A committee was appointed to prepare business for the Convention. During their deliberations, the Convention was addressed by George W. Foy, of Washington, Lodge No. 1, Harrisburg; Mr. Brinton, Coleraine, No. 16; H. M. Harpe, City; Miss L. E. Wright, G. W. S., Lancaster; Rev. J. F. Crouch, John H. Pearson, city; Mr. W. P. Crouch, Harrisburg; Mr. J. B. Foy, Harrisburg; and Mr. J. B. Foy, Harrisburg.

The resolutions were under debate at the time of adjournment. The Convention adjourned until 12:30 p. m. Friday afternoon session. The Convention was called to order at half-past one o'clock by the worthy chief Tompkins.

The following are the resolutions as reported by the committee:—

1. That we return thanks to Almighty God for the increase of our numbers, and for the success manifested throughout the county.

2. That we are led to believe that this national movement for individual reform and the overthrow of the liquor traffic is inevitable.

3. That we do most earnestly urge the publicizing of the use of "Household Candy," now being prepared by the American people for the first time in this country.

LOCAL BOUNTY.—The following is the Local Bounty law referred to yesterday. It will be well for those interested to give it an attentive perusal:

An Act Relating to the Payment of Bounties on the Capture of Rebels and Deserters.

WHEREAS, At the beginning of the late rebellion, certain volunteers entered the military service of the United States, without receiving any bounty, and many of them, after having served for three or more years, were discharged, and returned to their homes, and

AND WHEREAS, Many of said volunteers, who served in the late rebellion, are now unable to support themselves, and are in need of pecuniary aid, and

AND WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Government to encourage the military service of the United States, and to reward those who have served honorably, and

AND WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Government to encourage the military service of the United States, and to reward those who have served honorably, and

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special to the Pittsburgh Courier.

WASHINGTON, May 9. THE SUFFRAGE SCHEME ABANDONED.—Senator Morrill introduced to-day a bill for the purpose of Washington and Georgetown. This is intended to take the place of negro suffrage, as it is said, after the abolition of the members of the House from their seats before the people next fall upon such a plan.

SUFFRAGE IN THE TERRITORIES.—Representative Julian, of Indiana, introduced a bill in the House to-day to regulate the question of suffrage in the Territories. It requires the Territories to elect a committee in their constitutions, when they form one preparatory to applying for admission into the Union as a State, to make no distinction on account of race or color, except in the case of Indians.

HOPE FOR A RECONSTRUCTION.—The House Committee on Elections has voted to admit as evidence before the bill of the State of Indiana in the case of the State of Pennsylvania, of Fuller vs. Dawson. This is regarded as fatal to the sitting member, Mr. Dawson, who is a Democrat. The committee, it is believed, will report to the House tomorrow a bill for the purpose of restoring the State to the Union.

THE PRESIDENT WILL SOON VETO THE COLORADO BILL.—A Senator who called upon the President to-day, was informed that he was preparing a veto message of the bill to admit Colorado into the Union.

DAVIS AND CHASE.—It is undoubtedly true that preparations are now being made for the trial of Jefferson Davis before the military tribunal. This trial is believed to be a foregone conclusion. The grand jury lately charged by Judge Underwood, of the United States District Court, will probably issue an indictment against Mr. Davis, for the purpose of securing a verdict against him.

RECONSTRUCTION.—The President has been informed that he is preparing a veto message of the bill to admit Colorado into the Union. This is believed to be a foregone conclusion. The grand jury lately charged by Judge Underwood, of the United States District Court, will probably issue an indictment against Mr. Davis, for the purpose of securing a verdict against him.
