

sympathy than judgment, had com-menced an action to contest the will made under the circumstances just re-Miscellancous.

A Case with a Lady In It.

A Case with a Lady in it. I had just taken possession of the worst room in Diggs' tavern-I was a young lawyer on my first circuit, and Diggs kept his best accommodations for thejoid stagers—when the words, "I says thejoid stagers—when the words, "I says thejoid stagers with a table burst upon oning it. me at the same instant. Tom and I had been cronies from the time we had committed our first juvenile trespass on Deacon Roxley's watermellon patch, till weafterwards studie the action of that name together in ge Thompson's office. I say, Bill, I've got a case and want ar assistance in it." 'Ah!" said I, in a consulting tone. 'A will case " he continued, "full of "What disc," he contract, not the pret-tiest woman in the world for a client?" "What about fees?" I inquired, by way of keeping up professional appearances. "Hear the mercenary wretch!" he ex-ilalmed. "If we succeed, there'll be claimed. "If we succeed, there'll be plenty of money; if we don't, it will be a noble cause to fail in." (I) the avidance varied between the trial began.

be a noble cause to fail in." "That's what they said of the dish-ing young chap that broke hisneck try-hysician was very decided in his opin that already detailed. The attending physician was very decided in his opin ing the paper in question, was in the his neek.'

Confound your mythology; business is business. Let me state the case." "Well, state away."

His wife, the partner of the carness, and severest portion of his struggles, had died many years before, and his daughter had become mistress of his house while yet a child. As better the seven point of the seven point $A_{\rm s}$ bette increased in years her father

As Eille increased in years, her father prospered; and when at length he found himself the possessor of wealth, the ambition, so common under such cir-cumstances, of elevating his daughter subscribed in the presence of each other.

to a station in life above that in which she had been reared became a ruling he had been reared because a running authorners, when the yauge the splendid education; and like other not the law, but a recent statute has changed gover good judges of the article, he was it. The witnesses need not now sign in governed in his choice more by the each other's presence." A hasty examination proved His quality of the texture.

At the end of the usual period, Effic was sent home "finished "—that is, in every respect in which she could be, totally spoiled. In one thing only she remained the same—hir love for her father had delied even the power of (hashionable education. A better was same and how of total totals and total and total was sent home " fluished "—that is, in fashionable education. A house was purchased in town, of which Elle was male the mistress, and the rules of the court would allow. And, at which Mr. Beldon, a young gentle-man of city antecedents, and far too nlee to have anything so vulgar as a rightle author is compared and man of city antecedents, and lar too nlee to have anything so vulgar as a visible calling, became a frequent and not unwelcome visitor. He had just brains enough to think of providing for the future by a scheme of which Miss Andrewic and the exclamation of the court, I of the second secon ountered, How to conciliate the rough old backwoodsman-there was the rub. He had permitted his daughter to amuse herself with the young dandy, much as herself with the young dandy, much as he would have allowed her to play with a monkey or poole. But cauld he have brought himself to tolerate the idea of her marrying any body, yet awhile-for the possibility of such a remote future the possibility of such a remote future contingency may have occasionally suggested itself-florace Beldon was about the last person on earth, in con-nection with whom if would have been sland at once.

coat.

Under A Cloud. A Mercantile Sketch And this was the case in which he BY SYLVANUS COBE, JR. The following simple narrative, transcribed from the letter of a friend, may afford a lesson to those who are inclined to judge hastly from suspicious appearances. The circumstances transpired Ours was the first case on in the in a city not very far from Boston, and many of our readers will recognize the morning. Arrayed against us were three many of our readers will recognize the of the oldest and ablest practioners of the clust Jackson had plenty of under the cover of assumed names. Mr. Richards, of the firm of Richards, father firm of Richards, Randolbh & Co., was returning homeputting up" a case. I felt a little nervous. It was my first case of any importance. I too, as well as John Andrews' will, was about to be placed on trial. My courage revived a little when our client came in, escorted by Tom, who introduced me as his associate, and

"Well, state away." This was it: John Audrews had settled in the country when it was young. He had grown with its growth, and was the proprietor of half a dozen farms, and "one fair daughter, the which he loved His wife, the partner of the carliest and saves to a searching cross-examina-tion: but he stood first like a salaman-der fly. He swore that the testator had not only dictated every line of the will,

For physician was very decided in his opin in the interview of the testator, at the time opin.
 For physician was very decided in his opin in the interview interview of the testator, was in the interview interview.
 For signature of the absent witness was worn to by Mr. Backson lines with a decrease with the batter of the absent witness was worn to by Mr. Backson lines with a phile way. The following morning Mr. Rich-rise interview with the following morning Mr. Rich-rise interview in after all, who could tell? The jury might take the bit in their mouth, and

And they concluded that they would the future by a scheme of which Miss Andrews, and her appartenances, con-stituted the central feature. Accord-and lattered, till Effic's foolish little heart relented. But one difficulty remained to be en-connered. How to conclinate therough when somebody plucked me by It was Tom, his eves fairly gleaming and his whole frame in a tremor of ex citement. "What's the matter?" I whispered "MacPherson's here." "What! the other witness?"

' Yes, just arrivéd, not an hour ago' ' But will it help us to call him? 'Trust me for that. Put him on the "What shall I ask him " entertained. When that goeth coan, therefore, re-ported at h mappingers, and implored the second second construction and the second se vate desk the Cash Book and the Order and Delivery Book, of the shipping clerk. This latter clerk was Frank Richards, son of the senior partner, who was then away on a week's vacation; and upon examination they found sev-eral important alterations, in entries and footings, made by Clarkson's hand, A more critical investigation revealed the fact that these same alterations—or ing: But, while they were discussing ing: But, while they were discussing is dut were the same time, and the same time, care must be taken not to let the wild cot escape, which event is very likely to happen in the hands of a clumsy train-ing is dut a very there fell in my way escape, which event is very likely to happen in the hands of a clumsy train-ing is dut a very the poly of the stattion under an as-the fact that these same alterations. It is duter at the doers of Lichenwold. It is mistres received me graciously. It called myself to her. Honora Pomfert tery with which he was bent on taking everybody by surprise, including my In a few words I explained to the In a new words I explained to the court our reasons for wishing to reopen the testimony. Jackson turned pale, and whispered nervously to his cour-sel, but they shook their head; our ap-plication was one that would be grant-ul of course. kept by Clarkson. This was astonish-ing! But, while they were discussing this matter a gentleman came in with a dred dollars. Mr. Randolph was sure the bill had been paid. At all events ed, of course. "Call your witness," said the Judge. "Donald MacPherson" shouted Tom. The witness, a brawny, honest faced cot, and advanced to the stand, and the bill had been paid. At all events, their bookkeeper had rendered such an item. A reference to Clarkson's cash account settled the matter. The item had been entered as paid. But the gen-

"Certainly, sir. Since things have and herself. It had all been artfully din" performs on the tight rope; the come to this pass, he cannot blame me." contrived to get me to Lichenwold and So Frank Richards was called, and win my heart, whose love Mrs. Ramsay questions through the medium of a re-the books were laid open before him, craved with a longing that would not a dever trick) swings backward and be denied.

and the business explained. "Mercy!" he cried. "And have you been suspecting Mr. Clarkson of wrong in this matter?" "What should we think?" returned his father. Frank gave a great gulp, as though swallowing a bitter draught, and then said: "I suppose the truth must out. You know, father, that I have always told by ou I was not cut out for an accountant; but gub was had and tho the were were and the cut wa and the business explained. "Mercy!" he cried. "And have you be denied. Thus I learned that my grandmother in the world who knows more about sary to get the old gentleman's permis-fleas and their habits than he does, and sion, so, as Smith said, the arrangements al to have bled you more freely while 4 blackleg bad upon our book Keeper." he had you in my clutches!" Messrs. Richards, Randolph & Co as "Ah!" groaned Richards, "how many have fallen into that terrible pit! to It is dreadful!" It is dreadful!" Mr. Saunders, the junior member, brow that Clarkson always finished his to be to fine superading weak Courses.

and a new unit you more treey will be larged in more treey will be larged in more the larged in the person of the sector of the s

The Legacy Hunters. It was Abigail Varley's threescore-and-tenth birthday. She was a rich widow, childless, and with no known Randolph & Co., was returning home-ward, late at night, from a meeting of butyou have declared that only through that is head out how returned to how very reased at the which he was obliged to pass, he was surprised by the gleaming of this them straight for me. It has through the could be in the r through the could be in the seened that out to you, on his reserved the found a crack through which the found a crack through which the found a crack through which the firm, named George Clarkson. the firm name I must not forget to mention the supplant each other in her will, which 'supplant each other is her will, which 'supplant each other each o ror of fleas.

-competitive examinations may have something to do with this remarkable fact—and they are much better perform-ers, than the fleas of ten years ago. I cordially recommend my friends and all interested in seeing what an ingenious and persevering young English-man can do in training such minute insects as fleas, to patronize Mr. Kitchinsects as fleas, to patronize Mr. Kitch-ingman and his learned specimens of Pulex irritans

FRANK BUCKLAND.

How Smith Asked the Old Man. Smith had just asked Mr. Thompson's daughter if she would give him a lift out of bachelordom, and she had said I es. It therefore became absolutely neces he can tell their history with a great deal of quaint fun. I entered the room when it was blow-Smith said he'd rather pop the intering and raining hard, and very cold; I rogatory to all of old Thompson's found Kitchingman warming his fleas. There was a bright fire burning, a bit cousins, and his sisters, and his laty cousins, and his sisters, and his laty cousins, and his sisters, and his female On one side of the wood were the car-rigress whise at a drawn by the fleas. In the value of the set of the se moned to attend the reading of Abigail whole of this, we are told (and honestly), without any design at all to pro-judice the old idea of a liberal college edu-cation. "The Treatees of the College," It is said, "aro deeply impressed with the thought, that our present collegiate system has grown up under the fostering care of the Church, and that the relations of our Varley's will. Poor Tabby, as if seeking consolation in her bereavement, leaped upon the knee of her old friend Dick, who stroked her back pathetically, but a little ner-vously. Pompey, who took things more Varley's will yously. Follipey, wheteok things have philosophically, stretched himself out of college studies to manly culture and for a snooze at the feet of Roger. Mr. Parker, drawing from his pocket the document, proceeded to read it. The introduction was long and formal. But, hark! there's something coming now old approved methods of instruction

"To my cousin, Richard Figgins—" Richard looked at Roger with the tri-umph of a prize-fighter who has drawn first blood,
 — "I give and bequeath—"
 You could have heard both their hearts beat.
 — "In consideration of the natural love and affection which I have long observed between them—" Dick looked puzzled,
 — "With of the sudded in the spirit by which they new discret."

One must respect the spirit by which they are dictated. How they may stand the test of experiment is another question. Why now are these high examples of the

My favorite cat Tabby -" My favorite cat 1000y--Dick gave Tabby a furious stroke the wrong way. --" And no more of my estate."

With a fling that betokened a most emphatic renunciation of the legacy, Tabby was sent mewing and spitting to the farthest corner of the room. "To my cousin, Roger Smith-" sinly poodle, though dogs were his abomination, and he had a perfect hor-

It was Roger's turn to triumph. —"In consideration of the like nat-ural love and affection—" "Well.cousin Abigail, I hope your Roger began to feel suspicious. health continues good," said cousin Roger, patting Pompey's head and Koger began to feel suspicious. —"I give and bequeath my dey Pom-pcy, and no more of my estate." With a violent kick Pompey was sent spinning after the cat, and the fear of her who had so long kept the peace between them being no longer before there one the neutrum empily of years glancing suspiciously at cousin Dick, whom he devoutly wished at Jericho.

"Not so good latterly as it has been. The fact is," the old lady continued, "I have been thinking seriously of sending for Mr. Parker, with a view to settling my worldly affairs without delay." their eyes, the pent up enmity of years found vent in an uproarious fight, in the noise of which the voice of the old 'Oh! there is no need of haste, couslawyer was almost drowned; but the words, "rest and residue of my estate— niece, Hester Haywood," were sullciently audible, and cousins Dick and Roger staid to hear no more.

Franklin and Marshall College. THE PRESIDENT OF THE INSTITUTION.

ARTICLE VI. I have said that there is no necessary an agonism between the idea of the College such that of the Professional or Busi School. Their spheres are different; there is no reason why they should vork harmoniously, in the general cluss education. It must be confessed, however, that the

C. L. Pershing. PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—Last ovening at 10 o'clock, Hon, Asa Packer, and Cyrus L. Pershing, Democratic candidates, werd screnaded at the Merchants' Hotel, by the Asa Packer Association. After the band had performed a number of arrs, Farman Sheppard, Esq., came forward on the bal-cuty and said: Exhore this any. The Asy Packer Asso. ceny and said: Fellow Clizans-The Asa Packer Asso-ciation has called this evening for the pur-pese of paying their respects to our candi-date for the Executive Chair of the Commonwealth, and of the Supreme Bench of the State. In doing this the association has expressed not only the feelings of the heads of its members, but also the feelings of the he entrance of a young man and beau-iful girl, at whom cousin Dick stared if a surprised and troubled look. "Pardon me, madam," she said in a oice remarkably sweet and gentic, not knowing you were engaged. I came o see if you wished me, as usual, to read o you to day." Mrs. Varley an-

New Education brought here into view Not to condemn them by any means. It is well that they have it in their

t It is well that they have it in their power (with similar strongly endowed institutions in other States) to carry for-ward the experiment with which they are engaged. They are solving a great question, which is for the country is well at for themselves. All I mean by noticing them as I do now, is to show by comparison what is not the character of Frankin and Marshall College; and so to open the way for explaining, and at the same time justi-fuint, to the view of our city and county, what the college positively is, and where it stands and means to stand in its own dis-tinctive work and mission. On this must always depend largely, of course, its change.

always depend largely, of course, its claims ectics from Judge Packer and Mon C. L. Pershing.

Screnade to Our Conducates in Phila-deiphia.

to local favor and patronage.

itations will be placed in public positions will be placed in public positions. We have all reason to congratulate of selves upon the action of the Convention. It has placed in nomination as candidate n for whom it is a privilege to vot Cheers.] It is not often we get a chance to vote for such men as Asa Packer, and it is t privilege which I firmly believe the peo-dentified himself with those interests from us youth, and through manhood to the resent day. Have you observed what the journals of have year overver what the pointair di-our opponents sailed. The ir months have been almost scaled, or when oppined, they have uttered words of toolsiness. The file of Asa Packer is blancless, and his escutchcon so impenditable, that the arrows aimed at him tail harmless at the fect of the shooters. He has identified himself with the ed acational interests of the Sinte, and he has become so infimitely associated with this interest, that his name must descond to be terify as blessed. As our candidate for Judge of the Su-preme Court, we present a gentleman of whom it may be said that he passed through that most trying of ordeals, the Logislature.

"On : there is no need of haste, cous-in," broke in Dick ; "you have many years before you yet;" mentally adding, "What has poesessed the old ninny to put it offso long ?" "Well, well, is uppose there's no hurry about it," acquiesced cousin Abigail. "And yet," cousin Roger ventured to hint, "it is always well to be prepared; none of us can tell the minute or hour, you know." "And after all, calling in a lawyer is not so serious a protter as calling in a

"Nor is any one more apt to display a lawyer is doctor," said cousin Dick, facetiously. "Nor is any one more apt to die far having made one's will," chimed in cousin Roger. "The conversation was interrupted by the entrance of a young man and heaue entrance of a young man and beau iful girl, at whom cousin Dick stared the paternal solution of his suit, he res celved no such thing; "on the contrary, on the the reverse " Indeed, he only outed hostich thing; "on the contrary, quite the reverse" Indeed, he only oscaped being kicked out of doors by a speedy voluntary departure. When Edit (the dot to tak her father over, for the first time in his life) he flew in a passion with her, and she dared iotrenew the subject. But Love, the little pagan, pays no respect to the lifth commandment. The officious interference of friends and guardians only reders him the more impatient and inruly; and the present instance was no expection. Clander instance output of the prime of the second s Eille, after protesting that she couldn't possibly think of such a thing, and after many vain attempts to conjecture what people would say, at last with graceful hesitancy consented. Rage, irenzy, despair, are weak words to describe the emotion of John An-

to describe the emotion of John An-drews, when he found that his house had been robbed of its chiefest treasure. His first impulse was pursuit. It was His first impulse was pursuit, it was night when he set out, accompanied by a trusty Scotchman, long in his employ and confidence. As the two galloped along, Mr. Andrews' horse stumbled, prepriating his rider to the ground, another witness was requisite, Mr. spoils. Andrews named MacPherson, the Alth Scotchman, and requested the doctor to the wi nd him in. MacPherson, it seems, had been sent on some errand; but as soon as he re-curned, the doctor communicated Mr. Andrews' message, and went himself o attend a sick call in the neighborbood, not deening his presence there immediately necessary. When he came back, he was aston-ished to find his patient dead. Such a result had not, indeed, been unanticipa-ted, but its suddenness took him by ted, but its suddenness took him by surprise By Mr. Andrews' will, which was published some daysafter his death, the entire of his property was devised to his nephew, who had attended him in due form. True, MacPherson, one of the witnesses, pursuant to a previous intention, had alfed to Scotland shortly after the funeral, and was not present before the Judge of Probate. But his handwriting was proved, and the evi-dence of the remaining witnesses was quite satisfactory. He had seen the testator append hissignature, had heard him deelare the paper was his will, and was positive that, at the time, he was of souud mind and memory. Under all the circumstances, one wall have.

testator append hissignature, had heard him declare the paper was his will, and was positive that, at the time, ho was of sound mind and memory.
Under all the circumstances, one would have thought that the young husband would have been unremitting in tenderness and sympathy towards of so much for his sake. And so he would had be devotedly loved her, but he did not.
The fact is, his whole heart and sound and mind were occupied with a previsor of the most ardentdescription, had me the steemed by Mr. Ferris and family that she never was whiped in her fathest possible from that—its object was a devout member of the Bappines.
"She was a devout member of the Bappines, and has offen during the past year visited far. Nelsen Merry's church, and but little patience, and song and who a month before would have her fatorile canary, turned his back one moning, after a night in his bed, one moning, after a night in his bed, one moning, after a night so the or fatorile, and with a bilg but on mourning had she had alcoust removise it was her fay and all it.
HECM's cousin, instead of making any provision for her whose rights he had she and went back completion of the house of an allflotton.
When at length he was found dead in his bed, one moning, after a night as be do nor hor her she bear favorite canary, turned his back as a yo one who might be posses of a thorough biblical education. — for the fuely consers in her memory as huble, which as any one who might be posses of a thorough biblical education. — for the fuely consers in the shellow, here a allowes the hous of real allfields.
Me the fuely dependent on others, and had went back complete the acquaintance of the young with we back of the of the real mode and the the owe forth a shelterless wanderer.
Tom Mansfield, who had casually mide the acquaintance with a shelt here wholly dependent on other father, she might have gone forth a shelterless wanderer.
Tom Mansfield, who had casually mide the Sect, and advanced to the stand, and was sworn, "Go ahead," Tom whispered, "Mr. MacPherson, look at the signa-ure, and tell us if that is yours." "It is." "Do you know the signature to the right of it?" "Yes; that's the signature of Mr. An tleman declared that he had not received drews." "Did you see him write it?" "No; but I am weel acquent with his . Of course the bookkeeper had drawn "Did you see him write it."" "No; but I am weel acquent with his and." "Were you requested to witness that aper."" hand.

"Were you requested to writtee term paper.""
"Yes."
"By whom?"
"By Mr. Jackson."
"Did Mr. Andrews say anything about it?"
"No; he was dead when I came in."
"Clarkson's arrest at once, and to bring F Meantime George Clarkson had pro-ceeded to the western city, where he a went at work in earnest for his em-ployers. Mr. Keener was as his shadow s all the while, but he suspected nothing s of it. The detective marked every

 Will, and acking the doctor to substrate leaving the total.
 Total acking the doctor to substrate leaving the total.

 it as a witness, which was done.
 Total am sorry to say, behaved very in the division of the under arrest "" asked there."

 On his nephew's suggestion that under arrest."
 Total acking the division of the endle.

 "Not yet, sir," replied the officer. "I ry.

things which seemed to demand expla-nation. First-how came that sight draft for five hundred dollars to be re-tained? George Clarkson could not, even then, believe that he had been suspected of dishonesty. He answered promptly : "Mr. Adams, the maker of the paper. left it with me as a model, or copy, for an engraver who was to get him up some blank forms for checks and re-eipts. You observed, of course, that oth the signature and the acceptance both the signature and the acceptance had been cancelled." "There is another thing," pursued Richards, hurrying on with the un-pleasant business: "Mr. Ransom, of Ransom & Swett, was in during your absence to collect a bill of twelve hun-dred dollars. Your cashbook shows that the amount had been drawn and enveronized."

gaged in the prosecution of a commer-cial enterprise, with the determination

Its mistress received me gradously.
g I called myself to her, Honora Pomfret.
a My rear name-1 had been named for secolving the noose.
be; his head must be placed in a favorable position for receiving the noose.
I had position for receiving the noose.
is and the placed in a favorable position for receiving the noose.
I had not been withoutsome fear that n my likeness to my mother might be-astrotch of fancy imagine stern.
I had not been withoutsome fear that my likeness to my mother might betray my indentify, but it remained ap-receiving the noose.held tight, while his head only is visi-able position for receiving the noose.
the fast noose is made of exceedingly fine fast, but not too fast, or the flea will be that not been withoutsome fear that there is no gum which the flea will not but Mr. K. tells me heas trid it, and have gud not be a companion, and there is no gum which the flea will not break when it becomes dry. The flea having been haltered, he is at once fast ir very pleasant companionship it was tethered in this manner he is allowed to kick and plunge and hop (and possiby sweer), as much as he likes till he is by sweer), as much as he likes till here is no gold wire; self with glasses; and when she walktequing myself morbid. Mrs. Rannsay, ted, she liked me with her to talk to and the she node of me quite the y ed, she liked me with her to talk to and the self with glasses; and when she walkor stack ther state. And meas and the state of the forest of the forest of the forest of Ceylon and the elemants of the forest of Ceylon and
the elemants of the forest of Ceylon and
the elemants of the forest of Ceylon and siderably in strength and form, but the elemants of the forest of Ceylon and stack the respired of the sessing at the chalt when she was sight of the forest of Ceylon and the elemants of t

There is the output of the structure is the structure is a natter of the structure is the structure

The jury gave us a verdet lise larger, and accorded the charge at the set of the product of the pr front door, Smith Confected ins legs and a few days. bad constitutions, and die in harness in a few days. Every night each flea is put into a separate sleeping room; flannel is cut into squares and one flea placed between e two of these miniature blankets. The b blankets are piled one over the other, a y, flea between each, till they are all to stowed away in their berths. The pile of of flea-containing blankets is then stow-ed away in a box for the night. There are eleven or twolve kinds of fleas. The dog flea, the cat flea, the pigeon, mole, bedgehog, marten, etc, nd fleas. The fleas of different nations also fleas are strong, powerful, hard ible mistress of great wealth some day.

but I never dreamed of stealing into Judith Ramsay's heart for the sake of it. I was not selfish or mean, if I was deceitful and mistaken. One day I said, "To-morrow must end it. I will tell her and go." But when can be answered in the planeet and most direct way. Let it be understood then, on all hands, that Franklin and Marshall College has not yet entered into any compromise with the spirit of innovation and change which is turning our colleges generally into new shape, and that it proposes nothing of the sort hereafter.

Florence Marvin was his wife!" With a stilled cry, she who had be-lieved herself lone and friendless in the world fell on her kinswoman's neck, and wept tears of mingled gladness and the morning following that on which we introduced them to the reader, Roger and Dick again presented themselves in the departments reach away down to the primary school. Catalogues is the legislature, whom it may be sudthat he passed through to complete their coustin.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

"We have thought it our duty, 'began Dick."
"We have thought it our duty, 'began Dick."
"We have thought it is imperative, 'Dick is a tee..
"Our bounden duty,' put in Roger."
"As painful as it is imperative, 'Dick is a tee..
"To put you on yourguard, madam,'' Roger added.
"As painful as it is imperative, 'Dick is a tee..
"To put you on yourguard, madam,'' end contained bick."
"Who is no better than she should be ether than she should be ether it ion:
"Upon my word, cousins, I don't comprehend a syllable you have utter- ed,'' said Mrs. Varley, 'mor shall I don't comprehend a syllable you have utter- ed,'' said Mrs. Varley, 'mor shall for the cluestion of vast com at the clue and ensite experiments of the clues, 'did you take to ascertain ', the character and antecedents of the the case that the paineet in the paineet in the paineet and marking the clues of such growing contractions of vast comprehend and the conserve that the conserve the pression of your kindness, and for the honor you for having designated measyour stanger for use in and Marabalt (Collego base in the paineet and marking the case shall collego for use in and marking the completer of the shall college of the state is a question of vast constater of the main the solution of the college of rour cit and marking the completer is a question of vast constater of the college of rour cit and marking the completer is a spectra cit the conserve is a spectra cit the conserve is the conserve in the solution provide the conserve is a spectra cit to conserve the completer is a question of vast constater of the college of rour cit and marking the conserve is a spectre cit to constate the conserve is ti one. Comé, Dick, you séem least exponent of the college for our city and la source of an being county is in the plained and most county for the control of the control of Alore, you are the daughter of my only bore as subst of institutions, in which the grant of the daughter of my only bore dashed company of the daughter of the da

i. I will tell her and go." But when to increase the dig hea, the dig hea, the dig head, thead, the dig head, thead, the dig hea