Harrishure, Feb. 18th, 1883.

Dr. & B. Harrishure, Feb. 18th, 1883.

Dr. & B. Harrishure, G. Gents.—Mr. Abraham Martin, of this country, paid me a visit on the 10th of December 1sst. I observed an ulcer centind his ear, and his eyes also were sore. On questioning him, he told me that he had several ulcers on his legs, and small ones all over his body, and even among the roots of his hair, with shooting pains along the bones. I advised him to write to you, and see Martyou would say of his case, knowing Dr. Hardman. Obe a practising physician of wrote to you and the facts, which you answered by stating, that his disease was Scrofula, or some other constitutional disease, and you advised him to take Mishler's Green Label Bitters. He bought six bottles of Dr. Elimaker, a druggist in Lancaster, and commenced with a table spoonful every three hours, and gradually increased the dose to a small wine-glassful, and then diminished gradually again to the same dose he began with; he said these were your directions. I saw him this morning, hale and hearty—perfectly cared—even his eyes are well which I consider remarkable, as I haye known persons to be afflicted with inflamed eyes all through life. I nowy self been cured of a most torribe in the result of the consider remarkable, as I haye known persons to be afflicted with inflamed eyes all through life. In own years to be not of a most torribe in the party of the proposed, handed me a bottle half full, and asying, "this is what I have left from the six bottles." I took as wallow, and it tassed so unlike the Blitters that I had taken, that I was sure it was not Mishler's Blitters; and he having never taken any other, declared, that he could be question, I concluded to write to you, and ask if you have more than one kind.

Yours, most respectfully.

week; but the rec nt bad weather will block their operations for some time.

A thunder gust of unusual violence visited, as on Monday evening. The lightning was of a remarkably red glare and very close to the earth. A chestnut tree on Horatio Bunting's farm, in Lower Oxford, was struck and splintered.

The snow storm of Friday and Saturday last was the most sovero and extensive that has occurred for many years. The fail of snow would possibly have measured near twenty inches had it not melted during the first four or five hours of the fail. The high wind which provailed during the whole time it snowed, made the storm almost blinding, and blew the snow into drifts as high as the fonce tops, blocking up the roads in such a manner as to render them impassible, and entirely suspending travel for a Work on several sections of the Columbia on the 11th inst. The contractors are compelled by the terms of the contract to finish the work by the 15th of June, which, with what is already built, will complete about six miles of the lower end of the road, forming a connection at the mouth of the Octoaro with the Philadelphia and Baltimore Center of the Control with the Philadelphia and Baltimore Center with the Philadelphia and Baltimore with the Philadelp
