Poetry.

CHILDREN GONE. Sometimes, when the young play, And the stars begin to glow, I think, with a sudden glow, Of the faces of the children, Of the faces of the children, Of the faces of the children...

THE WIDOWED DAUGHTER. Her hair is brown as the blue-snow, And there's not a word that flows where she And brings a grace to the wrecker's daughter...

Miscellaneous.

Great Salt Lake City. Great Salt Lake City is situated on a gently undulating plain, with a back ground of bold mountains, and from lake and river...

in this view of the case. If woman is desired for any purpose than as a passive instrument in gratifying man's lust, possibly polygamy may be an escape from prostitution...

Mormon President is reported to have returned a very common, but not over-polite answer. Morris, however, continued his operations until Brigham sent against him a brigade of the Mormon militia...

By building up a splendid city in the heart of a country so appalling to the wayfarer of the plains...

A Paper of Tobacco. Constantinople is unquestionably more civilized and wealthy than any of the provinces, which is clearly seen in the interior of the city...

The noteable feature of the Mormon theology is its unity. Without expressly recognizing a deity, they make ample provision for their poor, and furnish means sufficient to enable any one to reach comparative wealth by ordinary prudence and industry...

Great abundance of wheat, barley and other cereals are raised in the valley. The Mormons are taught to be self-sustaining, and hence are essentially an agricultural and pastoral people...

smoking is of great service in diseases of the chest; but I myself am more inclined to believe the contrary, as pulling the pipe into the mouth, and blowing the lungs, the point at which, in the opinion of connoisseurs, this pipe affords the greatest pleasure...

As the Persians in all occasions a careful observer of etiquette, he has numerous courtesies to be observed. The Persians are more sensitive to pipes and winter pipes; pipes for different ranks, ages and sexes...
