FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT Hon. GEURGE SHARSWOOD, of Phila.

County Committee Meeting. e of Lar

The Democratic County Committee of Lan-caster County will meet at the Democratic Club Rooms, in the City of Lancaster, on SAT URDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1897, at 11 o'clock A. M. A full attendance is requested. A. J. STEIN MAN, Chairman.

B. J. MCGRANN, Secretary. The Democratic County Convention.

As the WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER goes to press on Tuesday evening we can not publish the ticket this week, or lay before the readers of our Weekly the proceedings of the Convention. We can however, assure them in advance that a full ticket, composed of sound Democrats, will be nominated. Let all our friends go to work to perfect the organ. ization and to bring out every vote, and all will be well, at least so far as the State is concerned.

THE Radicals charge that the Democratic party is wedded to past issues. Will some of their fellows tell us what new issue they offer for consideration other than that of negro equality?

THE Radicals of the Last Legisla ture eagerly voted themselves and their clerks $300 a piece extra pay, and refused to continue to pay the few surviving veterans of the war of 1812 the meagre pittance of $40 a year. Let the soldiers remember that.

JOE HOLT'S attempt to shield from punishment the Lieutenant who installed a prostitute in a respectable hotel in Mississippi by aid of the soldiers under his command, is of a piece with other acts of which he has been guilty. What a beautiful specimen of the Radical official he is, to be sure.

A Southern paper thinks that, while they have the yellow fever down there we have the black vomit in the North It instances California, Maine and Montana as evidences of the spread of the disease. We imagine there will be something of the same kind the matter with Pennsylvania on the 8th of Octo-

THE Radicals have had a very fierce fight in Erie county over the nomina tion of a State Senator. Lowry was too much for his opponents. The Convention presented a scene of great confusion, and intense bitterness was displayed. The opponents of Lowry swear they will vote for the Democratic candidate.

THE Abcend Zeitung, a rabid German Radical paper of New York, is so discouraged by the political reaction as to assert that "the Radical party, having accomplished everything it was organized for, is now pining away for want of new issues." Let us give the finishing have been accustomed to marshal their stroke to the corrupt concern by rolling up a huge Democratic majority in Pennsylvania on the 5th of October.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE has abandoned the bench and has betaken himself to Ohio. He goes to help on the Radical canvass in that State. Even there the prospect is that there will be a grand political revolution. The only question in Pennsylvania is, will the Democratic vote be fully polled? If it is, our majority will be perfectly overwhelming.

that when the President removed Stanton, the man who almost sacrificed the Union in order to sacrifice McClellan, who refused to exchange prisoners with the rebels lest he should have to trade able bodied Confederates for the suffering Union "skeletons" that thronged the prisons of the South, and who managed to keep the expenses of his department on a war footing in time of peace: and when the President also removed Sheridan and Sickles, who displayed such skill in elevating the negroes and degrading the whites of the South, and aping the pranks of royalty in general as to receive the formal thanks of Congress for their services, that there went up a prolonged and universal howl from the Radical press and demagogues of the country for the impeachment and removal of the man who thus dared to thwart the purposes of imperial Congress. Forney's Press went so far as to number the days that must elapse before Congress could punish the officer who ventured to temper the tyranny it had inflicted on the prostrate South, and it was the opinion of every one that the assembling of Congress would be speedily followed by the removal of the President and the promotion of the Radical President of the Senate to his place. Then came the elections in California and Maine, and the roar of the Radicals subsided into intimations that the more prudent members of Congress were averse to extreme measures, that impeachment might possibly not be insisted upon, and that perhaps Andrew Johnson might be permitted to serve out the remainder of his term. The Radicals are now holding their breath for the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York, and upon the result of those elections will depend the abandonment or prosecution of the scheme of impeachment, which lies next their hearts, but which, with the people of the great central States against them they dare not attempt to execute. The project of impeachment is not yet abandoned, but depends upon the implied sanction or condemnation of the people of the North as it may be expressed in the approaching elections. If the Radicals should carry the Middle States by respectable majorities the clamor for impeachment will be renewed and become irresistible. President Johnson will be deposed for no other offences than fidelity to the Constitution and opposition to the party that elected him, and a precedent will be established that will place Congress above the Constitution, and put all future Presidents under the feet of Congress.

At this juncture the voice of Pennsylvania will be most potential, for it possible, to regulate their own affairs will probably be echoed by New York, according to their own judgment. Forney.

John W. Forney, after bidding the negroes of Washington good-bye with a ear in each hypocritical eye, ate a arewell dinner with nis employees in Philadelphia, and being toasted and lattered to his heart's content, took his departure for Europe. "My two newspapers, both daily," gave a graphic ketch of the wild grief of the negroes at parting with him, and a full report | In the most solemn manner, by public of all the flattering speeches made by the editors, the reporters, the compositors, the pressmen and the newsboys of the Press. It was a very wet season. After puffing a London hotel to the extent of his bill; getting Dan. Dougherty to write a letter from the tomb of Shakespeare, to which the signature J. W. F. was duly appended ; doing Paris up by gaslight through the week and by sunlight on Sunday; betting slightly on rouge et noire at Baden-Baden, and trying to attract some attention at different points from decent people, but utterly failing to do so; Forney, (there is but one of the name,) returned to Philadelphia.

Having looked in on his dull domestic establishment down town, and spent one night in the lively one up town, he hastened to Washington. Having consulted with the Clerk of the House as to the proper margin of plunder to be arranged for stationary contracts during the coming session of Congress, he straightway plunged a stolen pen into a stolen inkstand, and indicted on stolen paper an "Occasional letter." It was fierce, furious and frantically fanatical. He had "heard the news from Maine, good news and true;" but he liked it not. The Democratic thunder peals from California and Montana made him shake like some guilty wretch who sees his doom approaching. The prospect in Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, was not calculated to soothe him. With California two Congressmen and a United States Senator were lost. There were signs of a coming political deluge. He saw and understood them. Hence his raving fury. He uttered his stale curses against the man whose friendship and pecuniary assistance kept him from ruin and utter bankruptcy, fell to abusing Andrew Johnson and Judge Black "without rhyme or reason," and fumed, fretted and ranted through a column of ill-natured bombast and fustian.

The tone of the Philadelphia Pres is a sure indication that Forney regards the contest in Pennsylvania and other Northern States as hopeless. He see and knows that they will speedily repudiate the corrupt and revolutionary party which is ready to ruin the country for the spoils of office. But, with the desperation of a reckless political gam bler, he resolves that the game shall be won by rascality and cheatery, if it can not be fairly. He surveys the ground, and, while there is every evidence his party will be utterly that annihilated, rests his hopes of a continued opportu ...ty to plunder the treasury on the negro vote of the Southern States. He telegraphs exultingly that the whites of that section are in a hopeless minority, and that by their rotes the Senate will be kept unchanged for years.

What a pleasant prospect that is to be ure. How much it is calculated to rejoice the white Republicans of Pennylvania, to be told that they are to be uled by representatives of the negroes of the South for years to come. O course it will inspire them to continue o vote the Radical ticket. Surely they will not revolt. They are a patient set and loyal-oh ! so very loyal !

Hans Geary Makes an Ass of Himself

The Right Method. The Philadelphia Ledger has severa times, in its money articles, condemned the mischievous course of the Republican politicians in this State, who insist upon dragging the public securities into the political avenue. The constant charges made by them that the Democratic party of this State favors repudiation in any form are wholly untrue.

resolutions in our State Conventions, we have recognized the obligation of paying every dollar of the public debt and have called upon Congress to pass all laws necessary to the accomplishment of that end. The Democratic party never violates its pledges. It can safely appeal to history for confirmation of that assertion. It has always opposed repudiation in every shape and form. Since the war began it has made an honorable record for itself on this very question. When a Republican Legislature proposed to repudiaté an express contract to pay the interest on our State debt "in coin," every Demoeratic Senator, and every Democratic member of the Lower House, except one, voted against repudiation. The holders of U.S. bonds in Pennsylvania cannot help but see that their securities rest upon a basis not one whit more firm. The same plea that was used by the Republicans to justify partial¹ re pudiation in the case of the State bonds will apply to all United State securities. No contract to pay "in coin" could be more explicate than the one which the dominant party so boldly and recklessly repudiated. But we only intended to call attention to the sensible views of the Ledger. That paper holds that the Republican politicians are endangering the value of our securities and impairing the credit of the Government, by their sweeping and utterly false charges that the Democratic party favors repudiation. They are familiarizing the minds of the peo ple with the idea, and thus doing great damage. A time may come in the his-tory of this country, and that before long, when in the midst of financial distress the masses may be ready to grasp at anything which promises to bring relief from the heavy pressure of taxation. Then all the energies of the best men of both parties will be required damage. A time may come in the hisest men of both parties will be required to prevent repudiation.

We agree with the Lcdger that this is a question upon which their ought to be no political issue raised, and that the agitation of it in the political arena can only result in harm. The Democratic party of this State stands pledged to the payment of the public debt; and our candidate for Supreme Judge has de-We agree with the Lcdacr that this candidate for Supreme Judge has derided that a contract to pay a debt " in coin " can not be legally discharged by a tender of paper money. The assaults of the Radicals have compelled us to show up their record; and while we admit the impolicy of agitating the juestion, we can not allow the people

o forget that the Republican party of this State did repudiate a portion of the State debt, and that their candidate is said to have favore 1 the repudiation of the Allegheny County Railroad bonds. The right method of dealing with this question of partial or total repudiation would be, as the Lcdgcr sensibly suggests, to avoid making any political issue upon it. In that way it can be effectually killed.

----The Approaching Political Campaign North and West,

Our Cincinnati and Cleveland correspondence, published on Thursday ; our correspondence from Pennsylvania, published a few days ago, as well as that which we are receiving daily from other parts of the North and West, all are now coming together as the great constitutional party. They are disgusted with the disorganizing and revolution ary conduct of the Radicals, and with and /with the infamous attempt to Africanize the republic by creating a negro balance of power. That is the real state of things; and if we mistake not the signs of the times the Radicals will be defeated in the great Central States, as well as in the West, at the coming elections. The moderate and conservative republicans should throw off their destructive leaders and unite with others to form the great constitutional party of the future. -N. Y. Herald.

Antietam and Gettysburg.

The New York World, commenting upon the dedication of the Cemetery at Antietam, clearly shows that both that destructive battle, and the still more bloody one at Gettysburg, were the result of the hatred of Stanton to McClellan, and the selection of utterly incompetent men to fill the position from which he was removed on account of political reasons and mean jealousy .---

The World says :

It was in consequence of setting up General Pope as a rival to General McClel-lan in Virginia, that those great disasters befell our troops under the command of Pope, which enabled the victorious rebels to cross the Potomac in full force, and com-pelled the frightened authorities to reinstate General McClellan in command to save the ational capital. It was by the great victory of Antietam that he broke the strength of General Lee, and compelled him to slink away in the night and recross the Potomac. As soon as the Washington authorities were thus relieved from their terror rolling balance of the McClellan terror, political jealousy of Gen. McClellan revived in all its venom. With the laurels revived in all its venom, With the hurels of a recent victory thick upon his brow, this able commander, the idol and admiration of his soldners, was driven from the army never to return. A succession of terrible reverse, the direct con-sequence of his removal, enabled the rebels to recover more than they had lost in their first invasion, to send consternation through the whole North by its repetition, and to give occasion for the hardly-contesthrough the whole North by its repetition, and to give occasion for the hardly-contes-ted field of Gettysburg, on which more depended than on any other battle of the war. Had General McClellan been proper-iy supported, there would have been no second Ball Ran, and consequently no Antiotam. Had General McClellan been continued in command after his victory at Antiotam, there would have been no Fred-ericksburg, no Chancellorsville, and conseericksburg, no Chancellorsville, and conse

Steacy and Armstrong.

The Examiner does not endorse Messrs. Steacy and Armstrong. On the contrary it speaks of them as follows: In this connection we may add that to the istonishment and regret of all well-wishers of the party, its harmony and success, Messrs, Armstrong and Steacy were ro-nominated. The agency which brought this result about should be known to the this result about should be known to the people. It wassimply the combined power of Thuggery and its special organ, the *In-*quireer, and the temperance organization and its honest organ, the Express. These two secret organizations consolidated their vote and influence, and thus secured the nomination of Armstrong and Steacy over Evans and Summy, the next two highest candidates, by from 132 to 3.2 votes. How this combination was effected we do not profess to know, nor do we care to know; profess to know, nor do we care to know but at the same time it was such an "as-

They did that in the case of Maryland and Kentucky. Why should they not do so in regard to California?

THE Richmond Examiner says, the effect of the admission of the negroes to testify has been to convert all white men into liars and perjurers. Forney made a fortune by the rebellion, and this is his opinion of the men who helped to crush it.

THE Radical leaders of the Republi can party have staked the existence of their organization upon the single issue of negro equality. They forced it upon the people of the South at the point of the bayonet, because they knew that without subjecting the Southern States to negro domination, their rule would be ended as soon as the Union was restored. Having thus made negro equal ity the rule in the Southern States, they must of necessity extend it to every other State. They can not expect to maintain the system in the South if it should be repudiated in the North. Hence the resolve to pass a sweeping Congressional enactment, which Judge Williams is pledged to enforce.

THE Press asks why the Democrate did not nominate soldiers for office during the war? The question is easily answered. Such soldiers as Democrats nominate were in the field during the war, and were not candidates; and as for the parlor soldiers they all went over to the Black Republicans.

Intelligent Colored Voters,

The telegraph informs us that several hundred negroes were turned away from the polls in Richmond, because they had forgotten the names they gave when applying for registration. What a comment on the dangerous folly of admitting the negrous of the South to the ballot-box.
