DR. SEELYEUS LIQUIDACA TARRH REMEDY

The symptoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons finding they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and sorid afterwards thick and Mhesive, may ensue.

As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive canging a had brouth: the voice this and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a slick or slimy mucous, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place, the person may be sure that this disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms. Write to our Laboratory for our amphlet describing fully all symptoms; it will be sent FREE to any address. Also directions where to procure the medicine.

We are receiving letters from all parts of the Union, and also numerous testimonials from those using it, bearing the evidence of its infellible merits.

This remedy contains no MINERAL or POISONOUS INGREDIENTS, but is preared from vegetable extracts EXCLUSIVE-LY; therefore it is PERFECTLY HARMLESS. even to the most tender and delicate child.
