Misellaneous. An Old Weighbor of Old Thad. Writes

Him a Letter.

Howar Locust Farm, I. I., \ Near Brooklyn, Jan, 30. \ Draw Sir: I suppose you will not recollect me; therefore to aid your memory I will sate some circumstances that cocurred between its shout a third of a century ago. At that time you will remember a town called the Two Tavarns, (which contained should be a support of the two Tavarns, in the Baltimore turnpike; and of your owning one of the tavarns and exchanging it with Robert Criswell, my father, of Franklin county, for a farm in Path Valley, and of my coming (then a mere boy) to your office in Gettyshurg, to effect an exchange of title deeds of the properties. Some years afterwards in rg, to effect an exchange of this deeds , properties. Some years afterwards led on you in Lancaster; now you wi sollect me. You are accused of acknow ging that you are legislating "outside a Constitution," and of saying that it le of the Constitution had got edging that you are registrately the Constitution, and of saying that the rule of the Constitution had gone by, and that the will of the party in power is the supreme law of the land. Is this true? I hope not, for your sake. I have heretofore always endeavored to uphold you, when you and your measures were spoken against. Some have said the reason you were so hard on the rebels was because you were so hard on the rebels was because you were windictive and revengeful, on account of their burning your Caledonia Iron Works during Lee's invasion of Pennsylvania, thereby causing you to lose $50,000. I told them no; that you did not care for the loss of your works, that your only regret was that about two hundred laborers were thrown out of employment on account of it, until you could get them rebuilt again; that you have always been an abolitionist; of it, untilyou could get them rebuilt again; that you have always been an abolitionist; but it seems that this fondness for the colored race has so grown on you of late, that you may be said to be affilted with that new disease called "Nigger on the brain," as you wish to give them rights and favored eited to white men. White emigrants are required to live a certain length of time in the country before voting; but you want to give ignorant blacks the right of suffrage immediately; and you want to make the South such a Paradise for them (in disregard of the interests of the whites) that it will attract some of their race to emigrate from Africa some of their race to emigrate from Africa and the Southern Islands. In that event, I and the Southern Islands. In that event, I suppose you would want to have an agent of the Freedmen's Bureau at the pier to hand each of these Hottentots a ballot as they landed from the vessel.

Why don't you allow them to vote, and sit on juries and hold office in your own State? my native State? Echo answers, why the Pennsylvanians would not allow it, and well you know it.

But if you should succeed in securing the negro vote you cannot elect a Radical President: for you will lose five white votes for every negro one you gain. Even Gen. Grant, your most popular man, cannot be elected as a Radical.

The General should remember that the great hero of not one war only, but of two,

I am only one of thousands that will join Johnson or the constitutional party. I never voted a Democratic ticket in my life; was a Whig the same as you, Mr. Stevens, until the Republican party was organized in 1856; then I Joined it, it was as natural for us Whigs to slide into it as it is for ducks to swip. for us Whigs to show the ducks to swim.
Sogood-bye, Mr. Stevens. I always have great talents, but I think the stevens. So good-bye, Mr. Stevens. I always have admired your great the lents, but I think they are misdirected of late; besides you have got too many black sheep in your itook, and are too anxious to increase their number, to suit me any longer. I join the nounber, to suit me any longer. I join the other flock. Adleu, Adleu.
ROBERT CRISWELL. The Benninghoff Robbery.

off robbery is furnished by the Titusninghoff robbery is furnished by the Titusville Herald, as follows:

"Mr. Alian Pinkerton, the celebrated Chicago detective, has tendered the services of his 'police bureau' for the investigation of the Beaninghoff robbery, upon the condition that Benninghoff shall defray the traveling expenses of the detective whom he will send for that purpose, and his expenses while here. We do not learn that the offer has been accepted. The story published a week ago, concerning the arrest of two men at Memphis, on suspicion, appears to have been entirely correct, notwithstanding its contradiction.
The detective in this instance was Ezra Van Nyce, an omnibus driver at Westfield, and we are reliably informed that a niece of Mr. John Benninghoff has returned with Van Nyce to Memphis, for the purpose of identifying the parties under arrested at Townville by the offleers from Meadville, and taken to that city for examination, upon a charge of being concerned in the robbery, but on arriving there were discharged without examination. One of this party, Mr. M. L. Corry, proposes to bring a suit for damages, as we are informed. It is a singular lact, and one that has excited considerable comment, that while the robbers were engaged in plundering Mr. Benninghoff, one of them addressed various members of the family in German. He called the boxtler by name, and directed ville Herald, as follows:
