Under the lead of James H. Hopkins Esq., one of the most prominent supporters of General Cass, the gallant Democracy of Western Pennsylvania went into the recent contest with an energy and a determination which secured a wonderful reduction of the usual Republican vote of that section. Had those sections which promised to do such great things in case of Asa Packer's nomination done half as well as Western Pennsylvania, Geary would have been beaten by twenty thousand majority, and this great State rescued from the disgrace of being ruled over by the miserable sham and humbug who now fills the gubernatorial chair

We will publish the full report of proceedings to morrow.

The Ledger gives the following account of the concluding proceedings of the Board. After a recess of about two hours, the Return Judges came back and resurted the count of the vote.

When the vote for the 12th Legislative District was counted, there was no return handed in for the Seventeenth Ward. The Return Judge from this Ward presented a paper with the names of the candidates uponit, and the vote in hearly all of the predicts, but it having no signature but his own, the Board of Judges declared it to be an improper return, and it was thrown out. How the regular official return disappeared is explained in the report of proceedings in Court. The entire vote of this Ward, as shown in the returns, is 1639 for Gesry and 1659 for Packer, and for the Legislature, the District, taking in the entire Ward, the vote was, for Geisz 499, Mullen 369, and Forsyth 443. The Eighth Division of the Seventeenth Ward's not included in the count for Governor, Judge or city offices. Thus division shows, by the return at the office of the Courmon Plens, 363 votes for Packer, and 124 for Geary. There is no vote given on this return except for the Legislature. It was signed by only a portion of the election officers, and Beirs upon its face, "Returns under protest." The Eighth Division of the Twenty-second Ward was also omitted.
