WHO ROBS THE TAXPAYERS,-The Ex-WIO ROBS THE TAXPATERS.—The Express comes up manfully to the work of defending Alderman Wiley and Constable Baker, in their raids upon the County Treasury; but do not attempt to deny the allegations made in our local article or Wednesday evening. But these two officials of the Second Ward are "loyal" and go their death for the nigger—and that is a virtue in the eyes of our neighbor which covers a multitude of transgressions. The Express does not deny that in the short

A MAXMOTH TREE,—ART. William Gungle, of Ephrata township, recently cut a popular tree which measured five feet across the stump. The length of the tree was 150 feet, and the body of the tree made 5 saw logs, each 12 feet long. These logs were taken to J. R. Messner & Co's, saw mill, aken to J. R. Messner & Co's, saw mill, (formerly called the Seven Day Baptist Mill,) where they were sawed into 3,075 feet of lumber. The large limbs of the tree when cut up made between 5 and 6 cords of wood. This is hard to beat; and Ephrata township is for the present ahead in the
