to Missouri. [From the Louisville Journal, Jaly 17.] Not long since Mrs. B., residing in one of the interior counties of Missouri, left her home on a visit to some relatives living in Henry county, in this State, bringing with har a favorite dog. On arriving in this city site missed her pet, and search and inquiry failing to elicit angle concerning him, she was compelled to continue her journey with-out him. Fourteen days after the lady had left her home the family were surprised at the reappearance of "Fido," whom they thought worrying the pigs or "baying the moon" in far-off Kentucky. Not less than nine hundred miles had been traversed by his dogship, and when it is remembered that he had been brought bither by rail, and could have had no trail to lead him back to his old quarters; that the broad Ohio and the still broader Mississippi, not to mention hundreds of streams of smaller proportions, lay between him and his pup-pyhood's home, the journey was a remark-able one. The Missouri Democrat, so misnamed, is the leading Republican journal in St. Louis, Such was its unstituted praise of Frank Blair in [1801] (570m the Democrat of Juky 64A, 1801) The lack of General Blair's energetic spirit has been apparent in every attempt at progress made since he left Washington. In the absence of Colonel Blair the Gene-ral (Lyon) lacks a strong right hand. The advoltuces and facility with which he grasp-ed "the State then reeling under second factor influence, and pioned the star with increas-ing, firmiess to the constellation of the Union, will in due time cause grateful re-toliscitos is pring up in the breast of every honest, loyal clizen. Turn which way we will we can find no one who con-tributed more successfully to this great ob-ject than Colonel Blair.

freedom makes progress.—N. Y. Herald. Senator Hendricks at Indiscipolis-Im-posing Reception. INDIANAPOLIS, July 28, 1898. Our distinguished statesman, Senator Hendricks, arrived in this diry direct from Washington at a late hour this evening. His reception was one of the mest imposing political demonstration that has transpired here for years and formally opens the cam-paign of 1868 on the part of the Democrate of Indiana. On his arrival at the Union depot a national salute was field, and Mr. Hendricks was escorted by a large totch-ling to recession, with the usual accompan-iment of music and fireworks, to the Court House square, where he was welcomed by Mr. J. E. McDonald in a hird fur the appro-priate speech, to which Mr. Hendricks re-sponded at length.

Freedom of the Fress in Alabama. The new Alabama Legislature ventures on delicate ground very early. It has just made a law for the punishment of news-paper editors who publish "slanderons" articles, and as the character of the articles is to be determined by the caprice or prej-udice of the functionary before whom com-plaint is made, the law will doubtless prove a convenient tool for crushing out obnox-tous newspapers. What a nigger legisla-tor wants is to put any man in prison who calls him Cuffee. As the right kind of a judge can readily see that such an epithet casis odium equal to any slander, the law will accomplian its purposes. The party of freedom makes progress. -N. X. Herald.
