EPHRATA MOUNTAIN SPRINGS AS A SOL-DIERS' HOME.-Senator White, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported, as committed, an act authorizing the Governor to purchase property for a Home for disabled soldiers, together with a resolution instructing the committee to inquire into the propriety of selecting Ephrata Springs, Lancaster county, for the purpose. The resolution was agreed to.

No better locality could be had for a Soldiers' Home than Ephrata Mountain Springs, and if the property can be purused at a fair valuation we hope it will be HOOKING SHAD,—The people residing on the banks of the Susquehannariver can have considerable sport catching shad with hook and line this senson if they feel so dis-posed. "Frank Forrester," in his book on fishing, says that the American shad, like the herring, will jump at a fly. We expect to see the shores lined with anglers, playing four and six-pound shad until they are "flyblown." This author says:

"It is, as I have observed, indisputably true, that on his entrance into fresh water true, that on his entrance into fresh water from the salt, for the purpose of spawning, the shad will readily take a gaudy fly, the more readily the higher he runs up into cold and highly aerated waters in the upper part of our large rivers. From personal experience and success, I can assure the fly-fisher that he will find much sport in fishing for the shad during his upward run in the spring, with a powerful trout rod, a long line, and any gaudy fly—whether of the pencock feather, or a four-winged fly of the scarlet chenile body. The best way to the scarlet chenile body. The best way to use it is with a single B shot attached to the gut an inch or two above the fly, so as to troll with it, as it were slightly below the surface."

An exchange says that if people planting orchards would give strict orders to mark the north side of trees with red chalk before they are taken up, and when set out to have the tree put in the ground with its north side to the north, in its natural position, a large proportion would live. Ignoring this law of nature is one cause of so many transplanted trees dying. If the north side is exposed to the south, the heat of the sun i too great for that side of the tree to bear, and therefore it dries up and decays.

DAN RICE'S GREAT SHOW.—Our readers will find elsewhere in our columns the announcement of the farewell appearance here on Saturday, April 20th, of the renowned representative of American wit and humor—Dan Rice—who will, on that occasion, be assisted by a number of the greater lights of the Ring, and himself positively appear as Clown to the Arena. Mr. Rice has not donned the motley for several years past, but, in order to gratify the desire expressed by thousands of his admirers to behold him once again in his inimitable role, he will positively do so, for this, the last time, and doubtless spare no effort of scintillating wit or humorous sally to justify and preserve his reputation as the Admirable Crichton of his profession.

We have only space now to briefly mention, among the various rare and novel attractions he has gathered around him, his famed herd of Sacred Cattle—the only one ever imported into the civilized world, and forming the subject of a highly interesting lecture by Mr. Rice—that astonishing equine marvel, the blind horse Excelsior, Jr.; the superb Arabian French horse, "Stephen A. Douglas;" those long-eared clowns of the animal kingdom, the original comic mules Pete and Barney; and the Monkey Jockeys, whose feats of horsemanship set the more juvenile portion of the community wild with delight.

Assurance is given of a moral, delightful and varied entertainment, and there will, of course, be an unprecedented rush to bid the great-Dan good-bye.

He was also much burned about the face, and strained across the back and loins.

He was a great sufferer for some months with pane in the kidneys and much inconvenienced with incontinence of urine, until he was induced to use Mighler's Herb Bitters which in a short time entirely cured him. He had previously used the Bitters in his fami y in the case of his wife who had been for about seven months afflicted with a running or sore leg which was cured by been for about seven months affiloted with a running or sore leg which was cured by the Bitters. Mr. Verling, being prevented by the loss of his right hand from obtaining a living by following his usual avocation, has determined to travel through Lancaster and neighboring counties, and receive orders for Mishlor's Horb Bitters. He has had sufficient experience in testing the virtue and efficacy of the Herb Bitters, and will be pleased to answer any inquiries in relation to the above mentioned cases.

We need not call the attention of the citizens of Lancaster county to the merits of Mishler's Herb Bitters. Here their virtue has been fally tested, and they have come to be regarded by our people as a Household Remedy. This reputation they have invariably acquired wherever they have levariably acquired wherever they have been introduced. Mr. S. A. Jones, one of Dr. Mishler's agents has recently returned from St. Louis, Mo., where he has been seiling the Bitters, and met with such success in curring the many diseases for which the Bitters is recommended, as to induce Mr. J. S. Merrill, one of the largest Druggists to St. Louis, to purchase the business from him.

Mr. Jones having spent a few weeks among his friends here, Dr. Mishler determined to send him to introduce and establish a trade in Luxerne and neighboring counties in this State, in which we believe he will be tuily as successful as he was in Missouri, Mr. Jones is a gentleman of strict honor and integrity, of enegetic business habits, and has made hosts of friends while in this city, and we can cordially commend him to the favorable attention of the citizens of Luzerne county.

Iwo Men Hanged by a Mob in Indian Two Men Hanged by a Mob in Indiana.

The town of Brownstown, the county seat of Jackson county, Indiana, was on Saturday night the scene of a tragic affair, which resulted in the forcible capture from jail, and the hanging by a mob of the exasperated citizens of that vicinity, of two men charged with the murder of an old lady for the purpose of robbery, at or near Clear Springs, Jackson county, Indiana, some months ago.

Springs, Jackson county, Indiana, some months ago.

Three men named respectively Tally, Brooks and Easton, were arrested, charged with committing that fiendish crime. They were placed in jail at Brownstown to await trial at the coming spring term of the Circuit Court. The people of Jackson county were greatly excited when the details of the murder became known, and although the proof that these men committed the crime was considered very strong, there was some doubt, and this doubt was not removed until a few days since, when one of the men, Brooks, unable longer to resist the gnawings of a guilty conscience, reveal-the gnawings of a guilty conscience, reveal ed, by a partial contession, enough to show that he and Tally did actually commit the murder, and that Easton, through their nurder, and that Easton, through their connivance was an accessory.

This confession caused a renewal of the excitement in the community. The excitement was at fever heat, and a deep feeling of vengeance gathered in the public mind. This feeling resulted, on Saturday night, in the formation of a mole numering from he formation of a mob, numbering from we hundred and fifty to three hundre two hundred and fifty to three hundred men. On meeting, it is said, they resolved to hang Brooks and Tally, and leave Easton to be tried by the court, to see if the law would hang him, the crowd agreeing at the same time, that they would hang him if the law failed. At midnight the mob entered Brownstown, mounted upon horses. They marched for the jail, and, filing right and left, completely surrounded it. The leaders called out the jailor and demanded the prisoners. Brooks and Tally, or they keys to the jail. The jailor peremptorily refused to give up either the prisoners or the keys. On this the mob cried out, "break down the door, break down the door. It readily gave way, and several men entered the jail, who soon returned, dragging forth the two murderers.

They wave taken to the court house ward who soon returned, dragging forth the two murderers.

They were taken to the court house yard and surrounded by the mob. Brooks was horror streken, and upon his knees begged for life, and declared that he would make a full confession if he was allowed time. Tally, being a man of great nerve and possessed of great calmness, declared he was not guilty, and that if he was hung, would die an innocent man.

The shouts from the crowd were "hang them," "hang them." Tally was told that time would be given him to make a confession. He replied that he had none to make. He was then asked if he wished a minister to pray for him. He replied he did.

The Rev. Mr. Benton was sent for and soon made his appearance, and seeing the to pray for him. He replied he did.

The Rev. Mr. Benton was sent for and soon made his appearance, and seeing the determination of those around him, and that an appeal for mercy was useless, administered to the spiritual wants of the doomed men. He prayed for forgiveness of their sins, and for peace with their God. After this religious service, Tally was told to prepare for immediate execution. He very coolly objected to the tree which the mob had selected. He pointed to one near by saying it was a much better tree, as its projecting limb would allow their bodies to swing clear of the body of the tree. The desired change was made. Barrels were placed under the projecting limb, to which ropes were attached.

Tally got up-on a barrel and made a request that he be allowed to fasten the rope around his own neck, which he was allowed to do. After adjusting the rope around his neck to his satisfaction, which operation occupied but about three minutes, he gave the barrel under him a kick, and was left suspended in the air. Brooks lost several minutes in begging and praying for his life to be spared. He was put upon the barrel, the rope tied fast around his neck, and the barrel knocked from under him.

They hung for forty-five minutes, when life was declared extinct. The bodies were taken down and placed in the court house. The mob then quietly dispersed to their homes,—Cincinnati Commercial.

VERY DEAR BRETHREN: The Grand Orient of France will this year celebrate the summer solstice by a festival and a banquet, to take place on the 15th of June next. At that time the Master Masons, or representatives from all the lodges corresponding with the Grand Orient of France, will hold a general assembly in Paris, as it is expected that the international exhibition will bring to that city, from all quarters of the globe, a large number of Freemasons. The Grand Orient of France sacs in this exceptional circumstance a favorable opportunity of strengthening the ties which unite the scattered members of the Masonic family, and it thinks that the scattered members of the Masonic family, and it thinks that alongside of the festival of industry it would be well to celebrate that of the brotherhood. It therefore invites Freemasons of every order to co-operate with it in giving to this festival a universal character. Such a meeting of men from all parts of the world, speaking different languages, of different manners and customs, but animated with the same sentiment—the sentiment of brotherhood—will, in truth the sentiment of brotherhood—will, in truth, be a very imposing spectacle. I have not the slightest doubt, very donr brethren, that this idea of the Grand Orient of France that this idea of the Grand Orient of France will be appreciated, and that Freemasons will come forward and respond to this ap-peal. The greater their gathering the more numerous will be the links of the chain which binds them together, and the more brilliant will their festivities be. I pray you, very dear brethren, to make this com-numication as public as possible. Accept munication as public as possible. Accept the assurances of my esteem and fraternal affection. ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 6.—A great haul of counterfeiters was made yesterday at his place. The first was that of Henry this place. The first was that of Henry W. Johnson, a canal groceryman, whom the officers pounced upon suddenly, finding him heavily charged with the obnoxious currency, most of it being counterfeit twenty-five cent and fifty cent fractionals. When selzed, Johnson was prevented from destroying it, and made stern resistance to being igned and carried to init. from destroying it, and made stern resistance to being ironed and carried to jail.—
Johnson has long been suspected by the officers, but never by the community at large. Marshal Keeney next arrested Samuel Elletson, along time resident of this city, but now living in the adjacent small town of Jordan. Elletson has always heretofore stood fair as a citizen, and was well known in this city, where a large acquaintanceship is both surprised and mortified at his position. He was committed to the jail. Late on the 2d inst. Special Deputy Tappley arrested a man named John Sims, at pley arrested a man named John Sims, at Syracuse, and brought him to this city. Sims is a resident of Amboy Centre, in this State, and is charged with being the ring-leader of this counterfeiting gang of a hunleader of this counterfeiting gang of a hundred men. He is a man of large wealth, and of late years has passed his time, it is alleged, in educating young men to the business of counterfeiting, and when caught has uniformly become their bondsman. Twenty of his pupils are now in the State Prison. Having now committed the "overt act" himself, the case against him is a good one.

act." himself, the case against him is a good one.

It is thought that but for the death of the late Rans Rhubottom, at Troy, a few days since, who was one of the most accomplished "shovers" of the currency in the United States, and an acknowledged leader in this phase of crime, that the number of arrests would have been greater. It seems to be a custom with these criminals upon the death of one of their number to obliterate all traces of their operations for the time being until they can ascertain the position affairs were left in by the dead confederate, and learn whether any evidence has been left likely to implicate any of the surviving. It was known here that Rhubottom had died within a few days past, and it is thought that the usual precautions were fully taken.

&**Consumption* Curable by Doctor* SCHENCK'S MEDICINES.—To cure Consumption, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heat. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. Schenck's Mandrake Pills cleanse the stomach of all billious or mucuous accumulations; and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored, SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP is nutritious as weil as medicinal, and, by using the three femedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will Irepel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to disell as medicinal, and, by using the three femedies, all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, Consumption very frequently in its last stage yields readily to their action. Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not coative they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhosa they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhosa they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhosa they are not explicit created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking coid. Exercise about the rodms as much as possible, eat all the richest food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well oct 29

Moffat's Life Pills and Phoenix Hitters, were first used in private practice in 1825. They were first used in private practice in 1825. They were introduced to, the public in 1835, since which time their reputation has extended, until they have a sale in excess of all other Cathartic and Purifying Medicines. There is hardly a family among civilized nations who have not personal evidence of their beneficial effects. Their great success is owing to their uniform reliability in cases of Consipation, Bilious and Stiomachic diseases, whether of long or short duration, They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and harmless to the gentlest infant. One ingredient opens the pores of the skin; another is diurette, and stimulates proper action of the kidneys; a third is emoillent, loosening phiegm and humor from the lungs; other properties are warning and cathartife, and cleanse the stomach and bowels from unhealthy scentiens. Their combined effect is, to regulate the impaired functions of the system, and to produce health. Distributions.

We would call attention to the opinion of one of the leading papers of Canada on this subject:

Most of our readers have no doubt read some of the numerous advertisements of Girt Enterprises, Gift Concerts, &c., which appear from time to time in the public prints, offering most tempting bargains to those who will patronize them. In most cases these are genuine humbugs. But there are a few respectable firms who do business in this manner, and they do it as a means of increasing their wholesale business, and not to make money. From such firms, it is true, handsome and valuable articles are procured for a very small sum, and what is more important, no one is ever cheated. Every person gets good value for his dollar; because, as we have stated, it is intended to act as an advertisement to increase their ordinary business. act as an advertisement to increase their ordinary business.
We have seen numbers of prizes sent out in this way by SHERMAN, WATSON & COMPANY, of Nassau street, N. Y., and there is no doubt that some of the articles are worth eight or ten times the money paid for them, while we have not seen or heard of a single article which was not fully worth the dollar which it cost. But this is only one of the exceptions of this rule, for as ageneral thing the parties engaged in this business are nothing but clever swindlers.—Saurday Reader, Montreal, C. E., Jan. 13, 1856.

The advance of the above named institution through this section of the country is an event of the greatest importance to the public, as it is an organization com-bining all that is Moral, Instructive, and Entertaining and discarding all the elements (found in so many traveling exhibitions) that would in the slightest degree prove offensive to the most sensitive and pious mind. The great show and animal school, under the immediate supervision of the distinguished scholar and humorist COL. DAN RICE, event of the ar DAN RICE in his popular role of the American Humonist, on Clown to the Arena. This event has only been brought about by the inost earnest persuasion and the great desire of the public to once more behold this patri-otic gentleman in his original character; and as this is more than probably Mr. Rice's FAREWELL TOUR, none should fail to hear his humorous and learned expositions of the Great Events of the Day. Remember, therefore, that DAN RICE VILL MOST POSITIVELY appear at each and every exhibi-ion of the great show, assuredly without fall, as CLOWN tion of the great snow, assured without can, as observed to Teg Arabana.

The perfect equipment of the entire exhibition has been the study of the management, and everything will be found complete and elegant.

The Wadons, Thatprines, &c., have been renovated and equipped in the most superis Manner; and in the and equipped in the most superis manner; and in the Crand Street Parade, which will take place daily at about 10 A. M., will form a blaze of splendor seidom if ever equalled.

The Mammoth Pavilion will be complete in all its details, and will be so arranged as to afford the best posible accommodations to the public, while comfortable SEATS WILL BE PROVIDED FOR ALL.

The First Mortgage Bonds of this Company afford unusual inducements of Bafety and Profits to Investors, for the following among other reasons, viz: First. The rate of interests is SIX PER CENT.
IN Gold, payable semi-annually in the City of New York. Second. The PRINCIPAL is payable in Gold at Third. The cost of the Bonds. NINETY-FIVE PER CENT. and accrued interest, is TEN PER CENT. less than that of the cheapest Six per Cent. Gold Bearing Bonds of the Government. Fourth. The United States Government pro-vides nearly half the amount necessary to build the entire road, and looks main-ly to a small per centage on the future traffic for re-payment.

Fifth. Owing to this liberal provision, accompanied with Extensive Grants of Public Lands, by which the Government fosters this great national enterprise, its success is rendered certain, and its financial stability is altogether independent of the contingencies which attend ordinary believed enterprises. Sixth. The Security of its First Mortgage Bonds is therefore ample, and their character for safety and reliability is equalled only by that of the obligations of the Govern-venth. The net earnings of the comp sted portion are already largely in excess of the interest obligations which it company will incur on twice the distance, and are sleadily increasing, rendering the uniforrupted payment of the interestable objects.

th. At the present rate of Gold they pay nearly 8½ PER CENT. per annum, on the amount invested. The Bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000 with semi-annual Gold Coupons attached payable in New York, and are offered for the present at 95 per cent and accrued interest (in currency) from January 1st.
