The Sinff the Impeachment Articles are Based Upon. The slightest examination of any one of the long string of articles of impeachment, will show on what filmsy pretenses they are based. The tonth rends as follows: Apr. 10. That said Andrew Johnson.

ART, 10. That said Andrew Johnson resident of the United States, on the 220 day of February, in the year of our Lord, 1868, at Washington, in the District of Co-lumbia, in disregard of the Constitution lumbla, in disregard of the Constitution and the laws of Congress duly enacted, as Commander-in-Chief of the Army of the United States, did bring before himself, then and there, William H. Emory, a Major eneral by brevet in the army of States, actually in command of the Depart-ment of Washington, and the military forces thereof, and did then and there, as such Commander-in-Chief, declare to and instruct said Emory, that part of a law of the United States, passed March 2, 1867, entitled an "Act making appropriations for the support of the army for the year orders upon 20 1866 and for the year or the support of the army for the year anding June 30, 1868, and for other pur-boses," especially the second section there-of, which provides, among other things, or, which provides, and insing other timings, that "all orders and instructions relating to military operations issued by the President or Secretary of War shall be issued through the General of the Army, and in case of his inability through the next in rank," was unconstitutional and in contravention of the commission of said Emory, and therefore not binding on him as an officer in the Army of the United States, which said provision of law had been theretofore duly and legally promulgated by general order for the governmont and direction of the Army of the United States, as the said Andrew Johnson then and there well know, with intent thereby to induce said Emory in his official capacity as Commander of the provisions of suid act, and to take and re-ceive, act upon and obey such orders.as he, hat " all orders and instruc matter concerning myself. Surely comment on the above is unneces-sary. No one can read the tenth article of impeachment and then read the testimony on which it is based, without being con-vinced that this whole impeachment busi-ness would be the broadest farce of history were there not danger that a set of Radicai Revolutionists may make a traced wort of ceive, act upon and obey such orders as he he said Andrew Johnson, might make and zive, and which should not be ugh the General of the Army of the United States, according to the Army of the of said act, whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemennor in office. itious designs. Proceedings in Congress. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26, In the United States Senate, yesterday, Mr. Sunner, of Mass., read copies of the inissing despatches of James E. Harvey, re-lative to the occupation of Fort Sumpler, in 1861, and to his appointment as Minister to Portugal. Mr. Chandler, of Mich., presented a telegram from the Governor of that State, urging the Senate "not to faiter in execut-ing the law against the Executive," After some discussion the Senate refused to re-The following is the testimony of General

William H. Emory and Colonel G. W. Wallace, given before the Select Committee of i the House appointed to prepare articles of impeachment against the President, they being the only parties examined in relation the matter on which the tenth article proesses to be founded :

the President, founded on his speeches in his Western tour in 1860. This was rejected -yeas 50, nays 74. After some amend-ments, which do not change the body of the articles, they were adopted, by a party vote. Before their adoption, the Demo-cratic members tried to have read a protest acainst the proceedings in the imposonment none. Q.-Had you any further conversation? A.-No, Sir. That was all that occurred in reference to military operations. O.-He made no reply to your statement as to the change in the affairs of your com-mand? A.-No, Sir. Nothing occurred be-vond that.

Gratic members tried to have read a protest against the proceedings in the impendment matter, but objection was made, Mr. El-dridge then asked that their protest be al-lowed publication in the Congressional Globe. This was also objected to. The managers of the impeachment before the Senate were then elected, those chosen being the nominees of the Republican caucus held on Saturday evening. mand Y A.—No, Sir. Court Proceedings. Tuesday Alternoon—Com'th vs. John G. Gerber. Indicted for adultery. The pros-ecutor, John W. Sneath, testified that on the ovening of the 2d of May, 1867, on re-turning from his work he found the de-fendant and his wife, Mrs. Sneath, having criminal intercourse; and that he stopped Gerber on his attempting to leave the house, when both Gerber and Mrs. Sneath ac-knowledged their guilt. The prosecutor at the time the alleged act of adultery was committed lived in or near Mount Joy. A number of witnesses, some-ten or twelve, were examined on the purt of the Com-monwealth to show that the defendant was in the habit of often visiting Mrs. Snoath during her husband's absence; that an improper intimacy existed be-tween them; and that defendant some-times remained at Sneath's house, until a very late hour at night. The examination RAILBOAD MEETING.—A railroad meet-ing was held at Fawn Grove, in York county, on the 14th inst., the meeting was attended by the most influential and enter-prizing men of the county, The following resolutions were unanimously adopted : Resolved, That we deem it of the utmost importance that a railroad be constructed to give the citizens of the lower end of York county, Pa, and the Northern parts of Balcounty, Pa, and the Northern parts of Bal-timore and Hartford counties, Md., access

Trial of a Fenian-By Cable. LONDON, March 3.-The trial of Nugle, on the charge of complicity in the recent Fonian operations, was resumed at Sligo yesterday. The day was again consumed in the unsuccessful effort to empannel a jury-the great object being to get a mixed jury. Eighteen aliens were subpcena, and these only six replied to the subpcena, and three of them being militiamen, were re-jected. army, which was referred. The same gon themau reported from the Wuys and Means Committee, a bill relieving from tax Boston distillers who export run to Africa, and New York dealers who send alcohol to the Mediterranean coasts. He stated that the committee proposed to exempt all home manufactures except five or six purely of luxury. Without acting on the resolution, the House adjourned. WASHINOTON, March 2. In the United States Sonate on Saturday, the session was occupied in discussing the rules of procedure during the impeachment trial, and sevoral of the rules were acted upon when the Senate adjourned. In the House, the articles of impeach-ment were reported by Mr. Boutwell. They are ten in number, and are founded on the removal of Secretary Stanton, and on testimony of General Emory that the President had declared the haw requiring orders to be transmitted through the Gen-

After further efforts to secure a jury until After further efforts to secure a jury until late in the afternoon, the trial was finally adjourned. Previously, however, the mo-tion of Heron, counsel for the delense, to remove the trial to the Court of the Queen's bench was again imade and argued. The Court under the circumstances granted the motion.

The result of this decision will be to trans-fer the trial to another place, where a mixed jury will probably be obtained with less difficulty.

A Meeting to Sustain the President. BEDFORD, FA., March 3.—A meeting was held here last night and resolutions were adopted condemning impeachment and calling upon the President not to surrender his office into the hands of the Radicri revo-lutionists lionists.
