Local Intelligence.

LOCAL SUMMARY.—The Fall term of the State Normal School at Millersville commenced on Monday. A very large number of students are in attendance.

The gunning season will soon be present, and our sportsmen will again have an opportunity of trying their skill among the hills and valleys of our county.

Prof. S. S. Jack, formerly Superintendent of Common Schools in Westmoreland county, has been elected Professor of English Language and Literature in the Keystone Normal School of Kutztown, Berks county.

Pamphlet laws for distribution among Aldermen, Justices of the Peace, and others, who are entitled to receive them gratuitously, have been received at the Prothonotary's Office;

It is stated by those who have been in the country, and had an opportunity of judging, that a plentiful crop of chestnuts and hickory nuts may be expected this Autumn.

Chewing the leaf of the red-stalked plantain, is said to be a certain cure for tobacco chewing. An exchange suggests that the remedy is worse than the disease.

The Reading Times says that the grape crop has been immensely successful in some localities of Berks county, and a splendid display of grapes is anticipated at the County Fair.

A brakesman on a freight train of the Pennsylvania Railroad, named Charles Eidaman, of Harrisburg, was severly injured on Friday at Columbia, by being caught between the cars, while in the act of coupling them.

The Columbia Spy states that on Saturday last a sneak thief stole from Joseph H. Blake's Hotel, in that borough, a pair of boots, cost &c., belonging to the proprietor.

A breach of promise of marriage case was recently tried in Berks county; Maggie R. Loo was the plaintiff, and George D. Raudenbush the defendant. The jury awarded Maggie the sum of $2,000 as a balm for her blighted affections.

Commissioner Rollins has decided that, if a manufacturer permits his cigar-makers to take tobacco to their houses to make into cigars for him, he must also furnish the money to put them up in the manner required by law, at the place where they are made, before being returned to him, as they cannot be returned in bulk.

CATERPILLARS.—A gentlemon residing about eight miles southwest of this city informs us that caterpillars are more numerous in his neighborhood than they were ever known to be before. Apple, pear, cherry, and all other kind of fruit trees, except the peach tree, on which they will not remain, also currant, gooseberry, and even blackberry and all similar bushes, have been stripped of their foliage and are now, in many instances, almost as bare as in mid winter. It is feared that some of these fruit trees have been permanently injured by being stripped of their foliage so early in the season, some of them having been stripped of it for the past two months; and now, after having devoured everything in the orchards agreeable to their taste, these pests are crawling about in search of something to feed upon, and no place into which they can effect an entrance, is secure against their intrusion. They crawl into the kitchen, dining rooms and parlors of the houses; everything is full of caterpillars, thousands of them are swept together and destroyed by the women, and thousands more come crawling along to fill their places. The great numbers of them that have been destroyed seems now, however, to have had some effect, as within the past few days they appear to be less numerous than they were a week ago.
