

Lancaster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 28, 1868.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET FOR PRESIDENT.

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR, JR., OF MISSOURI.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF THE WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER will be mailed on Saturday morning next.

We can win—shall we do so? The Democracy of Pennsylvania has resolved to make one grand and united effort to carry the State for Seymour and Blair, and all the reports which reach us lead us to believe that they will succeed.

We do not believe that a majority of the voters of this State will support the Radical party. The editors of Radical newspapers are well aware of this fact, and consequently we find in them all from the New York Tribune down to the most insignificant papers, the most unflinching and unscrupulous attacks on the Democratic party.

In Lancaster city they reduced the legitimate Democratic majority over one hundred by the most glaring frauds. In the county they added over one hundred to Hartman's majority by voting double tickets, which were counted.

Remember the Radicals exhausted their energies in the preliminary struggle. They did not poll as large a vote on the third day of November as they did at the State Election. We can increase our vote in every county of the State.

Will the Democracy of Lancaster county do their whole duty? We can not doubt they will. They fight for principles, and not for the spoils of office. They advocated their party, because they believe that upon its triumph, depends the restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution, the protection of the rights and liberties of the people.

The time for work is short, but it is sufficient. In the week that remains every necessary arrangement for getting out a full vote can be made. It must be done. Victory or defeat depends upon the effort thus to be put forth.

There were enough Democrats absent from the polls in Pennsylvania to have elected Boyle and Ent. If they had all voted we should have carried the State, in spite of all the money and frauds of the Radicals.

Read the speech of John Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, which we publish elsewhere. It tells the whole story of Reconstruction in a few brief but strong and ringing words.

The Impending Election.

The Democratic and Conservative voters of the country cannot attach too much importance to the approaching Presidential election, for on the result of that election the peace and prosperity of our country and the success or failure of the Democratic party in restoring the Union depend.

The leaders of the party openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force. That they will do this, if Grant is elected, we have no doubt.

They no longer hesitate to declare that the five-twenty bonds must be paid in full in gold, and that in spite of the fact that the most ardent and honest men of their own party have deliberately avowed that, by the express terms of the law creating them, they are payable in the legal tender paper of the country.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The Battle of the Masses Against the Radicals.

Since the State elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, the Radicals have thrown off the mask they wore when they sought out much more bold than they are.

The leaders of the party openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force. That they will do this, if Grant is elected, we have no doubt.

They no longer hesitate to declare that the five-twenty bonds must be paid in full in gold, and that in spite of the fact that the most ardent and honest men of their own party have deliberately avowed that, by the express terms of the law creating them, they are payable in the legal tender paper of the country.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

Corruption in the Radicals.

No one doubts that the Radicals would regard the most desperate expedients to continue their hold upon the State, if they were not so bold as to openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force.

The leaders of the party openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force. That they will do this, if Grant is elected, we have no doubt.

They no longer hesitate to declare that the five-twenty bonds must be paid in full in gold, and that in spite of the fact that the most ardent and honest men of their own party have deliberately avowed that, by the express terms of the law creating them, they are payable in the legal tender paper of the country.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The Telegraph and the Country.

The telegraph and the country are united in the fact that the Radicals are the most desperate expedients to continue their hold upon the State, if they were not so bold as to openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force.

The leaders of the party openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force. That they will do this, if Grant is elected, we have no doubt.

They no longer hesitate to declare that the five-twenty bonds must be paid in full in gold, and that in spite of the fact that the most ardent and honest men of their own party have deliberately avowed that, by the express terms of the law creating them, they are payable in the legal tender paper of the country.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The Legislature and the Source of Corruption.

The Legislature and the source of corruption are united in the fact that the Radicals are the most desperate expedients to continue their hold upon the State, if they were not so bold as to openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force.

The leaders of the party openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force. That they will do this, if Grant is elected, we have no doubt.

They no longer hesitate to declare that the five-twenty bonds must be paid in full in gold, and that in spite of the fact that the most ardent and honest men of their own party have deliberately avowed that, by the express terms of the law creating them, they are payable in the legal tender paper of the country.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The Radicals in Pennsylvania.

The Radicals in Pennsylvania are the most desperate expedients to continue their hold upon the State, if they were not so bold as to openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force.

The leaders of the party openly avow their intention to force negro suffrage and complete political equality upon the States by the use of force. That they will do this, if Grant is elected, we have no doubt.

They no longer hesitate to declare that the five-twenty bonds must be paid in full in gold, and that in spite of the fact that the most ardent and honest men of their own party have deliberately avowed that, by the express terms of the law creating them, they are payable in the legal tender paper of the country.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

The laboring men of this country have a right to demand that the rights of the laboring man for the benefit of the bloated bondholders, who have furnished the vast sums of money by which the recent elections were fraudulently and corruptly controlled.

THE PENNSYLVANIA DEBT RETURNS.

Table with columns for Counties, Amount, and other financial data.

On this basis the average rate of increase of the debt would be over one hundred and fifty millions of dollars.

If to this annual rate of increase we add the rate of six per cent a year, the debt, instead of being paid, would be increased to $1,000,000,000 in ten years.

It is not necessary to say that this increase of the debt is a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

The Radicals admit they can be beaten. They are not confident of electing Grant. They see how close the vote was in the great State of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and know that the amount of money they would have to pay for the interest on the debt, and the extent of the frauds they committed, would be a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

The Radicals admit they can be beaten. They are not confident of electing Grant. They see how close the vote was in the great State of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and know that the amount of money they would have to pay for the interest on the debt, and the extent of the frauds they committed, would be a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

The Radicals admit they can be beaten. They are not confident of electing Grant. They see how close the vote was in the great State of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and know that the amount of money they would have to pay for the interest on the debt, and the extent of the frauds they committed, would be a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

The Radicals admit they can be beaten. They are not confident of electing Grant. They see how close the vote was in the great State of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and know that the amount of money they would have to pay for the interest on the debt, and the extent of the frauds they committed, would be a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

The Radicals admit they can be beaten. They are not confident of electing Grant. They see how close the vote was in the great State of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and know that the amount of money they would have to pay for the interest on the debt, and the extent of the frauds they committed, would be a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

The Radicals admit they can be beaten. They are not confident of electing Grant. They see how close the vote was in the great State of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and know that the amount of money they would have to pay for the interest on the debt, and the extent of the frauds they committed, would be a source of great alarm to the people of this State.

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN OF VICTORY.

OUR CHIEFTAIN ON THE MARCH! Governor Seymour's Address at Buffalo to Twenty Thousand Republicans and Democrats.

Buffalo, October 22, 1868. The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.

The gathering here, through the efforts of the Democratic party, has been the largest since the opening of the year. It is a source of great joy to the people of this State.