Alexander 21, Stephens on the Political Crisis. Grant Will Become Dictator if Elected

[Correspondence of the New York Herald.]
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Aug. 29.
Seated on a rocking chair, with the inevitable pipe in his mouth, the floor strewed over with newspapers, suggestive of an editor's room. I found the former Vice President of the Confederacy. Pale, emachated and almost shrivelled, his thin lips twitching nervously, his felt hat on because of neuralgia in the head, one leg thrown over the other, the foot of which was constantly in a nervous motion, but, his dark eyes sparkling brilliantly and his entire features remarkable for an intellectual expression, Mr. Stephens impresses the visitor with a feeling of deference, mingled with pity that such wonderful mental power should be accompanied by so feeble a physical organization. After a few remarks as to his health, which he said was very poor, and was the cause of his present visit to the Springs, I asked for his opinions politically, and received a reply which fully confirmed what I had heard—that he did not intend to make any expression of them nor in any way to meddle with the context.

"Allowing such to be the case," I remarked, "a mere conversation on political topics cannot be construed into a participation in the campaign."

"True," he replied; "but if published in Correspondence of the New York Herald.

topics cannot be construed into a participation in the campaign."

"True," he repiled; "but if published in the Herald that cast might be given to it. I am unwell, however, to-day, and if you call again I may talk with you."

This was a few evenings since, and in accordance with his expressed permission I again presented in yeelf to-day, inding him looking better, decided y more communicative. and exceedingly interesting.

"How do you regard the present condition of the country, Mr. Stephens?" I commenced. nenced.

"As exceedingly deplorable. The last vestiges of constitutional freedom are rap ally disappearing, and we are fast verging into centralization and despotism. Unless some wonderful change takes place, unless the people of the North exorcise that wisdom for which Americans have been so remarkable in the past, though they seem to have lost it latterly, the world shall ere long witness the establishment of an empire on the ruins of this once great republic. The measures inaugurated by the dominant party are the surest indications of coming despotism. They have trampled the Constitution under foot, and have legislated solely to keep themselves in power and to effect the same object. Without a political revolution occurs meantime, the standing that it may be said, 'And the colored troops fought bravely.'" A most horrible and cold blooded murder was perpetrated in Queen Anne's county, Md., early on Friday morning, the particulars of which are thus given in the Centeville Citizen of Saturday:

A man named Reamy Gilmore, an industrious, honest and inoffensive farmer, aged about forty years, residing on a farm belonging to the heirs of the late Judge Chambers, on the road from Church Hill to Chestertown, about four miles from the former and two from the latter place, was found dead at an early hour on Friday morning, and his wife lying in an insensible condition, but still alive, by a negro man and woman who had been engaged by Mr. Gilmore to "save fodder" for him. They immediately gave the alarm to one of Mr. condition, but still alive, by a negro man and woman who had been engaged by Mr. Gilmore to "save fodder" for him. They immediately gave the alarm to one of Mr. Gilmore's neighbors, who made the fact of the murder known to the officers of the law, moned a jury of inquest, and among the witnesses was a negro woman, Murtha Barwick, Mr. Gilmore's cook, who at first denied all knowledge of the murder, but finally confessed that a certain negro man in the neighborhood, who was in the hubit of visiting her, named Michael Bell, and herself, had formed a pet to murder and rob Mr. Gilmore, which plot was intended to be put in execution on Priday night, but from some cause, on Thursday night the time was changed, and the deed perpetrated on Friday morning, between daybreak and sunrise.

she does not know what amount of money, if any, Bell obtained. After completing his search for booty he left the premises, and that was the last she saw of him.

Centre County.—The Democratic county convention, which met on the Slat of August at West Chester, nominated as candidates for Assembly, John King, Esq., Jas. Wilson and E. W. Ross, all good men and true. Twenty-fifth Judicial District.—The Clinton Democrat of September 3d announces, on the authority of a despatch from Bellefonte, the nomination of Chas. A. Mayor, of Lock Haven, as Democratic candidate for Judge in the districts composed of the counties of Centre, Clinton and Clearfield.

It is stated that over fifteen thousand sacks of wheat are on the Mississippi banks, hear Keckuk, waiting for high water for transportation down; and we learn from a Chicago paper that one hundred and fitty cars would not sumply the daily demands of the Burlington and Missouri road. Therefore was such a trade in wheat. It is rushing in like a mighty torrent:

It is supposed that the miscrenuts were alarmed by the approach of the horse of Mr. Appleby and his men, and fled into the adjoining woods, from which they scattered to their homes before morning. The whole country is aroused, and it will be difficult for all the perpetrators of such a diabolical deed to escape. The negro who pretended to have the letter was recognized by Mrs. Grally, the work-woman, as Bill Batson. to have the letter was recognized by Mrs. Grally, the work-woman, as Bill Batson, the recent negro and Radical candidate for the Legislature from that district. He was not to be found the next day, and his wife said that he was going to Millberry to a negro meeting. He is probably secreted either in the woods or in the huts of some of the rest of the gang, but it will be hard for him to escape, as the whole country is aroused. No negroes were found absent from home for five miles around, except Batson, and unless he is caught it will be very difficult to ferret out the murderers, on account of the secret organizations known to exist among them.

Life and property are at the mercy of the

the secret organizations known to exist among them.

Life and property are at the mercy of the blacks in nearly the whole South. They in refuse to work, and being fed by the Freedmen's Bureau, are allowed to live in idleness to perpetrate their flendish outringes. Mr. Stokes, whose plantation is on the Cumberland road, informs us that he finds it almost inpossible to hire help at any price—all the negroes refusing to work, and being supported by the Bureau. Just before the last election nearly two thousand rations were dealt out to the negroes in that district by the bureau agent, and Batson had nearly the whole control of the distribution. The excitement in relation to the murder is intense, and it was with the utmost difficulty that the citizens could be restrained from wreaking vengeance indiscriminately.

Henry Ward Beecher.

This saint nominated General Butler for the Presidency at a dinner party some time ago. He now advocates Gen. Grant very strongly. We give below his letter to the Cleveland Convention. The public can judge whether Mr. Beecher's present politics are of the same character and tenor as the sentiments put forth by him when he acted from the spontaneous prompting of his better nature. We ask particular attention to this noble burst of manly scorn. "I hear with wonder, and shame, and scorn," said Mr. Beecher, "the fear that the South, once more in adjustment with the Federal Government, will rule this nation! The North is rich, never so rich: the South is poor, never before so poor. The population of the North is nearly double that of the South. The industry of the North, in diversity, in forwardness and productiveness, in all the machinery and education required for manufacturing, is half a century in advance of the South. Churches in the North crown every hill, and schools swarm in every neighborhood; while the South has but scattered lights at distances, like lighthouses twinkling along the edge of a continent of darkness. In the presence of such a contrast, how mean and craven is the fear that the South will rule the policy of the land! That it will have an influence, that it will contribute, in time, most important influences or restraints, we are glad to believe. But if it rises at once to the control of the Government, it will be because the North, runed by prosperity, and besotted by grovelling interests, refuses to discharge its share of political duty. In such a case, the South not only will control the Government, but it ought to do it!"

From Boston. Boston, Sep. 8.—After considerable talk, a pugilistic match has been made between Edward Kelly, of Philadelphia, and Geo. Seddons, and it is expected to occur on the 2d oi next month. Articles of agreement have been drawn up and signed by both parties, each agreeing to stake five hundred dollars on the result, fifty of which has been deposited by each in the hands of John Stetson, of this city. The conditions require the deposit by each of 3100 on the 14th inst, and the remainder 3350, six days prior to the fight, when a final stake-holder is to be selected and the ground chosen, which the agreement compels to be outside the limits of Massachusetts.

BUBLINGTON, YT., Sept. 8.—The Vermont State Fair opens at this place to-day. The largest number of entries have been made that have ever been presented the day previous to the Fair. Much of the stock exhibited at the New England Fair has already arrived, and more is expected this morning. The State is more largely represented from all sections than usual. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday spirited races are to take place. The horse, cattle and agricultural department of the exhibition are finely represented, and it promises to be the most successful Fair of the Society. Additional accommodations have already been commenced.

S. H. REYNOLDS.—At the meeting of the conferees of the 25th Judicial District, the delegates from Centre County proposed the name of Samuel H. Reynolds, esq., of this city, for President Judge Should the conference agree upon him as the candidate, we doubt whether he will accept the nomination, having asquired a large practice in this county and formed associations which he would hesitate to break up. In the case of Mr. Reynolds the old saying "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," has not been verefied.

Its ingredients are all balsamic Coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and consumption speedily disappear under its balsamic influence.—Communicated.

ECURIOSITY.—The Chester Valley Union says that Mr. Thomas King, of West Pikeland, Chester county, has a curiosity in the shape of a chicken that has four wings. The extra pair are located on the thighs near the kneejoints. When it runs or attempts to fly, it uses all four of the wings, as naturally as ordinary chickens use two. It is esteemed quite a curiosity in the neighborhood, and a large number of citizens have called to see it.

THE GREAT FEBTILIZER.—In view of the THE GREAT FEBTILIZER.—In view of the fact that farmers will soon begin to make their purchases of fertilizers for the fail seeding, the manufacturers of Whann's Raw Bone Super-Phosphate would respectfully urge its claims upon those who have not yet used it. The sales of this valuable manure have increased in a manuer which proves the high estimation in which it is held. Instead of resorting to indiscrimiheld. Instead of resorting to indiscriminate puffing for the purpose of forcing sales, the proprietors have preferred to let it speak far itself. Once introduced into any locality, its reputation spreads from farm to farm, and causes a largely increased demand. Those who have used it need no reminder of its merits. Testimonials from prominent farmers in all sections of the country pronounced it the best fertilizer in the market. Unlike Peruvian Guano, its continued use does not exhaust the soil, but, on the contrary, it produces lasting effects. Alongside of guano, harnyard manure, and other fertilizers, it excels them all. Worn out lands are made productive by its use

These statements can all be substantiated session of the manufacturers. Whann's Super. Phosphate is warranted pure and/rec from adulteration. It contains all the elements of plant food, and every farmer who desires to secure large crops should use it. Descriptive pamphlets furnished free on application.
