The Auditor General, Secretary of the Commonwealth and State Trensurer, appointed by the Legislature at its last session to revise and digest the tax laws of the State, have discharged that duty. Their report will be submitted at an early day, and I bespeak for it that careful examination which the importance of the subject deserves.

deserves.

PUBLIC NOTICE TO BE GIVEN OF CERTAIN BILLS.

Your attention is also invited to the acts of May 13, 1857, and April 2, 1840, (Digest, page 43,) requiring public notice to be given of the application for all private acts relating to real estate and for acts of incorporation. The wisdom and justice of these are manifest, and their enforcement cannot be otherwise thun beneficial.

LEGISLATION.

At the last session certain bills were passed in which large numbers of citizens were deeply interested, the responsibility for which, after the adjournment, but few mem-bers could be found willing to assume, or even to admit any knowledge of their pus-sage. It is expected that every legislator should be acquainted with all that is transpiring in the legislative halls. He is not simply chosen to give his support to certain bills which have been called to his individual attention, but to be constantly on the alert to trustrate every act that may have a tendency to jeopardize the public interests. To plend ignorance after a real or imaginary wrong has been done, is to acknowledge a want of attention to the trust reposed by his constituents. One bill, the authoration and knowledge of which has been reposed to the property of the state of the thin and knowledge of which has been genship and knowledge of which has been gen-orally disclaimed, passed both branches of the Assembly, and was sent in due form, with the signatures of the proper officers, for the Executive approval, and in several instances bills were passed and sent for ap-proval in duplicate. All such hasty and careless legislation should be avoided, and the members of the session now about to commence be enabled at its close to give an account of their participation in every act however unimportant. The Legislature, coming as it does, fresh from the ranks of coming as it does, fresh from the ranks c le, should set an example in ec stodian of the public interests, and any unnecessary extravagance or prodigalit nnnecessary extravagance or prodigality in the expenditure of public money is reprehensible. It was a matter of common notoriety at the last session that a number of subordinate officers, in both branches of the Assembly, were appointed, to whom liberal salaries were paid, and who were never seen at their designated posts, and rendered no service to the State. This practice has been emphatically condemned by the press and the people; and will not be continued by any Legislature which meanity acquire a reputation for a faithful performance of reputation for a faithful performance of ity. Your attention is respectfully in-ted to the law on this subject as contained an expense to the State.

STATES FORTHECAPITOLAT WASHINGTON, Accompanying this will be found a circular from numerous members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States relative to an act of Congress, passed July 2d, 1864, inviting "each and all of the States to provide and furnish statues, in mat ble or bronze, not exceeding two in number for each State, of deceased persons who have been citizens thereof, and Illustrious for their heroic renown, or from distinguished civil or military services, such as a case State shall determine to be worthy of this national commemoration." The intenrition is to place the statues, when furnished, in the old hall of the House of Representaritives, in the Capitol of the United States, which is set apart as a hall of national statuary, for that purpose. Other States will doubtless awail themselves of this privilege, and Pennsylvania should not be behind them in thus commemorating the memory them in thus commemorating the memory of her distinguished dead. PARIS EXHIBITION. That Pennsylvania might be officially represented in the "Model American School House," at the "Universal Exposition of all Nations," I caused to be forwarded to the American Commissioner at Paris, in July last, a box containing a large num. ber of books and documents relative to the various departments of the Commonwealth with a request that they be placed in a prominent position, that visitors from distant lands might have opportunity to obtain from their pages a correct idea of the progress and importance of the State. In acknowledging the receipt of this package the Commissioner states that its contents were disposed of as requested. And we are assured that the representation of the extent, characteristics, resources, progress and privileges of our country, as made in the "Farmer's Home," and "Free Common School House," attracted crowds of curious and interested visitors, and would scatter wide and permanently, in distinct form, the doctrines of our Republic, and "result in a rich return to the United States for the outlay, and a higher appreciation, among the people of Europe, of the statutes and institutions of this land of freedom and equality."

POLICE FOR THE MINING DISTRICTS. In conformity to an Act of Assembly "for the better protection of person, property and life in the mining regions of this Commonwealth," approved April 12, 1867, and on the earnest appeal of many citizens I appointed, immediately after that date, a marshal of police and a number of subordinates, to give protection to the inhabiuntil the insurrectionary States shall resume their original practical relation to the Gen-eractiovernment. How, when and through whom this can be best done, is the great question of the pres-ent. ent.

That the views and conceptions of a single That the views and conceptions of a single individual, however high he may be accidently and temporarily exalted, should be allowed to control or determine this question of cannot for a moment be conceded. The constitution provides that the United States shall guarantee to every State in the Union a republican form of government; and, where the will of the people is the acknowledged law of the land, it requires an extraordinary amount of political effrontry to assume that a Chief Executive of the nation, to any degree or under any circumstances, is the United States.

And yet in effect or substance, if not in plain terms, this was assumed shortly after the surrender of Lee and his armed forces, by the President; and he has continued to act on this assumption, even in his late an the surrender of Lee and his armed forces, in by the President; and he has continued to act on this assumption, even in his late annual message, in which, while claiming, in words unknown to our forefathers and our institutions, to be the "lected defender" of the people, he arrogantly calls on Congress to "immediately strike from the statute books" its reconstruction laws.

That Congress "will surrender its plan of reconstruction" to this manifestly despotic demand, cannot be even imagiued or conjectured. That plan, carefully matured as it was, and fully approved when it was a direct issue before the people, is eminently just, wise and patriotic. It insists that men who were loyal in acts during the rebellion, or loyal in their feelings, should alone participate in the immediate government of the "insurrectionary districts." Going beyond the mere surface, it rests ultimately on the important doctrine, that the destinies of the nation can only be safe in the hands of its friends;" of those whose political and moral natures remain sufficients. itical and moral natures remain suffici ontly pure to feel the impulses of patriotism and the obligations of oaths. That policy which antagonizes the Con-That policy which antagonizes the Congressional plan, which has obstructed, and persistently endeavored to defeat it, first ignores all these important considerations. Having done this, it consistently maintains that those who devised the most infamous measures of war, and for years relentlessly perpetrated, in aid of their purposes, theft, plunder, murder, starvation, and assassituation—the very leaders of the rebellion—should be allowed, after their involuntary failure, to possess all the rights and priyl-

In Mr. Keesy's case, the accident occurred so recently, that the time which the By-laws allow the Directors to compensate losses, has not expired, and the company at the present the contract of the company of the present the first of April.

Upon the new Board of Directors, the duty of providing funds for the payment of the present and prospective debts of the Company devolves either by borrowing money or lavying a tax. Irrudence and good policy will probably indicate a resort to the latter expedient.

In addition to the cusualities alided to a number of small fires occurred, occusioning partial losses, which have been paid by the character, and but for timely discount and the Company. The names of the sufferers and the count.
