General Stoneman, late commander of the first military district, alias Virgina, made a report to the Adjutant-General, at Washington, on the 31st ultimo, giving an official statement of his administration, expecially inconnection with the measures for replacing those dvil officers who were disqualified, by persons who could take the test oath of office prescribed by act of Congress July 2, 1862. After reciting the means which had been used under his direction by the agency of the military commissioners throughout the State, and by a board of officers of high rank, which was organized on January 25, to pass upon all applications. officers of high rank, which was organized on January 25, to pass upon all applications, with a view of filling the offices in the State of Virginia made vacant by joint resolution of Congress, passed February 8, 1869, he gives the following as the results, as shown by the records:

Number of offices in the State, 5,446; number filled by General Stoneman, 1,972; number filled by General Stoneman, 1,972; number of vacancies yet to be filled, 2,613.

Gen. Stoneman adds:

"How many of those recently appointed will not accept, cannot qualify or will be unable to furnish the requisite bonds remains to be seen, and this number should be added to the vacancies yet to be filled. In accounting for the very small number of persons in the State who can take the test-oath of office it must be taken into consid-
