

Literary

The Merchant's Test. "Dick, I am afraid the old man has taken it into his head to send you back to sea."

Miscellaneous

Secretary of the Treasury's Report. WASHINGTON, December 8, 1866. To his report under date of the 4th of December, 1865, the Secretary estimated, according to the data furnished him by this Department and by the Department of the Interior, that the expenditures of the Government for the three quarters of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866, would exceed the receipts $112,041,947.20.

Report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue

The receipts of the last fiscal year were mainly from the tax on distilled spirits, and from the tax on tobacco. The receipts from the tax on distilled spirits were $10,000,000, and from the tax on tobacco $5,000,000.

Report of the Secretary of War

The Secretary of War writes that the disbandment of the volunteer forces, the collection of military stores, the organization of the regular army, and the strengthening of the Indian country, are the principal objects of his department during the past year.

Report of the Secretary of the Navy

The Secretary of the Navy reports that during the past year the Department has been engaged in the construction of a new fleet of iron-clad vessels, and in the improvement of the existing fleet.

Report of the Secretary of the Interior

The Secretary of the Interior reports that during the past year the Department has been engaged in the surveying and mapping of the public lands, and in the management of the Indian affairs.

Report of the Secretary of the Treasury

The Secretary of the Treasury reports that during the past year the Department has been engaged in the management of the public debt, and in the collection of the taxes.

Advertisements

Advertisements for various goods and services, including clothing, furniture, and real estate. Includes names like 'LADIES' FANCY FURS', 'SHULTZ & BROTHERS', and 'HAGGER & BROTHERS'.