The Superintendent asked the sentiment of the Institute on the subject of offering a prize (a bound series of the School Journal) to the teacher who should have the beat average attendance.

Mr. Hill objected that such attendance might be bought, or the city have an unduadvantage.

Mr. Kessler moved that if sufficient funds remain in the treasury, they be used in procuring and supplying the schools with the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule; adopted.

Mr. McCaskev reported from the Colden Rule; adopted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Institute are due the Daily Express and Daily Intelligencer for the publication of reports of our proceedings.

Resolved, That full time should be granted by the district to teachers desirous of attending the sessions of the Institute, and the fact that one half the districts now represented have been granted this time is a matter of encouragement to all friends of education. lucation.

Resolved, That in Lancaster county the length of school terms should, in each district, be not less than eight months in the ear.

Resolved, That we recognize well-conducted District Institutes as valuable aux-haries in the work of general education. Resolved, That Webster's Unabridged Dictionary and Lippincott's Pronouncing Gazetteer should be found in every school-room—placed there at the expense of the district.

LANGASTER COUNTY.—Langaster county

No Wonder so many worthless medicines are advertised for the cure of various diseases, and when tried, "found wanting," that the invalid loses all faith in specifics. We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of Wistar's Baisam of Wild Cherry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

A Surety of the Peace case, in which Christian Sharp, of this city, was defendant, was next heard. The prosecutor, Reuben Killinger, alleged that certain threats had been made by the defendant, (Sharp, against him, which made him atraid that he would do him injury.

A statement was made to the Court by the defendant, Sharp, in which some of the statements made by Killinger, the prosecutor, were denied.
