Booth's Lincoln Abduction Conspiracy

Statements of Arnold and Atserodt. There has just been given for publication with what motive no one need care to inquire—copies of certain statements made by Samuel B. Arnold, now one of the Dry Tortugas prisoners, and Atzerodt, who was executed for alleged complicity in the Lin coln assassination, the former written by Arnold, in Baltimore, on the 18th of April, roe, and the latter by Atzerodt the nigh rious to his execution. Arnold alway dmitted that he had originally been party which design was abandoned; but the de prejudice, in any way, the status of the question of his pardon. The statement

CONFESSION OF BAMUEL B. ARNOLD, MADE ON THE 18TH OF APRIL, 1865.

To Whom it May Concern. Know that I, Samuel B. Arnold, about the latter part of August or first part of September, 1884, was sent for by J. Wilkes Booth, who was a guest at Barnum's Hotel, in the city of Ballimore, Maryland, to call to see him. I had not seen the same J. Wilkes Booth since 1852, when we both were schoolmates at St. Timothy's Hall, President L. Van Bokke Jent their having said Hall as a piace of tuition, His reception of me was warm. Calling for wine and cygars, we conversed a We were interrupted by a knock at the ly of my political feelings or sentiments, be spoke in glowing terms of the Confederacy Richmond, and for his exchange produce the exchange for the President of all the prisoners in the federal hands. He, J. Wilkes Booth, the originator of the scheme, asked if we would enter into it. After painting the chances of success in such glowing colors, we consented, viz: Michael O'Laughlin and myself. We were bound not to divulge it to a living sout. I saw him once more in Baltimore, and then he (J. Wilkes Booth) left to arrange his business up North, first to New York, thence to the oil regions, and from there to Boston, and finally to Canada. He was to be back in a month. I received a letter, which I destroyed stating he was laid in hich I destroyed, stating he was laid up ne was able he would be with us. olled around, and he did not make his ap trunk he had two guns, cap cartridges name he had gone, bought a horse, harnes, and buggy wagon, leaving the team, &c., with us to drive on to Washington. with us to drive on to Washington.

We started from Baltimore about twelve or one o'clock, after having shipped the box containing the knives, handcuffs and pis and he told us of the theatre plan slightly, saying he would wait till we put the horse away, and tell us more fally. He had previously, as I now remember, spoken of the chances at the theatre if we could not succeed in the other plan at the Suddiers! Home. We went to the theatre that night, he J. This, it I remember aright, was on a Friday, or may be a Thursday night, when I said, "Gentlemen, if this is not accomplished this week, I forever withdraw from it." I spoke angrily the night of meeting; said I had been drink ing. I told him no: I was in my sober senses, and meant every word I said; if not complished this week I withdraw. Next Monday or Tuesday I returned to Baltimore, and thence to Hoschstown. J. Wilkes Booth in the mentium went to New York, and returned to Baltimora during the week on Saturday, I think. He said he wished to see me on very urgent business, and my father sent fig me. I came from the country and he had gone to Washington, whereupon I wrote him the letter which was found in his trunk. The Richmond authorities, as far as I know, knew nothing of the conspracy. The letter wis written after my return to this country, after finding he could not wait to see me in Baltimore.

During the week I came to the city and met Michael O' Laughlin, who asked me to go to Washington with him to finally arrange his affairs. I went in the morning—Friday, I think—and returned same evening home, having out loose forever from it. Next day I received a letter from J. W. Wharton, at Fortress Monroe, giving meemployment. Went to the country, got my ciothing, and on Saturday, the list day of April, left Baltimore for Fortress Monroe, at which place I have remained, never corresponding with Booth or seeing him from the above named date to the present writing. Confession of Aizerodt Relative to the Assassination of President Lincoln.

I had not seen John Surratt for about eight days before the murder. Booth told me a few days before the murder that he was in Washington. Kate Thompson, daise Brown, came from Richmond with John Surratt about the time that Richmond fell. He had come previously with Gustavus Howell, now in the Old Capitol Prison. Kate Thompson stopped at Mrs. Surratt's, and also at the National and Rinnel Hotels. This woman was about 21 years of age, spruce and neat, medium size, black eyes, and fair complexion. She had a sister in New York, who, it was said was a widow. Surratt was made known to her in New York, who, it was said was a widow. Surratt was made known to her in New York, who, it was said was a widow. Surratt was made known to her in New York, who, it was said was a widow. Surratt was made known to her in New York by a signal conveyed by a small switch with a waxed end and a piece of red ribbon on the butt, handled horizontally through the fingers. This sign was given on a hotel pavement on Broadway. He went with her South, and hired a horse at Howard's stables for the purpose.

Hurold came to the Kirk wood House and left the knife, pistol and coat, on the evening of the murder, about half past six o'clock, as I was about 1-aving, I having to did the clerk to tell whoever might call that I was gone out. It was then about 8 o'clock, and saw Booth, Wood and Payne in Wood's room. Here the proposed murder was first mentioned. I refused to take part in it, when Booth said, "Then we will do it, but what will become of you? you had better come along and get your horse." I left early next morning and passed through Georgetown on my way to Montgomery county. No one left the hotel with me. I saw Mike O'Laughlin about a week before the President was killed. I never wanted O'Laughlin and Arnold's aid; met O'Laughlin once or twice at Suthard's and a few times in the street. I was not at the Kirkwood House after 2 o'clock. I have no recollection being there after that. I had nothing to say at any of the meetings. One of the attempts was at the theatre; the gas was to be put out, &c. Nodiscussion was had about failure, and what to do in that case. The coil of rope at Lloyd's was to stretch across the road to trip the cavulry. I know nothing about Spangler's rope; I believe him innocent. Booth told me'an actor was to be the best assistant in the theatre to turn off the gas. Arnold and O'Laughlin were to grab the rowships of Montgomery county, when applied to for money, he would go to New Hanover townships.

"Who will Save the Bepublican Party." This inquiry of the Evening Post stands as the heading of an article denouncing the dishonesty, extravagance and wrong headedness with which public affairs have been managed by the party in power. The denunciation is most richly deserved; but when a party stands in need of salvation from moral rottenness, its days are numbered. That party must be overthrown as the only means of saving the country. The following paragraphs from the Post's article are very instructive reading; not that they contain anything new, but because they show that a portion of the truth of the charges made against it by Democrats.
