tions in their midst.

The denominational character of a college, then, does not detract in the least from its local insignificance, from its claims on the favor and support of the community in the midst of which it stands. On the contrary, it should be felt to heighten these claims; since in no other form, certainly, could the interest as local be made to carry with it anything like the same amount of works.

So in the case before us. Franklin and Marshall College is not, because it belongs to the German Reformed Church, one whit the less for that reason a great local interest belonging to Lancaster city and county. This in truth only intensifies its significance for both. For what hope could we have of building up a respectable college among us, were it not for the denomina tional interest thus thrown in our way?

If Laucaster is to have a thriving college at all it must be under the care of some religious denomination. This being so, it may be questioned if any relation of this sort could well be in a form less hampering (in the bad sectarian sense) than we have Honest John and Mr. Geo, Heiss' brown horse Teaser.

In both heats Honest John proved to be the teaser and did not seem to know the word break, whilst Teaser, who could go a swinging rait when on a square pace, could not be kept down. It was evident, however, that Honest John was being kept in and during the greater part of both heats, for when, in the second helf mile of the second heat, the driver was called on to let him go, John's feet fairly parted company, his front legs seeming to reach for the middle of next week and in this heat he more than distanced his competitor. ed thereon. WAGON UPSET.—We learn from the Mt Joy Herald that Mrs. John Stauffer, of Mt. Joy township, her sister Mrs. Gibbs and son, and Missa Fondersmith, of Lancaster, met with an accident on Thursday afternoon that might have resulted much more seri-ously than it did. They were driving up ously than it did. They were driving up the turnplie above Springville in a one-horse wagon; the horse getting on one side of the road, one of the ladies in attempting to draw him back fell out and in doing so caught the line and drew the horse around, upsetting the wagon and injuring all the ladies more or less. Fortunately the horse did not run, or the consequences would have been terrible.

Installed.—The following Chiefs of Eeshah-ko-nee Tribe, No 22, I. O. R. M., were duly installed at their less meeting to serve for the ensuing six months:

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.—The Oxford Press states that as Hardin Smedley, of Fulton township, Lancaster county, accompanied by his wite and her sister, Mrs. John Y. McCarter, and child, of Upper Oxford township, Chester county, was driving a pair of mules on the road near Oak Hill, on the 27th ult. they met with a severe as cident. While descending a hill, one of the bolts which secured the tongue of the wagon broke, and the mules commenced to run, and Mr. Smedley jumped out and attempted to stop them, but fell down and was run over by the wheels. He held on to the ladies were violently thrown out. Mrs. Smedley's face struck the ground and was severely bruised, and one of her eyes badly injured. Mrs McCarter was injured in the back and breast, but her child luckily escaped. Mr. Smedley was considerably scratched and bruised, but with the assistance of some of the neighbors was enabled to drive home.

Charged with Assault,—John Hartman and Jeremiah Dunkle had a hearing before Alderman Anuweg, on Saturday, on a charge of assault and battery on a boy named George Ochs, son of Joseph Ochs, It seems that the boy, in company with several others, had climbed into an empty hay-wagon, driven by defendants, to have a ride. They were ordered off while the team was in motion; and it is charged that while Ochs was hanging to the wagon in the act of getting off, his hands were forcibly loosened by Hartman, causing him to fall under the wheels, which passed over his legs, seriously injuring him. The case was postponed for a further hearing.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS SCHOOLS.—Another year of School duties is about to close, and the regular annual summer vacation to cocur—commencing this year on Friday, July 23d, 1869, and terminating on Thursday, September 2d, 1869. The annual stratement of the school and home in this county, will take place as follows:

Manheim Items.—From the Scattinel:

Monday last was generally observed as the national holiday in this section of country. In this Borough the Church bells were rung morning, noon and evening, and "Young America" indulged in firing off crackers, squibs, &c., at intervals during the day.

Our farmers are now in the midst of here.

Our farmers are now in the midst of harvest, and a few more days of fine weather will see them through with it. The crop is the finest and heaviest that has been guttered for a number of years.

The cats, corn and potato crops also look very fine, and the indications are that there will be a bountiful supply.
