Grand Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting of the Conservative citizens of Lancaster county, to be held in this city, on Tuesday the 25th inst. promises to be a monster demonstration. The people will lay aside their ordinary business for a day, and turn out to hear the vital issues now agitating this nation discussed, by the able and distinguished statesmen who will be present. Delegations from abroad are expected in considerable force, and the occasion will be one of more than ordinary significance and importance.

Rally then for the cause of the Union and the Constitution! They are both in danger and you must save them by prompt vigorous and sagacious action Let the turn-out on the 25th be worthy of the occasion.

Infamous. Forney's Press of yesterday tries to make political capital out of the terrible accident at Johnstown. It publishes a letter from a correspondent at that place reflecting severely upon President Johnson, and abusing him because the train was not delayed in its departure. It mattered not to this infamous slanderer that the schedule on a railroad has to be promptly carried out to prevent collissions. Of course, he knew that. But here was a chance to vilify and abuse the chief magistrate, and it was promptly seized upon. There is no journal ex cept the Press sufficiently lost to de cency to do such a thing—or we have seen none at least. No man not utterly lost to self-respect would permit the publication of such an infamous article. Democracy.

The Great Issue.

"As I said before, the great issue to be met at this election is the question of negro rights."
The above extract we make from a

has a habit of speaking his sentiments openly and fearlessly. The Democrats have all along contended that the question of negro equality, negro suffrage negro eligibility) to office, & , at of which are included in the somewhal comprehensive term of "negro rights, was one of the leading issues of the present campaign, and, next to the question of Union or Disunion, the most important that ever was presented to the people of Pennsylvania for their decision. This has been denied by a portion of the Radical press, and the effort has been perseveringly made to throw dust in the eyes of the honest and unsuspecting portion of the com-

But this dodge will no longer take, after the bold avowal of Thaddeus Stevens. Negro rights, he says in plain Anglo-Saxon, is the great issue to be met at the polls on the second Tuesday of October. All other issues, in his opinion, dwarf into insignificance compared with it. The negro must have his rights, according to Mr. Stevens. They must be permitted to mingle in society with the white race, to vote at all elections, to sit in the jury boxes and on the Judicial bench, to be eligible to seats in the State Legislature and in Congress; in fact to have all the rights, social and political, accorded to the whites. This is his doctrine, boldly an-

Every vote cast for Stevens is an en dorsement of this policy. The issue is now fairly and squarely joined between the contending parties, and the result of the election in Pennsylvania will determine whether the white race is to continue to rule the nation, or whether the negro is to be elevated to a political equality with the whites in the

A Yankee Anvil and a Negro Hammer Jack Hamilton and the blackguard Brownlow made characteristic speeches before the recent Massachusetts State Convention. After they had sufficiently lauded the negro, Wendell Phillips was called on for a speech, and spoke as [Great applause.]

Is it not high time the white men o Pennsylvania should take warning, when the arch agitator Phillips dares to threaten them in such true bullying style? The Yankee fanatics of New England are the anvil and the negroes, moved and controlled by such mean white men as Brownlow and Jack Hamilton, are the hammer. Between them the Middle States are to be hammered until they accept fully the doctrine of negro equality

Every vote for Geary, or a Radical Co gressman, or Representative is a vote to keep Pennsylvania in the degraded to which she has been reduced by the fanatics who have controlled her politics for some years. And $5,000 a session is only the beginning of this extravagance. these men and this party are continued in power, they will consider it an endorsement of their conduct by the people, and the next Congress may raise the salary of its members to $10,- 000 a session, and compel the people to foot the bill. The working classes of the country will soon have an opportunity of setting the seal of their disapprobation upon the conduct of their representatives. Will they do it? If they want to introduce economy and reform into the halls of Congress, it is absolutely necessary for them to elect honest and conscientious men to make their laws. They must, by their votes, drive the corrupt scoundrels from Congress and the State Legislatures, and bring back the Government to what it was in the purer and palmy days of our fathers.

Negro Suffrage.

The Union State Central Committee in an address lately issued says: "The Constituaccress ratery issued says: "The Constitu-tion of Pennsylvania permits only white men to yote. By its tornell and only once in every five years, and having been amended in 1804, allowing the solutions, the right to vote, it cannot, in corformity with its own provisions, be amended again until 1869. It is hoped, therefore, our Democratic friends will restrain themselves, and not press negro suffrage upon us be-fore authorized by the Constitution of the Will the Intelligencer take notice!-Exam

If our friends of the Examiner had lived in the days of Noah they would certainly have been drowned. The famous rain-storm of that period would have caught them without so much as a "dug-out" to float them on the sur face of the rising water.

The Intelligeneer does not intend to follow the foolish example of those who laughed at Noah for building his Ark before the rain fell. It sees "black clouds" gathering in the political sky, and as in duty bound it warns the pub lic of the coming storm. If the people neglect the warning, they will rue their indifference to it when the Negro Deluge vertakes them.

The Examiner and its Radical State committee want to fix Negro Suffrage ipon Pennsylvania by stealth. They know very well that although the State Constitution may not be amendable till 869, yet the election of Geary would be a step in the direction of its amendment so as to admit of Negro Suffrage. The next gubernatorial term covers the whole year 1869 and runs into 1870. Geary, if elected, would therefore be Governor when the Constitution again becomes amendable "in conformity with its own provisions." And as he is known to be in favor of Negro Suffrage—as his personal and official influence would be given to an amendment to strike out the word white, which Thaddeus Stevens struggled to prevent the Convention of 1838 from putting into the Constitution—it is not now a day or an hour too soon to press the Negro Suffrage question upon the attention of our people. The Examiner and its State Committee fight off this question because they know that a large majority of the voters of Pennsylvania are opposed to admitting negroes to the ballot-box. They know the opinion expressed by the Rayet educated up to this point," is correct. They want more time. They think, from the stride the Negro has made towards equality with the White Man in the last few years, that in two or three more majority of the people will be "educated up to the point" of conferring upon him the right to vote. Let the people be warned in time, and let them make haste to build their Ark against the Negro Deluge with which they are threatened. Attempt to disguise it as they may, the Radicals mean | thousands would have been added to to force Negro Suffrage upon us whenever they can do it with safety to themselves, and nothing would give such an impetus to this detestable scheme of heirs as John W. Where Massachusetts Stands.

The Radicals in Pennsylania are busy denving that they favor negro suffrage. Many of them persist in that lie in spite of the immense accumulation of evidence against the party which is urging the election of John W. Geary, who declares that he can see no objection to it. In Massachusetts the party leaders speak out boldly and honestly. At the State Convention which has just adjourned they adopted an address in which appeared the following declara-We approve the amendment to the Con-

In their estimation negro equality is Democracy. From such democracy may the good Lord deliver us. The only safety for this country is to be sought in the overthrow f the Radical fanatics who are thusenleavoring to precipitate a war of races. The arming of the negroes of the South would inevitably lead to a collision and to the enactment of scenes of horror from which every friend of humanity would turn away with loathing and terror. The people must exert their whole power in this coming election if they would save the country from renewed disaster. Every radical elected to Congress will be fuel added to the fire of revolution now smouldering, and the election of General Geary would prove a national calamity which could not be repaired. We beseech all thoughtful men to pause on the brink of the precipice, and to lend their aid to save the nation from the peril which is impending. If the Radicals succeed in their designs they will give the negroes the right to vote, and will put arms in their hands to enable them to domineer over the white race. Are the people of Pennsylvania ready to aid in such a scheme If they are, let them vote for Geary and for Radical candidates for Congress and

It is perhaps not generally known that FRANK JORDAN, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee s the same individual who was appointed by Governor Curtin to act as Military State Agent, at Washington, at a salary of $3,000 per annum. This man draws his pay for the ostensible purpose of attending to the wants of our gallant soldiers in the settlement of their claims against the National Government, but virtually for the purpose of waging a fierce and vindictive war against the President and all soldiers who agree with and defend him. But, instead of giving his time and attention to the legitimate duties of his office at Washington, he has been absent from his post for about three months, and is located in Philadelphia for the purpose of running the Radical machine in this State, and yet he does not fail to draw his salary regularly from the Treasury of the Commonwealth. So says the Philadelphia News. This is one of the ways that the taxridden people of Pennsylvania are fleeced by an unprincipled set of cormorants who, for the last five or six years, have fastened themselves upon the pubic treasury, and have become bloated with wealth at the expense of the hardworking people. And they will coninue to drain the pockets of the taxpayers so long as the present dominant party is continued in power. If the people want retrenchment and reform -if they desire to see a proper economy practised in all departments of the State government-let them go to the polls and cast their ballots for that pure and incorruptible statesman, HIESTER CLY-

Radical Lawlessness. The teachings of John W. Forney, Adjutant-General, and other warriors of the Bread and Butter Brigade, are having their effect in this county. We all know that Forney did his best to raise a row and insult the late Constitutional Union Convention held at Philadelphia. Since then instructions have gone out from the headquarters of Radcalism to follow up the President and his party, and on all occasions to offer them deliberate insults. Missouri. To sustain themselves, the Radicals must carry all or very nearly all of the leading Northern States, and this it is quite impossible for them to do. The loss of New York alone, or of Pennsylvania and Indiana, would be fatal to them; and as they are certain to lose all of these States and others besides their defeat is beyond question and without remedy.

The Soldiers' National Union Convention. The great Convention of Union Soldiers' now in session at Cleveland, will be looked to by the Boys in Blue as the body which will authoritatively speak for them. There will be assembled a large majority of the officers who won renown in the war for the Union. It is a fact that almost every leading officer of the army and navy sand cions and sustains the restoration policy of the President. There are Grant. Sherman, Hancock, Sheridan, Mc Cook, Custer, Slocum, Wool, Dix Thomas, Averill, Williams, Torbut Stedman and scores of others of similar haracter in the army, with Farragut Porter, Worden and nearly every disinguished officer in the navy; every one of whom is in favor of the immediate and complete restoration of the Southern States to their proper places in the Union upon the plan proposed y the President.

These are the men who will speak to the country, and especially to the solliers through the Cleveland Convenion. A month ago there were appended to the call for this Convention the names of 43 Major Generals, 60 Brigadier Generals, 79 Colonels, 21 Lieutenant Colonels, 42 Majors, 62 Captains and 16 Lieutenants. Since that time the number of signers has been increased to enormous proportions by the addition of nearly the entire list of the prominent officers of the army and navy. All these will not be present at the great Convention at Cleveland in person, but they will be represented there by delegates properly chosen. We will give full reports of this great gathering of the best and bravest of the men who led in the gigantic struggle for the preservation of the Union. Having saved the Union from the assaults of the secessionists of the South they are resolved that it shall not be destroyed by the Radical Disunionists of the North; and they will utter that resolve in unmistakable terms at Cleveland.

The darky is a professional man. a Dr. Randolph, from New Orleans. They are both members of the Com mittee appointed by the Mulatto Convention, to which John W. Geary was regularly accredited delegate, for the ourpose of following in the track of President Johnson and effacing the leep impression made on the minds of he masses by his speeches. We want it understood that we do not nean that Brownlow has in anyway let himself down by thus associating with a negro. If Dr. Randolph is a respectable darkey, he ought to feel degraded by intimate association with the Brimstone parson. They both spoke at Boston a day or two since, and the speech of the negro was more decent than that of the white blackguard who preceded him. We would suggest to the Republican State Central Committee the propriety of their employing this Sable Dr. Randolph to take the stump for Geary. He is not one whit more in favor of negro equality than are Thad. Stevens, John W. Forney, and the rest of the men whose pliant tool John W. Geary is. By all means let us have a few speeches from one of the negro race for whose benefit the Radicals are laboring so zealously. Let us hear what the negro has to say in his own behalf. It is not fair to keep him in the background. Let them trot out a few representatives of the "race that bears the palm." We do not want to see the negro members of the Committee kept in the background when it visits Pennsylvania. If they are good enough orators for an audience of Massachusetts Radicals they ought to be good enough to address any Republican Mass Meeting in the Keystone Beast Butler Still for War. The "bottled up hero," who will b the chief warrior at the Radical Convention of so-called soldiers at Pittsourg, still cries aloud for war. At the Mulatto Convention in Philadelphia he used the following language:

In he social atracture of a nation such as urs: if any important part of the system be injured or paralyzed, the whole body must suffer with it. All the material interests of this great State are to no small extent dependent for their prosperity upon the speedy and comolete restoration of the Southern states to their former relation to the Union. If they are to remain n their present condition, with their nergies impaired, their fields laid waste, their great staples unrlanted, their rights denied them, and their people disconented and impoverished, Pennsylvania must suffer with them in all her great material interests. In commerce, in manufactures, and in our agricultural pursuits, we must be disastrously affected if the disunion policy of the Radical fanatics is longer permitted to prevail. We need that the Southern States be speedily and completely restored to the Union. The men in Pennsylvania who support the Radical policy of Thaddeus Stevens are striking a direct and disastrous blow at the prosperity of our people. They are sacrificing the best interests of the masses to their unreasoning hate and unholy ambition. their selfish lust for power all other obiects must be made to bend, and they are ready to precipitate ruin upon the people of the whole Union rather than rield their hold upon office. There is not a working man in Pennsylvania who is not directly and even pecuniarily interested in having the Jnion speedily and perfectly restored. We would urge all such to look at the matter calmly, if but for a moment. How does it stand? Let us sec.

The war has left us as a legacy a debt of four thousand millions of dollars. To pay the interest on that at six per cent. lemands an annual expenditure of two undred and forty millions of dollars. That enormous amount of money, over and above all that is needed to pay the ordinary and the extraordinary expenses incurred through legislation of the Radical Congress, such as from twelve to fifty millions a year for the Freedmen's Bureau, and three hundred thousand dollars extra pay voted as a corruption fund for the purpose of carrying the elections, all has to be raised by taxation. Who pay the taxes Is it the rich capitalist? If he has his money invested in United States bonds t is exempted by law; if in lands or nouses the renter pays the taxes; if in manufactures the consumer must pay them. By a nicely arranged law, which never ceases to act and is never interrupted, the workingmen of the country pay almost the entire amount of the taxes. Things are so adjusted that they cannot live without doing so. Every thing the masses eat, or drink, or wear, or use in any way is taxed time and again, until its difficult for them to supply the wants of themselves and fam-

To-day the masses of the North are paying almost the entire taxes of this nation. It is your toil, your sweat, laboring men of Pennsylvania, from which a very large proportion of the money is wrung which is so profusely lavished on negroes and on themselves by the Radicals in Congress. By their infamous schemes the Southern States are kept in a position which prevents their people from paying any considerable amount of the enormous sums which must be annually raised. The people of the South are purposely kept in an impoverished condition, their industry is destroyed the negroes on whom they depend for labor are kept in an excited condition, encouraged in idleness and supported in indolence by the Freedmen's Bureau. More than half the rich lands of the South are growing up in weeds, and an uncultivated wasters seen where the richest harvests of the great staples were once gathered. The South cannot pay its share of the taxes, and an increased burthen of very many millions of dollars is thereby thrown upon the shoulders of the working men of Pennsylvania. Voters, tax-payers, laboring white men of Pennsylvania, how long do you intend to stand this? In all seriousness we ask you the question? How much longer do you intend to be the blind dupes of such men as Thad. Stevens? Are you not almost tired being made bond slaves and beasts of burthen in order that these men may carry out their mad schemes for ensuring their continuance in power. They will not go out of office until they are thrust out by your votes. To perpetuate their rule they have prevented the restoration of the Union, have stolen large sums of money from the public treasury to corrupt the ballot box, have heaped the most enormous burthens upon you, and have voted away millions wrung from your sweat and toil to support in idleness the negroes whom they propose to make your social and political equals. Your interests. the interests of every man in Pennsylvania who is not a Radical politician or in some way an enemy of the people demand that the Southern States be speedily and perfectly restored to the Union. The masses must take this matter in their own hands and repudiate the entire Radical crew, including John W. Geary and the various candidates for Congress and the Legislature. If they are not entirely blinded by passion and prejudice they will do so.

Secretary Stanton.

The Secretary of War is preparing to meet the charges laid against him by Mr. Smithson, and the trial is expected to come off within the next two months. Should the verdict by any possibility be against Mr. Stanton, he will probably be troubled with lawsuits during the remainder of his life, judging from the number that have been rumored as on the tapis since that of Smithson's was instituted. Mr. Stanton's chief defence will be that he acted as an officer of the Government, and that he is not therefore personally responsible for the extra functions he may have assumed during the war.

Grant's Repulse of the Radical Politi-cians Confirmed. Mr. T. F. Baker, of Cincinnati, who was so rudely repulsed by Gen. Grant, is the commander of a poor imitation of the "Wide-Awakes" in that city. He has since come out in a card which show that the rebuke administered to him by Gen. Grant at Wood's Theatre, was even more decided than reported by the telegraph. The Radical leaders of Cincinnati are cursing him for his folly in thus rushing into print. His case is only another illustration of the temerity olio Lannash Medillacerer, Brutal Treatment of Sisters of Charlty by John W. Geary. John W. Geary, with his narrow intellect and bigoted nature, we have no doubt, made a most acceptable member of that infamous political organization which proscribed men on account of their birth or religious belief. His hatred of Catholics did not end with the short-lived triumph of the Know-Nothing party. It adhered to him, and vas afterwards displayed in the most ffensive manner possible. One of the most intelligent, wealthy and respectable cifizens of Frederick Maryland, sends us the following statement of an occurrence, which shows in its true light the bigoted and tyrannical character of the vain upstart who is the Radical candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. We give the facts in his own language:

own language:

To the Editors of the Intelligencer:
DEAR SIRS:—It occurs to me that justice demands that the rude and brutal manner in which some Sisters of Charliy were treated by John W. Geary, should be known, in order that the Catholic citizens of Pennsylvania may understand the character und the spirit of the man who appeals to them for support at the coming gubernatorial election. The facts will be sufficient without any comment, though you are of course at liberty to use them as you see fit.

In the fall of 1861, under protection In the fall of 1861, under protection

In the fall of 1881, under protection of a pass from General Scott, some four or five Sisters of Charity left the St. Joseph's House at Emmitsburg on their mission to nurse the sick and wounded soldiers of both armies. They had permission to visit any point along the line of contest from Winchester to Richmond, as their services might be needed. While as their services might be needed. While as their services might be needed. While traveling on the ears of the Baltimore and Ohio rallroad, under permission from the commander in chief at Wastington to go where they pleased in discharge of the duties of their sacred mission, they were arrested at Point of Rocks by Col. John W. rested at Point of Rocks by Col. John W. tieary. In a rude manner they with their baggage were removed from the cars and left among crowds of soldlers and rough camp followers, sitting without shelter ou their trunks by the roadside. It was not until after repeated solicitations that Col. Geary consented to grant an interview to the principal sister, a lady of education and settlement of the respectates. Finally refinement, as were her associates. Finally refinement, as were her associates. Finally this military dignitary gave orders to have her led into his august presence by a guard. In vain did she explain fully the charitable character of her holy mission; in vain did she exhibit the general and unrestricted pass given her by the Commander-in-Chief at Washington, authorizing her to go, with the rescated wherever their holy mission. her associates, wherever their holy mis might call them, or wherever they might be led to nurse the wounded and needed to nurse the wounder and consoler the dying; in vain did she begto be allowed to proceed as several parties of Sisters had been allowed to do unmolested before, over the same route; in vain did she speak of the crying wants of the wounded, the sick, the dying soldiers of the Union army, to relieve and succor whom was a great part of her mission; in vain did she assure this of her mission; in vain did sho assure this petty tyrant (Geary) that she had nursed the sick and wounded soldiers of all parties in the Crimean war, without molestation or hindrance, receiving from Turk and Russian no less courtesy and kindness than she did from Frenchman or Englishman; in vain did she protest with tearful entrenties received such personal in her neitye land after vain did she protest with tearful entreaties against such usage in her native land, after having traveled on a similar mission all over Europe unmolested. John W. Geary, a bigot by nature and a petty tyrant in his position, thrust her and her companions into the curs and sent them back to Frederick City, on their way to the House of St. Joseph, from which they came.

The Surgeon General at Frederick, a high toned gentiernan, and a native of Philadelphia, hearing of the manner in which the Sisters of Charity had been treated by Geary, and fearing the damaging effect which such Banks, the order than the results of the second fighting in the front ranks of the army, a once despatched an orderly to Gen. Banks at headquarters near Poolsville, with a let ter containing. er containing a statement of duct of General Geary, which letter will be found officially recorded on the books of the Medical Director. The Adjutant, after riding all night, returned to Frederick with an imperative order, com-manding General Geary to escort in person nd place safely on the Southern side of the and place sately on the South Charity, and to Potomac the said Sisters of Charity, and to assistance to aid them give to them every assistance to aid them in the discharge of their sacred mission of mercy. With what grace he could after his brutal conduct, Genry did escort them beyond the Potomac after having endeavor-

Any soldier who was under Geary at Point of Rocks at the time alluded to will emember his treatment of these Sisters of Charity. He will not dare to deny one word above statement. If he should the Medical Director and the Sisters will testify o the entire truthfulness of what is here

The above facts have been furnished in the shape in which they appear, as we have stated, by one of the wealthiest, most intelligent and honorable men in the City of Frederick. They show what a mean and miserable bigot John W Geary is. We hope our cotemporaries will give the statement a wide circulation.

Is Negro Suffrage an Issue ? Thad. Stevens, who is claimed by his supporters as the leading representative Republican in Pennsylvania, said in his meech at Bedford : The great issue to be met at this election The great issue to be met at this election is the question of negro rights. I shall not deny, but admit, that a fundamental principle of the Republican creed is that every being possessing an immortal soul is equal before the law. They are not and cannot be equal in strength, height, beauty, intelectual and moral culture, or social acquirement; these are accidents which must govern their condition according to circumstances. But in this Republic, the same laws must and shall apply to every mortal. laws must and shall apply to every mortal, American, Irishman, African, German or Upholding Mob Viotence. The Radicals of the House of Assemly, of New Jersey, on Tuesday last voted down the following resolution. offered by Mr. White, of Morriscounty, thereby sustaining the intolerance and violence or the Indianapolis mob :

Resolved, That as friends of the right of free speech, we have read with sorrow that the President of the United States was unduly assailed by a mob incited by partisan opposition at Indianapolis, and prevented from addressing peaceable and orderly citzens who had there assembled to pay him the hopor due to his high office. That such outrages upon the freedom of speech demand the reprobation of all good citizens. Will the people of Pennsylvania vote to keep in power men who thus openly encourage disrespect for the President of the United States, and offer a premium for mob, violence and murder

Let them answer at the ballot-box. General Grant's Father.

The indorsement by the father of General Grant of the policy of President Johnson is cheering to the friends of Constitutional liberty. General Grant had spent the day previous to the one on which the President arrived with his parents. The next morning Mr. Grant went with the committees to receive Mr. Johnson, and, when he was introduced to the President on the boat he took the occasion-a very appropriate one to indorse his restoration policy. There can be no doubt that General Grant spoke through the father.

Our County Ticket. The ticket presented to the Conserva tive voters of Lancaster county by the Convention which assembled yesterday is in all respects worthy the support of the people. It possesses more than ordinary strength, being composed of Democrats and Conservative Republicanssoldiers and civilians. The candidates are men of influence and tried integrity, and of the most unexceptionable char acter. Four of the gentlemen on the ticket were brave and gallant soldiers

Republican party. Our candidate for Congress, S. H Reynolds, Esq., is so well known to the people of Lancaster county that praise from us would be superfluous. By his energy and his fine abilities as a lawyer he has speedily elevated himself to front rank in the legal profession. With winning eloquence he has not only gained causes in court, but has ably defended those great principles of right to which he is so earnestly and devotedly attached. In Mr. Reynolds the cause of the Union and the Constitution will find an able and fearless champion. and, if the white men of Lancaster county are capable of appreciating their own interests, he will be triumphantly elected over Thaddens Stevens. We have not time to-day to notice each of the candidates personally, but we shall do so from time to time hereafter. Let the Democrats and the Conservative citizens of Lancaster county go to work with the resolve that every vote which they can command shall be polled at the coming important election for the County Ticket and for Clymer. If they do ali will be well.

An extra $2.000 was needed to secure their reelection, and they unscrupulously appropriated that amount cetra to each member for electioneering purposes. The Radical members are thus put in possession of a grand corruption fund, amounting in the aggregate to $300,000. That amount of money was taken directly out of the public treasury and distributed among the members.
