laws of Fennsylvania, qualified electors of this Commonwealth.

BECTION IB it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress approved March third, one it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer toote any ballot or ballots.

BECTION 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them, shall receive or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions, of this Commonwealth, he shall for each offense be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than start days.

denced to pay a fine of not less than one numered dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SEC. 8. That if any person deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, shall at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote or tender to the officers thereof and offer to vote a ballet or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction the reof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth shall for each offence be punished in like manner as provided in the preceding section of this act in cases of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SEC. 4. That if wuy person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons deprived of citizenship and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any ballot or ballots to the officers.

of utress, of constant, diminstration of the service, as therein directed, I also give official notice of the following provisions of an act approved March 30, 1885, entitled "An Act regulating the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of this Common wealth."

on any election are taken to be start in this cound monwealth, or shall persuade or advise any such officer to receive any bulliot or bullots from any person deprived of citizensulp and disqualified as aforesaid, such person so of fending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this Common wealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SEC. 5. That it shall be the duty of the Adjutant General of this Commonwealth to procure, from the proper officers of the lucited States, certified copies of all rolls and records containing official evidence of the fact of the destroin of all persons, who were citizens of this Commonwealth, and who were deprived of citizenship, and disqualified by the said act of Congress, of March third, one thousand eight hundred and slaty-five, and to cause to be recorded, and preserved, in books to be provided and kept for that purpose, in his office, full and records, and to cause true copies to be made thereof and furnished to the clerks of the several courts of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, accurate duplicates, or exemplifications of such rolls and records, and to cause true copies to be made their residence within the limits of said counted, respectively, at the time of their being marked or designated deserters; and it shall be the duty of the clerks of the several courts of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth to preserve, in books to be kept for the purpose, all such copies and axemplifications of such rolls and records, so furnished, and to allow access thereto, and furnish certified copies therefrom, on request, in like manner, as in the case of other terror of seld, counted copy, or extract, of all counted the second section of this act. *Ant provided however, That if any person shall be ferred as doresaid, he shall be deemed guilty of or misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be Universally endorsed by army officers and the press.

The *uthor says:

"I design in this volume to record what that Army did and suffered in ten campaigns and two score battles."

"I shall have to celebrate the unswerving loyalty of this army, that offittines when the bond of military cohesion failed, head it, unshaken of fortune, to a duty self-impose."

"I shall have to follow it through a checkered experience, in a tale commingled of great misfortune, a great follows and great glories; but from dirst to last it will appear that, amid many buffets of fortune, through "winter and rough weather," the Army of the Potomac never gave up, but made a good flight, and finally reached the goal."

The Army and Navy Journal says:

"This is the only American critical work on the late war, and it is thoroughly critical and entirely divested of all political nue or tone."

This is the only History of the "Grand Army," and no one who has borne a part in its conflicts, or is interested in its grand achievements, should be without it.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of political and partisan histories, and want something from official sources. We have Agents clearing over $200 per month. Send for circulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion. Address
