Nordo we believe that he will conside that a very disagreeable duty has been imposed upon him, but rather that he is called from a comparatively inert and aseless life to fill a highly honorable position of great responsibility, wherein he will get his part on a stage of life prominent to the gazy of the whole sountry, "We believe that Conoral Hancock will accept our nomination and the State Convention believing so will surely confer it apon him and he will just as surely by elected.

----The County Convention.

The Democratic County Convention was much faller than we expected to see it at this very busy season of the year. Nearly every district was reprecented, and it was thus clearly man fested that the Democsacy of Lancaste county are alize to the importance of th pending gulernatorial campaign. The resolution which was passed favoring the nomination of G.n. Hancock expressed the admiration of our people for that gallant and gifted soldler. Should he not peremptority decline we have doubt he will be nominated at the State Convention by acclamation. He could not accept the Governorship of his native State, however, except at a great sacrifice. The high position which he holds in the regular army, and which he won by the most brilliant exploits upon mucy a hard fought field, affords him a handsome life competency; and it could hardly be expected that he would resign it for the sake of being made Gov ernor of Penn-ylvania for a brief period. Should General Hancock peremtorily decline, the contest will be not rowed down to General George W. Cass and Hon, Ast. Packer, In that event the Luncaster county delegation stands countly divided between them. They are both men of distinguished ability, and of the highest honor and the most un poded enegrity. With either of them as a car didate the Demwratic porty will go into the contest onfilent of victory.

of Stanton and his associates.

It was denied that Mr. Toney wa 🕿 removed from office because he married Annie Surratt, but an examination proves the truth of the charge. That was one of the meanest acts of petty spite of which Grant has yet been guilty, and he has given evidence of wonderful littleness of soul in more

NEW YORK, July 4.—James Wandell, of Reading, Pennsylvania, and Peter Maley, of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, fought a prize ight for $250 a side, this morning, near Spruce Run, New Jersey. The contest lasted one hour and forty minutes, during which time thirty-two rounds were fought. In the last round Wandell's arm was broken in two places and Maley declared the contributors to the Gift Enterprise to short terms in the Navy Department. A most distressing and horrible accident happened at the residence of Mr. Jesse II. Simpers, near Union Meeting House, Cecil county, on Saturday week. Kitchum, the Forger. There was quite a sensation in the Su-preme Coart this morning, when Edward B. Ketchum, the quondam banker and broker, and now convict at Sing Sing, was brough into court direct from prison on a writ of habcas corpus granted by Judge Bernard at his tin wedding, last evening.— Mr. Bartlett, a country lawyer, urged in behalf of the prisoner that the indiciment upon which he was convicted, wrongly charged him with uttering forged papers— that the crime of which he was guilty was not clearly set forth. The District Attorney strongly urged against discharging Ketch-um, and saw that if the Court should dis-charge him, it would be the first instance in the annals of the State where a convict would be discharged upon such a proceed-

Judge Bernard reserved his docision, Jut it is believed that young Ketchem will be discharged before the end of the week, public feeling having turned greatly in his invor, since he has served out three of the four years of his term.—N.
