Homicide in Baltimore.

Some time between three and four o'clock on Tuesday morning, a party of men went out Pennsylvania avenue, near McMechin street, for the purpose of cutting down and carrying sway the halyards of a hickory pole erected near that point by the Democratic Conservatives of the Twentieth ward. The halyards were passed around a rear chimney of the house of J. Waltermyer, opposite which the pole was erected, and to which easy access could be had by climbing from a rear shed. Probably expecting some such attack, two young men named John Waltermyer, alias Bowers, and John Kepler had been on the watch, on the steps of Waltermyer's house. Bowers, however, had gone off a few minutes before to help Homicide in Baltimore. of Waltermyer's house. Bowers, however, had gone off a few minutes before to help load a butcher's wagon preparing for market, and during his absence the party of men came up, and one of them, climbing on the roof, cut the halyards, the ends falling to the street. Another of the crowd then hauled the ropes down, when they went off, carrying the rope with them.— Went on, carrying the lope with tashing Kepler remained on the steps, pretending to be asleep. Bowers, coming back almost immediately afterwards, was told of the immediately afterwards, was told of the occurrence, when he, accompanied by Kepler, followed the party down the avenue, and coming up with them, demanded the return of the halyards; an altercation ensued, during which, it is alleged, Bowers was struck over the head with a billy; Bowers then drew a horse-pistol and fired, he contents, consisting of furty-one buck the contents, consisting of forty-one buck shot, taking effect in the left breast and shoulder of Elisha Brady, killing him almost instantly. NEW FASHION FOR 1808. SHERMAN'S NEW PATENT AS YOU LIKE IT SKIRT

35 N. EIGHTH ST., COR. FILBERT. 35

This is not only a new fashion, but a new article of skirt made on an entirely new principle, so novel and yet so perfect the ladies contend it should be called Perfection.

We would here call particular atten ion to the AS YOU LIKE IT of fexible joint, extending down the front of the skirt; it is so constructed that the springs told inwardly, but not outwardly, and readily yield to the slightest pressure, thus allowing them to collapse so that the skirt occupies the smallest possible space while sitting, riding, or in passing through a cr. wd, and yet the moment the pressure is removed, the skirt resumes its original and beautiful shape.

The novelty and utility of this contrivance need but be seen to be appreciated.

Ask for the AS YOU LIKE IT SKIRT, and take no other.

OUR CORSETS Are so well known for their superior SHAPE, MATERIAL and WORKMANSHIP, that it is perhaps unnecessary for us to speak of them further than to say that we have greatly enlarged our assortment of styles, both of our own make and importation, and can now safely dely competition.

It may well be said that In Mas, Sheeman's Consers, ladies find The laws of Health with Fushion's taste combined: The laws of Heads with Passion's tasted bined; Supporting equally each separate part, They or amp no action of the lungs or heart, And no injurious ligature is p aced to mer the flexure of the natural walst. Their fit is cert in—and what's sure to please, In all positions there is perfect case; The figures of the young they help to form, Alding and not repressing every charm; Irregularities of shape they hild. So that by input can slight defects be spiled, While e'en a figure, which is understood As being 'bad,' may by their nelp seem good; And matrons wearing them a coon will gain, Their early symmetr, they'il long retain.

MARRIAGE GUIDE.

Young's great Physiology work, of every one bis own Doctor—Being a Private Instructor for Married Persons or those about to Marry, both mate and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our sexual System, and the Production or Prevention of Offsprine, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by Win. Young, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with upwards of 100 angravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discusses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still this a book that must be locked up, and not to he about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of Fifty Cents. Address Dr. Win. Ladies, take particular notice. THE REAL VELPAU FEMALE PILLS! WARRANTED FRENCH.

WARRANTED FRENCH.

These Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris, for the relief of temale irregularities, and afterwards for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the originator, in Vopau, is a physician in Paris, of great wealth, and strict conscientious principles, and inse withheld them from general use, leat they should be employed for unlawful purposes.

In overcoming Fernale Obstructions, Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysteries, &c., and will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and, although a powerful remedy, do not contain calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

To married ladies and young girls who have never been regulated, they are peculiarly suited. They slil, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

CAUTION.—Married Ludies should never take them when there is any reason to believe themselves pregnant.

Ladies can procure a box, sealed from the eyes of the curious by encosing one dollar and six postage star to use to M. W. MACOMBER, General Agent for United States and Canadas, at Albany, N. Y. or to any authorized. Agent, Dr. D. MCOR MICK, Agent, Lancaster.
