The Really Ride of Metropoliton Life.

The Wickedest Man in New York.

BY OLIVER-DYFR.

the first, and 5 cents for each sunsertion.

SPECIAL NOTICES Discreted in Local Column 15 cents per line. SPECIAL NOTICES proceeding marriages deaths; 10 cents per line for first insu-and 5 cents for every subsequent insertithe coolinates in Europea.

of The chief of the Astor House kitchen receives a salary of more than $4000.

General preparations are making throughout California; for the celebration of the Fourth of July.

The telegraph lines are completed to Fort Union, New Mexico, and will reach Santa Fee next week.

The Helvetia, for Liverpool, took out $700,000, and the New York $150,000 in

The Falmouth Hotel, a new and splendid milding, was formally opened on Monday t Portland, Me.

Five hundred thousand dollars' worth of freworks is manufactured and sold every year by one of the leading pyrotechnics of New York:

In Gloucester, Mass., they have an oyster which weighs 23 pounds! A "dozen raw" of that size would make a hearty meal, unquestionably.

questionary,
General Buchanan, acting under orders from General Grant, has removed Governor Bister and Lichtenant Governor Voorhees of Louisana, appointing Warmouth and Dunn in their places.

At Lenoxville, Canada, the other day, Jofferson Davis met with a serious accident. He was coming down stairs with one of his children in his arms when he fell and in-

Fee next week.

Exchange of the Administrators notices.
Administrators notices.
Assurances notices.
Other "Notices," ten lines, or less, three times.

Boctry.

KATIE LEE AND WILLIE GRAY. Two brown heads with langhing ouris, ked lips shutting over rearis, thare feet white, and wet with dew, Two eyes black and two eyes blue, Little girl and boy were they, katie Lee and Willie Gray.

They were standing where a brook, isonoring like a shepherd's crook, Flashed its silver, and thick ranks or recen willow tringed its banks; Haff in thought end half in play, Katie Lee and Willie Gray.

They and cheeks like cherries r.d; He was taller—most a head; She, it a mrn like wreaths of snow, Hwung a basket to and fro, As also chered, half in play, Chattering to Willie Gray. Chattering to, while said— And there came a dash of red Through the brownness of his cheek-"Boys are strong and girls are went And I'l carry, so I will," Katte's basketup the hill."

Ratio answered with a laugh.

"You shall carry only lish!;"
And then tossing back her curls
"Boys are week as well as girk,"
you think that Katte goesse
Do you think that Katte goesse Men are only boys grown tall: Hearts don't change much, after all: And when, long years from that day, Katle Lee and Willie Gray Stood again beside the brook, Bending like a shepherd's crook,— the bar, in the hope of saving his son, lads of fifteen or sixteen, the trap, if they saving put me on the trap, if they like but do let siem spare like boys. These saving on needed with aggrarian inntrages; there is was saving one example of a murder committed for mere gain saving saving saving the twas at these same assizes, at which three hundred and eighty persons were and beside him sat the Earl of Kinston, whose dark and massive countenance and wild shaggy hair made him as con-spicuous as the Judge himself." The prisoners, careless of the evidence lady lying beside her hadding her child, "as black as a coal," in the narma; a At length conscience grew stronger, and drove away fear. She revealed her serve in confession, and the priest, like a good and honest man, prevailed upon her to give lineant information to Captain Benjard, a Justice of the perior for the county of Tipperary.

and will singey hair minde him so onspicuous as the judge fine his?

The prisoners, careless of the evidence of a mere, "stag" or informer, favige, but die, suspicion to or a mere, "stag" or informer, a suspicion to mained firm and composed. Lacy, "all," the cases being, sonabled a 'tall handsome yoling man, with a good color and a clear adm. spa... it was a dressed with extreme care; his white 'hadd's were locely bound to gettler.' Waish a 'far more harmless man; was a sturry's guide built felled hand, and ather a fiered bolt. The prisoners seemed to entertain littled hand, and the clear to the content was the witness on whose routant was the witness of med, and allacy had been sent for from a distance by Faddy Grace's relative to an other band of sansassism was collected, and they met at the house of a farmer named John Keegol, living near the hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the
hardack on which the Maras were at
work: here they were waited on the hardack on the hardack of the hardack on the clear the clear the
hardack on the clear the clear the
hardack on the clear the clear the relatives to do "the job." The band was formed, and the anhuscade laid; the the second

BY OLIVER DYEE.

He goes by the name of John Allen.

He lives at 100 Water effect, on the keeps a dance house there. He is about 45 years old. He is reputed to be, worth $100,000, more or less, and is known to be worth over $70,000. He has three bothers, who are old years old. brothers who are clergymen—two of them being Presbyterians, and the other a Baptist—and is reported to have once been a minister of the Gosper himself. He is known formerly to have been a school teacher, and is a man of education and fine natural powers; was originally a good man; and is yetc. good lellow? I in many respects. Were it not for his good qualities he never could have attained unto the bad eminence of being the Wickedest Man in New York.

the Wickedest Man in New York:

The best bad is always the worst.

Take him for all in all, our Wickedest Man is a phenomenon. He reads the Bible to his dance-house girls, and his favorite papers are the New York Observer and Independent. He takes them regularly and reads them. We have repeatedly seen them lying on the counter of his bar-room, amid decanters and glasses, along with the daily Heradd and The Sun. We have also seen a dozen copies of the Little. Wanderer's Friend at a time scattered about his place, for he takes an interest in mission mingled in his childen understanding that he will never be able to tell which is accred and which is protane; and his testing dogged and combative he will grow up into it the highest i possible type of, wiegedness, it, he grows, up at all. Of the thousands of painful cases wherewith we liave met in this city, that or little Chester Allen gives us shart the keenest pane.

about the keenest pang.

After the infant phenomena had been sent hack to bed, his father saked our party if we wouldn't mix in and have dance with the girls.

weeks past the limit in the circles of Washington hard been in the qui vive in anticipation of the mariage of Senator John B. Henderson of Missouri, to Miss Mary Foole, daughter of Hon. Elishin Foole, of New York, and hend of the appear beard with Patent Office. Miss Foote for several winters, past has been one of the most builliant belies of the national metropolis, and the announcement of her engagement with the eminetic Senator from Missouri created duties assessed in a found the circ sent back, to bed, his tather saked out party if we wouldn't "mix in" and the fair damped dame with the girls.

"It'll be you good, "weld he, "to trip it a little for the light fantastic. Bet it all the you good, "weld he, "to trip it a little for the light fantastic." Bet it little for the light fantastic. Bet it little for the light fantastic. Bet it light fantastic between the property of the party people, and especially of clergymen. It we would not the lordan through the Holy Land. Go in, gentlemen; the girls shan! the remaining the content of the happy couple for the worker chickens, and you shall leave my premises as writions may be come of the lappy couple for the worker chickens, and you shall the remaining the my premises as writions may be come that it we (that is, our party) would not always the light fantastic." he asked the wife what they would like best. Several of them inmediately responded in favor of "There is Rest for the Weary."

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls.

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls.

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls.

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls.

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls.

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls.

"Yes," answered at least half-a dozen of the girls with a the girls what they would like best. Several with every gardens of exquisite beauty. Immediately opposite the arch way, and at the far end of the parlor, a canopy of white lace end of the girls began to sing—

"In the Christian's home in Glory."

There is all and of rest:

To bon boldware and more than the second of the distinguished persons with the last of the second of

ANATELUOTELE ELLE Meeting of the Legislature High-hand Action of the Radion with Democrats. Roy allowed a Hearing. The City Off-

New Orleans, June 30.—When the Senate met this morning only the names of the pineteen delegates who took the test cath yesterday were called and all answered. After the roll call Mr. Sambola, a Democrat, remarked that his name had not been called, and informed the Chair that he was The Chair replied that there were other gentlemen present whose names had not been called, who had not interrupted the been called, who had not interrupted the business of the Senain.

While the minutes were being read, Mr. Jewell, of new Orleans, rose and demanded that the committention from the Coumanding General, which he knew was in the possession of the Presiding Officer, relative to the dath to be taken by Senators, should be read before any Justiness should be transacted. No attention was paid to this demand.

After some difficulty, order was restored, and the Secretary finished reading the minutes.