needs, while it can be had at reasonable prices. Some of our schools are quite too constrain-ed for want of sufficient grounds, and it is time that means were provided and meas-ures taken to relieve them. There are also repairs and improvements necessary, far too expensive to be paid for out of the or-dinary appropriation of three or four hun-ded dellars for with purposes in each year rict, and as a reason in favor of it, it may dinary appropriation of three or four hun dred dollars for such purposes in each year which if the means were provided for, which if the means were provided for, it might be economy to make now.

Your committee counsel no extravagance, and will oppose all unnecessary expenses as sternly as they did when our treasury was suffering its greatest difficulties.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. JACKSON,

G. ZAHM, Finance Committee. May 3d, 1866. Accompanying the report was the follow ing resolution, which was unanimously

Resolved. That for the year commencing Resolved, That for the year commencing, with the 1st of June, 1866, the rate of taxation for ordinary school purposes in the Laucaster City School District; shall be assessed six mills in the dollar valuation, and that an additional tax of two mills in the dollar shall be assessed for building purposes for the same period, on the real estate of the district, and on all subjects of taxation at the rates fixed by law; and that to all persons who shall pay their tax on or tion at the rates fixed by law; and that to all persons who shall pay their tax on or before the 11th day of August in said year, an abatement of 5 per cent shall be allowed; after that date, and until the 10th day of November of the same year, the full amount will be required; and to all tax remaining unpaid at that date, 5 per cent shall be added.

RELIGIOUS.—On last Sabbath evening the Right Rev. Bishop Bigler, of the Moravian Church, ordained as a Deacon of said Church. Francis William Krause of Bethlehem. The services were peculiarly solemn and impressive, and were listened to with marked attention by a large audience. Previous to the ordination, the Bishop gave a brief history of the church, chiefly relative to its Episcopacy, a point upon which even members of the church are not generally well informed. The duties on incomes are payable within The duties on incomes are payable within sixty days after the return of the schedule to the assessor—that is, on or before the 30th day of June. The income must be reckoned for the year ending December 31, 1865, and the tax is 5 per cent. on all sums between $600 and $5,000, and 10 per cent. on the excess over $5,000. The deductions permitted are: 1. The sum of $600 from all incomes; 2. All national, State, county and manicipal taxes paid within the year, (including the income tax paid last summer); cluding the income tax paid last summer). The amount paid for rent, or the rental 3. The amount paid for rent, or the rental-value of any homestead occupied by the taxpayer or his family, in his own right or in the right of his wife; 4. The amount paid for usual or ordinary repairs, taking the average of the proceeding five years. These are all the deductions that can be made. The income tax is a lien upon property if not paid within the time fixed by law, and the collectors are invested with full powers to take legal proceedings for distraint and collection. The proper observance of the time and manner of payment will therefore save the taxpayer trouble.

ENOCH ARDEN; OR "I'LL SAILTHE SEAS OVER."—One of the prettiest songs we have ever heard is that of "I'll sail the seas over," founded upon incidents in the great poem of "Enoch Arden" by Tennyson. We beard it sung last Summer by a beautiful and accomplished young lady, whose charming vocalization was the theme of all who listened to her, and we thought we never heard anything so weet either in music or words. It has often been our desire to obtain and publish the words of the song for the benefit of our readers, but until the presen time have been unsuccessful. Below will be found the words of this tenderly beauti ful poetical effusion: Cheer up, Annie darling, With hopeful emotion: With hopeful emotion;

To-morrow our parting must be;
I'll sail the seas over,
I'll cross the wide ocean,

I'll cross the wide ocean,
I'll sail the seas over for thee.
I will not forget thee.
Ah never, no never,
I cannot forget thee, I know,
Thy smile, like a phantom,
Shall haunt me forever,
And cheer me where e'er I may go.

CHORUS—Good-bye, Annie, darling, Break off from thy sorrow 'Tis sad that our parting must I'll sail the seas over, I'll cross the wide ocean, I'll sail the seas over for thee.

I go, Annie, darling,
But leave thee in sorrow,
I go for thy sake far away;
Then bld me good-bye
With a smile on the morrow,
And cheer me with blessings, I pray.
I'll think of thee ever,
And pray for thee only.

And pray for thee only,
As over the waters I roam;
I'll tarry not, darling,
And leave thee all lonely,
But hasten again to my home. (Chorus.)

Out, out on the ocean, Away o'er the billow,

Away o'er the billow,

My heart on its purpose still bent,
My brow shall find rest,
When I seek my lone pillow,
In knowing that thou art content.
Cheer up, Annie, darling;
Break off from thy sorrow,
'Tis sad that our parting must be;
But give me thy smile
When I leave thee to-morow,
To sail the seas over for thee. (Chorus.

The member from this district is Col. Emlen Franklín, of the 122d P. V. The following order for a meeting of the committee has been issued by the Adjutant General of the State:

By order of the Governor.

A GREAT DEMAND FOR MISHLER'S BIT-TERS.—We have frequently noticed in our columns the great demand for Dr. Mishler's Celebrated Herb Bitters, and we are now pleased to add, that the demand, which is already immense, is rapidly increasing. As we passed by the establishment this morning, we observed some 30 barrels and casks, ready for shipment to various portions of the country, leaving almost as many orders yet to fill. Among the number we noticed a ten-gallon cask, marked "J. S. Mace. London," which we presume must be taken as another convincing proof of the efficacy of the Bitters as a "Blood Purifier." My Mace is a well-known prize-fighter, and for a long time wore the belt as the Champion It is said that he has pronounced it to be an excellent article, and finds it to be a valuable auxiliary in training. The above lines are paraphrased from the parody on the death of "Old Grimes," and when the Board adjourned to meet at the are applicable in the case of the demise of one of the best known and oldest stage drivers in Lancaster county. Mr. John Himes, for many years driver of a line of stages between this city and New Holland, died at his residence in the latter village on Friday last, and was buried in the Lancas er Cemetery, in this city, on Sunday. How many years Mr. Himes followed the business of staging we know not, but he was, unquestionably, one of the very oldest stage drivers in the State, being a man of about 70 years of age. He was known by perhaps every man, woman and child on the turnpike between Lancaster and New Holland, and the "Eliza Ann," of which he was the proud and successful conductor, carried more passengers probably than any other similar vehicle. But the old stage driver's occupation is finished. No more will he handle the ribbons, crack the whip and use the "g'lang" of the "Jehu," but his spirit is now, we trust, mingling with those of another and better world, freed from the labors and cares of this life. and where the griefs and sorrows of stage drivers come not.

"A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME SMELLS JUST AS SWEET .- Just so; the people of Philadelphia claim to have found what has hitherto been unattainable-a faultless Cooking Stove. The "Barley Sheaf," the ognomen of the popular favorite, according to the statement of reliable witnesses, is estined to astonish the good housewives of the country with its admiral performances, and to command an enormous sale. There nave been so many in "Complete Cooks," "Housekeeper's Friend," etc., in the market all having their weak points—that should the "Barley Sheaf" really prove to be the "pink of perfection," the demand for it just soon be unlimited. Messrs. Stewart A Peterson are the Patentees and manufacturers.

MILLER'S Ice Cream Candy, put up in packages at 10 cents each, is having an immense sale in every quarter where it has been introduced. People who want to buy should asked for Miller's, for it is the best. Manufactured by Geo. Miller & Sons, 610 Market street, Philadelphia.

AN INTERESTING REPORT.-We have received from our friend J. J. Sprenger, Esq., copy of the "Report of the Commissioners appointed by the U. S. The Commission consisted of Messrs, Frederick Collins of Philadelphia, Matthew Read of New York, and Frederick Lauer of Reading.-They obtained full and accurate information of the Excise Laws of Europe appertaining to Malt Liquors, and in their published report of 48 pages throw out many valuable sug-An interesting description is given of a number of the great breweries of England and the Confinent, the length of which precludes the possibility of our giving them to our readers. It seems to be inherent in every being; for we find this quality equally as strong in the lower, as in the human animals. It is indeed a beautiful thing-this love of parents. Of course love of, and rcspect for, parents, go hand in hand; as it would be impossible to love a parent, without the accompanying respect. A beautiful instance of this species of love and respect, came under the notice of the Cleveland Plaindcaler a few days since. One of the heavy grocery houses in the city numbers among its myriads of customers, the store. Early in the winter he made a considerable purchase of beans of the heavy grocery house. No payment was made on em at the time; but no attention was paid to this fact, as the customer was considered good pay, and perfectly reliable. Nothing was beard from the nurchaser of beans, until about the middle of March, when the grocery merchant received the following letter from him: "——March——, 1866, "DEAR SUR:—mother died Jan. 26, father died feb. 5th, but i don't want no more beans at them figures. Just observe, for an instant, the love and respect for parents, that is apparent in the above epistle! How thoroughly it "crops out!" Not even the cares and anxieties of business can make him forget the authors of his being: but he must needs make touching mention of them, even in a business note, upon the subject of beans.

MEDICAL SOCIETY OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA .- Owing to the difficulty of securing adequate accommodations in the town of Kingston, selected for the next annual meeting of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, and in accordance with the wishes and request of the Luzerne County Medical Society, the meeting of the State Society will be held on Wednesday, he 13th day of June next, at Wilkesbarre, the county seat of Luzerne county, and only one mile distant from Kingston. Delegates, upon arriving at Wilkesbarre. are requested to report immediately at the office of the Wyoming Valley Hotel, where the committee of reception will be in attendance. Efforts are making to secure commuta

tion tickets over the various railroads leading from different points in the State to Wilkesbarre. SUCCESSFUL SURGICAL OPERATION. -A most successful surgical operation was performed on Monday of last week, by Dr. S. S. Davis, of the firm of Hartman & Davis, of Millersville, in presence of the senior partner, on a child aged about 20 months, belonging to Mr. Spangler, of Pequea town-It seems the little one had picked up and attempted to swallow a grain of corn, but which passed into the windpipe and must have produced death if not shortly removed. This was about 6 o'clock in the morning, and at 91 the Doctor was called in, who advised an operation and, set 2 p. m, as the time. The operation is that known among surgeons as Laryngo-trach eatomy, and is, literally, cutting the windpipe open, the incision being made through the Larynx and extending to the Trachea. The grain of corn was extracted and is now in the Doctor's possession. The child is doing finely, is lively and playful, as if nothing had occurred to disturb its physical system, and totally unconscious of the dangerous performance to which it had been subjected. The affair has naturally created quite an excitement in the vicinity, as well transpired in the county. Suicipe.-Mr. William Ailes, a wellknown citizen of Drumore township, this county, and a brother of the celebrated Axe manufacturer, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn on Thursday last.-He had been laboring for some time past under mental derangement.

THE VERY THING .- Editors and other people who file their newspapers have long felt the want of the right sort of a newspaper file. At long last the desideratum has been supplied by Mr. Jacob Frick, of No. 614 North Third street, Philadelphia, whose improved File, patented August 29th, 1865, is the most useful invention of the kind we have ever seen. The inventor, through Mr. Henry Franke of this city, has presented us with one of these files, and we find it to b just the thing.

What Private Miles O'Reilly Says. The name of Private Miles O'Reilly is as familiar to every soldier as any household word. We find in his paper the New York Citizen, an article upon the state of the South, from which we make some pertinent extracts. It must be kept in mind that Colonel Halpine better known to the literary public as Private Miles O'Reilly), who edits that journal, was one of the most brillian officers in the Federalservice during the recent war. Hels better entitled, there fore, to speak of the conditions of peace than any of the vast horde of Radical scribblers, who having done their fighting by proxy, are now anxious to oppress and plunder the vanquished in person:

If we are to continue a government of representatives selected by the people, on what principles can the representatives of one State dictate to another what class of one State dictate to another what class of representatives that people shall select? In not one of the cotton States could a corporal's guard of men be found who were loyal to the Union throughout the war—or, if found, would also be found the very poorest and meanest kind of trash. All the true manhood of the South—let us frankly recognize the fact—was in the rebellion; and to expect the Southern people per saltum to select as their representative in Courtees same whey-faced white-livered recognize the lact and to expect the Southern people saltum to select as their representative in Congress some whey-faced, white-livered caitiff who stood aloof from their desperate is to demand that a whole people and organize a lie callin who stood aloof from their desperate struggle, is to demand that a whole people shall become hypocrites, and organize a lie to their own disgrace and injury. The mon who led the South in war must lead it in peace, or it will drift without leading into anarchy.

To say to the lately rebellious States,

"You are free to choose such representa-tives as you please, provided only that you select such men as we dictate, and these select such men as we dictate, and these shall be mon with whom you have not a sympathy in common," is both an injury and an insult. The recent war was conducted on the theory that the Union still existed, and that any pretended acts of secession were wholly null and void. On this theory our navel and military forces conquered, and if their success meant anything, it meant that immediately on the cessuiton of armed resistance by evil combinations of men in the Southern States, the Union was restored in its integrity over every foot of our soil. But now, forsooth, the people of the South are told that before they can be allowed representation-in Congress, they must agree to send none but gress, they must agree to send none but men for whose capacious throats and indurated stomachs the most nauseating politi-cal boluses of the Radical New England cal boluses of the Radical New England school will be none too hot or too heavy!

In the name of Heaven, are there not enough votes in Congress to override the Southern vote, in case it should seek to inflict any injury on the republic? Why make any pretense of a lowing representative government, it the choice shall be limited to men the most obnoxious, personally and in politics, to the constituencies limited to men the most obnoxious, person-ally and in politics, to the constituencies they are to make pretense of representing? Suppose John Minor Botts and Robert E. Lee candidates for Congress in any district of Virginia east of the Blue Ridge and south of Fairfax Court-house, which man would be the proper representative? Would not that district of ex-rebels deserve the scorn and infanty of the world that could be so hungry for a seat in Congress as to make Mr. Botts its choice, to the exclusion of the great soldler who so ably as to make Mr. Botts its choice, to the exclusion of the great soldier who so ably led the forces of Virginia and the South through many a bloody field?

In a word, it is better to have honest, well-born, wealthy and manly representatives from the Southern States—gentlemen thoroughly commanding the confidence and respect of their constituencies; or shall we insist that a lying crayen, passionless. insist that a lying, craven, passionless poverty-stricken scum of wretched rene gades shall be sent—men who could not in their own districts receive a hundred votes unless by fraud, and who, in their acquiesunless by fraud, and who, in their acquiescence in the new order of things, will command no following or adhesion of their misrepresented constituents? We are for putting the best men of the South on guard in this crisis; and the best men, as a class, were those most active in the rebellion. were those most active in the rebellion. They were faithful to a desperate cause, and will be not less faithful to the Union. Come, let us be frank. Would not ninety Come, let us be frank. Would not ninety men out of every hundred men who fought most gullantly for the Union, have fought just as gallantly for the rebellion, if the accidents of their birth and residence had been reversed? We speak of the warm-blooded combatant class; not the unbelligerents of the Summer stripe, whose veins swell with equal parts of gas, gall, lymph and water. Taxation without representation is tyran-

Taxation without representation is tyranny, we cry, and yet the South is taxed without a voice in Congress. How long shall this abnormal state of things continue? How long will the free intelligence of the Middle and Western States accept, with the humility of whipped spaniels, the ruinous and bigoted dictation of New England's domineering Tartuffes—that combination of selfish and unscrupulous avarice with pittless and frenzled bigotry?

The Burning of Columbia, S. C. In the United States Senate on Tuesday last, Senator Johnson, of Maryland, read the following letter from General Wade Hampton on the subject of the burning of Columbia, the capital of South Carolina, on the day that General Sherman entered it with his army: WILL WOODS, Miss., April 21, To Hon. Reverdy Johnson, United States Senate

Sire: A few days ago I saw in the published proceedings of Congress that a petition from Benjamin Rawles, of Columbia, S. C. asking compensation for the destruction of his house by the federal army in Pebruary, 1865, had been presented to the Senate, accompained by a letter from Major General Sherman. In this letter General Sherman used the Sherman.

In this letter General Sherman used the following language:

"The citizens of Columbia set fire to thousands of bales of cotton rolled out into the streets, and which were burning before we entered Columbia. I myself was in the city as early as nine o'clock, and I saw these fires and knew that efforts were made to extinguish them, but a high and strong wind kept them alive.

"I gave no order for the burning of your city, but on the contrary the conflagration resulted from the great imprudence of cutting the cotton bales, whereby the contents were spread to the winds, so that it became an impossibility to arrest the fire.

"I saw in your Columbia newspaper the printed order of General Wade Hampton, that on the approach of the Yankee army all the cotton should thus be burned, and from what I saw myself I have no hesitation in saying that he was the cause of the destruction of your city."

The same charge, made against me by General Sherman, having been brought before the Senate of the United States, I am naturally most solicitous to vindicate myself before the same tribunal. But my State has no representative in that body. Those who should be her constitutional representatives and exponents there are debarred the right of entrance into those halls. There are no ewho have the right to speak for the tatives and exponents there are debarred the right of entrance into those halls. There are none who have the right to speak for the South, none to participate in the legislation which governs her, none to impose the taxes she is called upon to pay, and none to vindicate her sons from misrepresentation, injustice, or slanders.

Under these circumstances I appeal to you in the confident hope that you will use every effort to see that justice is done in this matter.

I deny emphatically that any cotton was I deny emphatically that any cotton was fired in Columbia by my order
I deny that the citizens "set fire to thousands of bales rolled out into the streets."
I deny that any cotton was on fire when the federal troops entered the city.
I most respectfully ask of Congress to appoint a committee charged with the duty of ascertaining and reporting all the facts connected with the destruction of Columbia and thus fixing upon the proper author of and thus fixing upon the proper author of that enormous crime the infamy he richly deserves.

I am willing to submit the case to any honest tribunal. Before any such, I pledge myself to prove that I gave a positive order by direction of General Beauregard, that no cotton should be fired; that not one bale was an fire when General Shermen's troops was on fire when General Sherman's troops took possession of the city; that he promised protection to the city, and that in spite of his promise he burned the city to the ground erately, systematically, and atrocious I.

I therefore most earnestly request that Congress may take prompt and efficient measures to investigate this matter freely.
Not only is this due to themselves and to the reputation of the United States army, but also intrice and to tare.

but also to justice and to truth. Trusting that you will pardon me for I am, very respectfully, Your obedient servant.
