The Constitutional Amendments.

A Statesmanlike Discussion of the Momentous Questions of the Hour.

Review of the Political Situation.

The National Intelligencer publishes the following letter from the Hon. O. H. Brown, addressed to a committee at Quincy, Illinois, in reply to an invitation to address his friends and neighbors on the political issues of the day:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13, 1866.
Hon. O. H. Brown, Quincy, Ill.

It is not my purpose to give you a general review of the political situation of the country. It is not my purpose to give you a general review of the political situation of the country. It is not my purpose to give you a general review of the political situation of the country.

It is not true, as is constantly alleged, that the relative strength of the States which are in favor of the Union is less than it was at the close of the war. It is not true, as is constantly alleged, that the relative strength of the States which are in favor of the Union is less than it was at the close of the war.

The legislative is much the strongest of the departments—and the most aggressive. It is not true, as is constantly alleged, that the relative strength of the States which are in favor of the Union is less than it was at the close of the war.

The proposed amendments of the Constitution are adopted, now and hereafter, by the States. It is not true, as is constantly alleged, that the relative strength of the States which are in favor of the Union is less than it was at the close of the war.

Why insert such a provision in the Federal Constitution? It is not true, as is constantly alleged, that the relative strength of the States which are in favor of the Union is less than it was at the close of the war.

A List of Notoriety Lost on the Evening Star.

The passenger list of the Evening Star contained the name of more notorious people than that of any steamer yet lost upon the mighty deep, and we propose to give to you a brief description of a number of persons...

Upon this point the New York Clipper says: "No accident as appalling as that which we have chronicled ever occurred without giving rise to many painful and affecting incidents..."

not start. Billy Reeves and wife were another engaged, but waited over for another steamer, and sailed on the 6th instant. We also understand that E. Edin is a large portion of his vast robe on board. Dr. Spaulding was to have accompanied his company on this voyage, but fortunately business prevented him.

The Nicolo troupe consisted of J. Nicolo, (right name, Nicholas, Young) (a pupil), and the Tallen Brothers (right names William Rodney and Thomas Tolliday). Mr. Nicolo came to this country with Franconi's Hippodrome, and traveled with that company for some time. After this he formed a troupe of circus companies. He subsequently returned to England, and after an absence of three years once more visited this country, bringing with him young Nicolo, who he had adopted and brought up to the business. Since his last arrival from England with the Tallen Brothers, they have traveled together as the Nicolo Troupe, with circus companies.

William Gray, who was born in New York, July 25, 1833, was a very successful actor, and was considered one of the most useful and versatile performers in the business. He could play any part, and was equally successful in comedy and tragedy. He was a very popular actor, and was considered one of the most useful and versatile performers in the business.

Tom Kinsell (right name, Tom Butler) was born in New York, and was formerly a waiter in Meschitz's eating and drinking saloon, in New York. He was a very successful actor, and was considered one of the most useful and versatile performers in the business.

Edward Murray was a very popular Irish vocalist, and an efficient stage actor. He was a very successful actor, and was considered one of the most useful and versatile performers in the business.

Miss Julia Mortimer was a very successful actress, and was considered one of the most useful and versatile performers in the business. She was a very popular actress, and was considered one of the most useful and versatile performers in the business.

CATARRH.

WHY SUFFER WITH THE DANGEROUS & LOATHSOME DISEASE.

WHEN IT CAN BE CURED AND ENTIRELY ERADICATED FROM THE SYSTEM BY THE USE OF LIQUID CATARRH REMEDY.

Unless checked in its incipient stages, IT NEVER FAILS. CURE WARRANTED IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLLOWED. SINGLE BOTTLES WILL LAST A MONTH. COLD IN THE HEAD. Relieved in a Few Minutes. BAD BREATH. Caused by offensive secretions. WEAK EYES. Caused by Catarrhal Affections. SENSE OF SMELL. When lessened or destroyed. DEAFNESS. When caused by Catarrhal Affections. All are cured by this remedy.

THROAT AFFECTIONS. Are more frequently than otherwise caused by a thick, slimy mucus, flowing from the head, especially during the night, and resulting from Catarrh, and are cured by DR. SEELY'S LIQUID CATARRH REMEDY.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a sickly or slimy mucus, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place, the person may be sure that this disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms. Write to our Laboratory for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms; it will be sent FREE to any address. Also directions where to procure the medicine.

We are receiving letters from all parts of the Union, and also numerous testimonials from those using it, bearing the evidence of its infallible merits.

This remedy contains no MINERAL or POISONOUS INGREDIENTS, but is prepared from vegetable extracts EXCLUSIVELY; therefore it is PERFECTLY HARMLESS, even to the most tender and delicate child.
