Shortly after his appointment, acordingly as the "mail" came thundering on, he placed the magic red flagin position, the signal to stop. As the car drew up to the station, the conductor jumped off on the platform, with his accustomed "All aboard!" at the same time asking,— "Any passengers to get on?"

"Wa'al, not as I knows of," was the puzzled agent's reply.

"Then what do you stop the train for?" shouted the irritated conductor. "I did'nt know but some un might wand to get off," said the obliging 'agent" in a conscious tone of injured

The Irishman and His Three Wives. "And you have been married, Patrick, three times, haven't you? "Yes' indade, sir."

" And what do you say of it? which wife did you like the best?" "Well, Becky O'Brine, that I married the first time was a good woman-too good for me; so she got sick and died, and the Lord took her,

"Then I got married to Bridget Flannigan. She was a bad woman; and she got sick and died too, and the devil took her. Then-fool that I was-I got married to Margaret Haggerty. She was worse bad, very bad-so bad that neithor the Lord por the devil would have her, so I have to keep her myself."

How True. What plowing, digging, and harrowing is to land, thinking, reflecting, and examining is to the mind. Each has its proper culture; and as the land that s suffered to lie waste and wild for a long time will be overspread with brushwood, brambles, thorns and vegetation, which would have neither use nor beauty, so there will sprout up in a neglected, uncultivated mind a great number of prejudices and opinions, which owe their origin partly to the soil itself, the passions and imperfections of the mind of man and partly to those seeds which chance to be scattered in it by every kind of doctrine which the cunning of statesman, the singularity of pedants; and the superstition of fools shall raise.

Beautiful Extract.

When the summer of youth is slowly wasting away into the nightfall of age, and the shadows of the past years grow deeper, and life wears to its close, it is pleasant to look back through the vista of time upon the felicities of our earlier years. If we have a home to shelter, and hearts to reloice with us, and friends have gathered together around our firesides, then the rough place of our wayfaring will have been worn and smoothed in the twilight of life, while the many spots we have passed through, will grow brighter and more beautiful. Happy indeed are they whose intercourse with the world has not changed the tone of holler feelings, or broken those musical chords of the heart, whose vibrations are so melodious, so tender and touching in that evening of age.

- "Bob, that is a fine horse you have there; how much is he worth?" "Three hundred and fifty dollars." "No, not so much as that!"

"Yes, every cent of it and another fifty on top of it." "Are you sure?"

"Yes, I'll swear to it." "All right."

"What are you so d-d inquisitive "Merely for assessing purposes.

am the assessor of this ward, and only wanted to know what you rated your nag at." A few days since, a gentleman called upon some lady friends, and was shown into the parlor by a servant girl. She asked him what name she should announce, and he, wishing to take them by surprise, replied: "Amicus" (a friend).

The girl seemed at first a little puzzled but quickly regained her composure and in the blandest manner possible "What kind of a cuss did you say, sir?" The visitor was embarrassed for moment, but recovering, handed her his card, and vowed never again to use Latin to a servant girl.

- "You would not take me for twenty?" said a nice girl to her partner while dancing a few evenings ago: "what would you take me for?" "For better, or for worse," replied he.

Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring nder the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remeetles were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relict. Your Hoodhand's Gorman Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose acvorable mention of these Bitters induced me to try them. I must confess that I mad an aversion to Patent Medicines from the, "bousand and one "quack." Bitters, whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweet-med and drugged liquor upon the community in a sly way, and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunthard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation I took it with happy effect. Its action, not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gradifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

 \mathbf{A} From the Rev. E. D. Fendall, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hooland's German Bitters, and seel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general dealility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly,

E. D. FENDALL. From Rev. D. Merrige, Pastor of the Passyunk Baptist Church, Philadelphia. From the many respectable recommenda-tions given to Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. I was induced to give them a tria. After using several bottles I found them to be a good remedy for debility, and a most oxcellent tonic for the stomach.

NFrom Rev. Wm. Smith, formerly Pastor of the Vincenttown and Millville (N. J.) Baptist Churches, Churches.
Having used in my family a number of bottles of your Hoofland's German Bitters, I have to say that I regard them us an excellent medicine, specially adapted to remove the discussos they are recommended for. They strengthen and livigorate the system when debilifated, and are useful in disorders of the liver, loss of app. the, et. I have also recommended them to several of my friends, who have tried them, and found them greatly beneficial in the restoration of health.

Yours truly.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, ot this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend directing me to the use of them.

MINHLER'S BITTERS WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN! CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SELINI Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st, Scrofula,—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation. It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by ouce. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that hey fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires genorhous, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scroula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorbility and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laborine under the curse inscribed in the Be k of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

curse inscribed in the Bo k of Books. "I will visit the iniquilies of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics.—Look at the articles w of in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating mendicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that MISHLER'S BITTLERS WILL, CURE ALL KINDS OF SCROFULOUS DISEASES. It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonicand it will cure Scrotulo.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and uncers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is wishing the continued and persovering Mishler's a continued and persovering Mistiler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainty effect a peruse of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d, Sait Rheum,—Sait Rheum is a vague, in definite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishier's filters are a sure cure for this disease. oning surface. Mishier's litters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Biotches.—Pimples and Biotches on the sixin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncies, they are very disagreeable. Often we will see the most handsome leatures rendered hideous by great agreeoble. Often we will see the most hand-some leatures rendered hideous by great blotches and plumples, and instead of the picus-ing look which should irradiate the human ince we see nothing but disgust ng corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the cor-rupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters, will force these corruptions to anisher's numbers, will force these con repaired be discharged through the natural channels and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladles who desire a fair completion, tree from pimples should bear this fact in mind.
