It is reserved to the States, or the people. It is a part of the States constitution, and in that respect the provisions thereof are the supreme law. Being neither an enumerated, a concurrent, nor a doubful power under the Federai Constitution, its control manifestly is in the State or the people. This amendment would be fulle if the subject of it were not beyond the pale of Federal authority. No one will argue that its control is in the State legis-lature, if the provisions of the Federai Con-stitution on the subject of amendment are not to be considered, but we have already seen that it is in on manner controlled by Federal authority. If it is, then the State constitution, the supreme law upon this subject, is made inferior to the power of the State legislature, and they may by amendment override it. No such violation of the rights of the people was ever contem-plated by the framers of our constitutions, but the plain and clear interpretation of the whole subject is, that this right is one that belongs to the people and can only be af facted or controlled by the framers.
