cases were tried in the Court of Common J. F. Beecher and Hannah Hall, vs. Re-

J. F. Beecher and Haunah Hall, vs. Rebecca Brought. Issue to try the validity of the last will of Abraham Brought. The will was sustained. Patterson for plaintiff; Smith for defendant.

W. W. Brown vs. M. L. Huver. Joseph Martin, an employee of Mr. Huver, was drafted for nine months in 1892. Mr. Brown was employed by Mr. Huver to get a substitute for Martin. Mr. Brown secured a substitute, named Smith, and paid him $100. But, meanwhile, Martin fearing Brown would not get him a substitute, pat in a man by the name of May for 3 years. A note had been given to Brown, by Benj. Snavely and Huver for $500. $100 of it was paid and this suit is for the balance. The defondant alleged that Brown had not furnished the substitute at the time agreed defendant alleged that Brown had not furnished the substitute at the time agreed upon. Verdict for defendant. Hiester and Eshleman for plaintiff; Ellmaker and Dickey for defendant.

Eagleton Coal Co. vs. Abraham Collins.—This case was tried at the last term; but a new trial was granted. Mr. Collins is the owner of a number of canal boats, and agreed to carry coal for the plaintiffs in 1862 at $2.75 per ton, but on the 18th of June ceased to carry for the Company. They were compelled to hire other boats, and now sue Mr. Collins for $3,739—being the amount they paid for boat

Before the trial him under his contract. was concluded, a verdict was taken by con-sent for the plaintiffs for $650. T. E. Frunk-lin and Dickey for plaintiffs, Kline and Hiester for defendant. The charter of the Lancaster Law Library

The charter of the Laneaster Law Library Association was presented to the Court by Geo. F. Breneman. It will be granted at the next term of Court. William Miller vs. The Adams' Express Company. This was an action to recover damages for the loss of some goods by the Company. The facts from the testimony were these: Wm. Miller, a private in the 79th Regiment P. V., and who was detailed as a Regiment P. V., and who was detailed 79th Regiment P. V., and who was detailed as a Regimental shoemaker, with the priviledge of having boots forwarded to him for officers at the time the Regiment was at Savannah, his wife purchased a lot of boots, Vc., and forwarded them by the Express Company. The box containing the boots was lost.

The defense alleged that the receipt given by the company was conditioned for the payment of $50, in case the goods were st. The plaintiffs proved that the restriction in the receipt was not made known to Mrs Miller, his agent. The ruling of the Court sustained the latter. Verdict for the plain-tiffs for $556.87. Pyfer and Eshleman for plaintiffs; Breneman for defendants. March 25, 1864, and May 1, 1866. The constitutionality of the law was not questioned, as it was well known to the counsel that his Honor, Judge Hayes, had decided in the case of Peter Smith vs. Laneaster City, that the law was constitutional.

Defendant's counsel also contended that the form of action should not have been assumpsit, but by mandamus or some other mode of paceeding. His Honor stated to the jury that the form of action was right, as the suit is based on an implied contract, as the suit is based on an implied contrac as plaintiff had given his services to the township; the township had received the benefit of the credit, and the act of Assembly has fixed the value of his service t $300. Defendant contended that there was not sufficient evidence to show that plain tiff was credited to Brecknock township or thir was credited to Breekhock township or that the township received credit for him These facts were left to the jury by the Court. Verdict for plaintiff for $355.50. J. B. Kauffman and J. B. Amweg, Esqrs., for the plaintiff; Wm. R. Wilson for defendant.

NOTICE TO POSTMASTERS.—Postmasters throughout the country will save trouble by obeying the laws in regard to newspapers, &c. When a paper remains dead in office for four consecutive weeks, it is the duty of the Postmaster or his deputy to send the publisher of the paper a written notice of the fact—stating, if possible, the reason why the paper is not lifted. The returning to the publisher of a paper marked refused," or "uncalled for," is not a legal notice. Postmasters who fail to comply with the law in this respect are liable for the subscription for the time said papers remain dead in their office. We lave been greatly imposed upon by the neglect of Postmasters.

ARREST OF THE PORT DEPOSIT POST OFFICE ROBBER,—The Philadelphia papers record the arrest of a man named Wooster, in New Jersey, charged with various crimes especially the robbery of postoffices, including those at Port Deposit, Md., Chester, Pa Salem, N. J., Norristown, Pa., and Wilming ton, Del., where he obtained nearly $11,000 in money and drafts. On Several occasions he made his escape from prison.

Horse Third Convicted. Some weeks ago we published an account of the arres of John Clark, in this city, by Officer Baker, The Doylestown Democrat gives the following, concerning some of his exploits and conviction, which may be of interest to our readers, as he was well known in this vicinity: One of the most noted, illegal and unlawful dealers in other people's horse flesh, and whose marauding expeditions and jail-breaking exploits in the successful Jack Shepherd style, are both well known in several counties of our State, has at last received the well-merited reward of his rascality. Months ago, he obtained a local no toriety here by driving off the elegant team of Joseph Hart, was traced to Jefferson county, arrested, the horses recovered in an injured condition, and he effected his escape by letting his carcass down in safety from a window of a third-story room in th hotel at Brookville, during the temporary absence of his guardian sentinel. Near year ago this same John Clark was arrest ed at Allentown for stealing horses, and sent from there up to Danville, in the county of Montour, where he was lodged in fail to answer a similar complaint; and celebrated the 4th of July by breaking out, and again securing his liberty. Some weeks since, h was re-arrested in the city of Lancaster and on payment of the reward and present ment of proper document by the Sheriff of Montour, he was again consigned to his custody. On the 19th of this month he had his trial, being indicted, convicted and sentenced upon the same day. The sentence of the court was an imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary for the term of six years and six months-and on the next five dollar National Bank note has recently been put afloat. The engraving is said to be finely exceuted, and the bill, in the main, well calculated to deceive. Still it may readily be detected. In the genuine the p of Columbus and his companions is offiver composed of five persons; in the counterfeit there are but four—the one in the back-ground at the extreme end, and most ex-treme figure in the group, is missing. In the counterfeit, also, the extended arm of Columbus is without a hand. Bills of this description on five different banks have already appeared, and others will doubtless soon follow.

HORTICULTURAL.-The regular monthly meeting of the Lancaster county Horticul-tural Society was held on the 4th inst., at the Atheneum Rooms, and the prosperit of the Society was clearly manifest in the greatly increased attendance of member over any of its previous meetings. The roll of the Society is rapidly lengthening, and this meeting, like the last, added several new names to the list of members already large, when the youth of the Society b considered. The following are the newly elected members, viz: Charles T. Gould, J Sprenger, Moses Buch, John Musser ar Daniel Rhoads.

The subject announced by Mr. Hiller his theme for lecture no doubt beloed to attract the large meeting, from the knowledge known to be possessed by the lec-turer upon the announced subject, and the meeting was not disappointed, though the essavist was himself unable to be present; but the essay was in the hands of S. S Rathvon, to whom it had been entrusted and who did ample justice in the reading of it. In it were condensed the experience observation and reflection of many years devotion to orcharding, and the member who heard it could not but be amply bene fitted, and those likewise who peruse when it appears in the journals will meet with many useful hints in the planting and management of apple orchards.

Our entomological member, Prof. Rath on, read an extract, which he had clipped from a paper, giving the origin of fruits and vegetables, which contained information every intelligent plant-grower should strive to know, and which, though of no practical benefit, yet affording scope for agreeable reflection. Peter Reist had in his possession a pape in which was contained the report of a Vestern Hortjcultural meeting on straw berry culture, and it being sent to the sec retary's desk, was read by him for the benefit of the Society; and although Western and Eastern fruit-growers differ much in their theories, yet its matter amply repaid its perusal.

The Society is determined to keep pace vith the horticultural literature of the day and to that effect authorized the secretar to subscribe for and procure three of th est horticultural journals of our country The exhibition of fruits, vegetables and flowers for the coming June is already proposed, and a committee of three gentleme have been appointed, who are authorized to inquire into the expediency, and report the propriety of holding said exhibition. Quite an interesting interlocutory series of remarks followed amongst several members of the Society, drawn out by the ques-tion put by Peter S. Reist, as to the cause of worms in peach trees.

Everything in this Society indicates pro ress. Indeed, a buoyancy of spirit and confidence of success are manifested by all the members, which alone gives ample assurance of permanent succ One genial member, Andrew M. Frantz Esq., perhaps not realizing fully the spirited tone of our Society, came with a bottle of his celebrated domestic rhubarb wine, to no doubt exhilarate the spirits of the droopng; but there was no need of it, as he him self fully realized on this score, and alhough his bottle was soon emptied, it was done under the express assurance that there were no intoxicating qualities in it. This wine of Mr. Frantz's, it must not be omitted to say, that although not rivelling, it is prenumed, the old Falernian or the ancient Mussic of the Roman poet, yet its sudder lisappearance argued its goodness of quality. Several members of the Society sup plied grafts to such as desired them, and they will do the same at the next meeting. Owing to the stated time for the nex neeting falling upon the 1st of April, the busy day in Lancaster, it was adjourned to meet on the last Monday in March. Henry M. Engle will, at that time, deliver a lecture on strawberry culture. THE STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION VS. MISHLER'S BITTERS.—Everybody will admit that Temperance is very good, but there is sand at thing as intemperance even in what is known as the Temperance movement.

We think that the members of the recessift State Temperance Convention at Harrisburg were guilty of intemperance when they stepped from their true sphere to denounce in bitter language that well-known medical preparation—Mishler's Herb Bitters. We are surprised that this attack should come from and be urged on by Dr. Keneagy, of this county, who certainly must be aware that Mishler's Bitters is not a rum preparation, but is universally recognized as a powerful remedial agent. Dr. K., is well acquainted with the medical properties and uses of the ingredients of Mishler's Bitters, and also that cures innumerable, and some of them almost miraculous in their lature, have been performed solely by the use of these Bitters. Among those who have been cured are some of the strongest temperance divocates, persons who would never think of taking a drink of intoxicating liquors.

Knowing these facts we cannot understand why Dr. Keneagy should class Mishler's Bitters with certain nostrums composed principally of whiskey and b. the roots, and soid as bar d links, under the names of Tonies, Cordials of litters. These articles are fit subjects for the denunciation of Dr. R. and all temperance men, but to include Mishler's Bitters with the class referred to above is simply absurd and shows a lack of discernment to say the least of it.

The laboratory of Mr. Mishler is open to the

The laboratory of Mr. Mishler is open to the inspection of everyone, and physicians, especially, have been and are invited to visit the establishment. They will there see how Mishler's Bitters are made; how the spirits are passed over 60 bushels of maple coal and therepoylevested ofall polsonous properties and head chemically pure; how afterwards the spirits are conveyed over about 150 bushels of the finest are conveyed over about 150 bushels of the finest and best roots, herbs, and seeds found in the U.S. Dispensatory, in fact they will see and have explained to them the whole modus operandi of manufacturing these Bitters.

The highest doctors not only in this State, but in the United States, or even in the whole world, use these Bitters in their practice. Bissel, the health physician of New York, and Dr. Lane, of Chicago, a physician of twenty-five years standing, than whom there are no better doctors in Ame. Ica, have both effected astonishing cures wint these Bitters, afterpother remedies had failed. And with them so it is with all other intelligent physicians; they at once see and recognize the fact that Mishler's Bitters are par excellence the greatest and best medical preparation of the day.

If Dr. Keneagy has no faith in these Bitters why does he not claim the $500 reward offered by Mr. Mishler for a better medical compound? This offer was made in good faith by Mr. Mishler, and was published very extensively. Certainly Dr. K. must have seen it, and it would have been much better for him if he had stepped forth and claimed this reward instead of running up to Harrisburg and, under a pretence of advocating Temperance, denounce that which is really and truly good.

per norm and canned and the state in instead returning up to Harrisburg and, under a pretence of advocating Temperance, denounce that which is really and truly good.

One brand of these Bitters, the red label, in addition to the other ingredients contains an article which we defy any quack doctor in this country to procure; we allude to Uedron. This is an exceedingly scarce and a highly valuable medicament. Indeed the supply of it in this country is so small that Mr. Misuler commissioned his business manager, Mr. Brown, now in England, to purchase a quantity of it there. The medical properties ofthis article are given in the U. S. Dispensatory, p. p. 1337—88. Although recognized by the best medical writers as possessing wonderful power Cedron was never used by physicians in this country owing to its scarcity and high price. It remained for Mr. Misbler to bring this article prominently before the American people, which he has done in the preparation of his red label Bitters, Yet Dr. Keneagy, the reformer, denounces this article. Keneagy, the reformer, denounces this art pr. Keneagy, the reformer, denounces this arti-cle as injunious to the cause of temperance; with the same show of reason he might de-nounce all of the various tinetures and ex-tracts containing alcohol which he, in common with all other doctors, constantly use. But enough. Before Dr. Keneagy advocates temperance he should first learn to practice it himself.

DR. KENEAGY—Dear Sir: I willgive you $100 if you will, within eight days, procure me one onnce of Cedron, an article used extensively in the preparation of my Bitters. You will find it described in the U. S. Dispensatory, pages 1837-88. I make this offer to show the public that semi-quack doctors are not acquainted with the best medicines. If you cannot get this article and wish to use it in your practice I will furnish it to you in any quantity, prothis article and wish to you in any quantity, provided you can show me that you are thorough y acquainted with its medical proporties and uses.

Respectfully,
B. MISHLER,
Proprietor of Mishler's Herb Bitters.

A few days ago a duel was fought near New Orleans with double barreled guns. The Picayune says:

The parties engaged were Messrs. Edward Lefevre and George Genin. Both were young married men. Genin was accused of taking improper liberties with the lady of Mr. Lefevre at a ball. Immediately thereafter he was called to account by Mr. Le. Mr. Genin answered the accusations of L. Mr. Genin answered the accusations of Mr. Lefevre by an assault, and a challenge followed. Preliminaries were arranged, and Thursday morning both parties met. At the first fire Lefevre fell dead, and Genin fell mortally wounded in the neck. Mr. Kasson then moved a suspension, that he might introduce a resolution relating to the tariff on woolens, and his motion likewise falled. In the evening session conference committees were asked on the Bankrupt, Judicial Allotment, Indian, Compound Interest Note, and River and Harbor bills.

FRIDAY, March. 1.

In the U. S. Senate, on motion of Mr. Sherman, the Finance Committee were discharged from the further consideration of the House bill increasing the duty on wool. Mr. Sherman, in lieu thereof, reported a bill in the language of the wool sections of the Senate Tariff bill, and it was read. At one o'clock, the Colorado bill was taken one o'clock, the Colorado bill was taken up, and on the question of its passage over the President's veto the yeas were 29, and the nays 19. Less than two-thirds having voted in the affirmative, the bill was defeated. The Tax bill was taken up, considered in Committee, and reported to the Senate. A conference report on the bill for the allotment of Supreme Court judges was made and agreed to, the House receding from its amendments. The consideration of the Tax bill was resumed in evening session, and the bill passed finally. It goes to the House for concurrence in amendments. The bill was passed with some amendments, and the Naval Appropriation bill was considered, and passed with amendments. In the House, the Deficiency Appropriation bill was considered. The Senate bill allowing a deduction of one month in each year for good conduct from the sentence of persons imprisoned for offences against the United States was taken up and passed. The Senate bill prohibiting the absence of The Senate bill prohibiting the absence of Perritorial officers from their duties was eterred. The Senate bill for the relief of inhabitants of towns on the public lands wa mended, so as to allow the lands to be e amended, so as to allow the lands to be en-tered by the corporations, and passed. The Army Appropriation bill was considered in evening session, and the amendment dis-banding the military organizations in the lately rebel States was concurred in. Some other amendments were rejected, and a committee of conference asked. A confer-ence report on the Bankrupt bill was agreed to.

In the United States Senate, a bill was passed providing that the Wool Tariff shall go into effect five days after its passage. The conference report on the bill to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers was agreed to. At 10.20 A. M., Mr. Foster, President of the Senate, delivered a farewell address. Mr. Benjamin F. Wade, of Ohio, was then elected President pro tem., and took the chair, and the customary resolutions of thanks to the retiring officer were adopted. The Secretary of the Senate was directed to inform the President of Mr Wade's election. The Senate was the president of Mr Wade's election. Monday, March. 4. ate went into Executive session, and, before the doors were reopened, was adjourned by the termination of the Thirty-ninth Congress. The House resumed proceedings at 9 A. CLIMAX.

A plain statement of facts. I inherited Scrofula, and many of my relations have died of it. In 1839 my case was frightful. Tumors and ulcers spread until 1812, under the advice of my physicians I went to Avon Springs. I received no benefit-tried every medicine and did everything I could' I had to rest my arm on a cushion, and had not been able to raise it to my head for over a year. The discharge from two ulcers was nearly a pint a day. Amputation was recommended; but pronounced dangerous. I could not sleep, and my sufferings were intolerable. A friend brought me an English physician who applied a salve with which he said he had accomplished extraordinary cures in the hospitals in England, It commenced to refleve; persisted in its use; it finally effected a perfect and entire cure. It is now 1848. It slive years since I had the appearance of a scrofulous sore, and my health has been good ever since. I procured the receipt of his wonderful article—this blessing of humanity—and have called it "Page's CLIMAX SALVE," and allow the public to use it on as they choose. This is a brief but candid statement, given more fully in my circular. GENEVA, New York, December, 1848, J. M. PAGE.

BEATEST IMPROVEMENT OF THE DAY IN COOK STOVES.

DAY IN COOK STOVES.

Something Entirety New.

is a better Baking and working Stove than any or all the new Fish-Top Stoves now in the market, or can be made without our new Improved Cut-off-Flues, working on the principle as appiled to the cut-off in the Steam Engine.

A thorough test of this improvement as appiled to this Stove, proves as a Baker superior to any other before the public.

This stove also combines all the modern improvements, such as Reversible Cross Pieces, allowing the Wash Boller to set in any position on the top, and when the Cross Pieces,
allowing the Wash Boller to set in any position on the top, and when the Cross Pieces are removed leaves large opening to admit a Wash Ket le or Cauldron on the top,
The Anti-Dust arrangement is cast iron instead of Wire, as most of the Anti-Dusters are —therefore not liable to burn and rust out like wire. It can be used in warm weather, or at any time to Roast or Broil on with charcoal or chips, which cannot be done safely where wire instead of cast-iron is used.
All the Cross Pieces of this stove are extra heavy, double lined, and all the other Plates extra heavy; the Front Fire Doors side instead of swinging as ordinary Stoves do, therefore can be opened or closed at pleasure without removing any vessel setting on the hearth, For beauty or design and proportion it is not surpassed by anything except its own superior working qualities, in which it has no equal.
Give it a trial on our guarantee. Foster home manufacture by buying your slaves where you can get repairs at haif the cost you have been paying for a foreign made stove,
We manufacture all the most popular Parlor,
Dinning Room, Hall, and Office Stoves, &c., Furnaces, Heaters and Ranges.
Also, IKON Rall-LING of every design, style and price. MARSHBANK & MARTIN.
