The Besolutions, Speech of Hon. 1. E. Hiester. The Democratic County Convention as nbled in Fulton Hall at 112 o'clock on tion of candidates. odnesday last. , The attendance was very full and the greatest harmony and enthusiasm prevailed.

The hour appointed having arrived, R. R. Tshudy, Esq., Chairman of the County C. Cra Committee, called the Convention to order City. Committee, called the Convention to true. In a few brief and appropriate remarks. H. M. North, Esq., was chosen President ceived with applause. A. J. Steinman, Esq., withdrew the name of Hon. I. E. of the Convention.

On taking the obait Mr. North said: Gentue of the Convention: I Lis a pleas-ant thing to meet the Demotracy of Lan-caster county in any capacity, and I than, you for the honor done ine in calling me to preside over your convention. You fight laways with energy, though without hopo of roward in the shape of office, because you are devotedly attached to great prince. Set H. Reynolds, Esq., stated that he was authorized to withdraw the name of Wm. Sourcer, Esq. Col. Lightner who nominated Mr. Spen-car insisted upon retaining his name as a take up that cry. may be nothing. I am in favor of another plank of the Remay be holding. I am in favor of another plank of the Re-publican party. I am for equality before the law, not the making of the negro the equal of our race, but the equality of white men among each other. We are also in favor of equality of the States, equality of taxation and one currency for all classes. We favor the speedy payment of the national debt, not by flooling the country with paper, but by semploying the currency we now have, and saving by rigid economy the moneys lavished by the Radicals. That will be done if the Democratic party comes into power. It means what it says and will ful light the promises to the people.
