SUDDEN DEATH OF A LANCASTERIAN.—
We learn from private sources that Samuel D. Fraim, Esq., formerly of this city, but for the last thirteen years a resident of Dayton, Ohio, died suddenly at that place about noon on the 6th inst. Mr. Fraim's industry and energy, as a business man, and his sterling worth as a Christian gentleman, had won for him a prominent position and many warm friends in the city of his adoption.

known. Even at an earlier day Mr.
Youngman was engaged as agent for a line of passenger stages running between Philadelphia and Pittsburg, so that almost his whole life has been passed in the conveylance of passengers. Deceased was in his 79th year, and has been unable to attend to business for the last two months in consequence of a very severe carbuncle on the back of his neck, which completely protrated him and finally caused his death.
He resided in East Orange street, with his wife and a grand-daughter, and will be buried in Litiz, the place of his birth, tomorrow.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

To our Customers and Correspondents: The surprising development of our national resources and the rapidity with which the lonal debt, by weekly purchases, render it apparent that the time is approaching when the Five-Twenty bonds may be funded at not over four or four and a half per cont, interest.

Meanwhile their high price, as compared with other classes of sccurities paying an equal rate of interest, is leading to general inquiry for more profitable forms of investment in which money may be safely invested. During the warthe necessities and peril of the government, and the consequent cheapness of its securities, rendered them so attractive that from this cause combined with the tal of the country, and diverted attention from other classes of socurities which had before sound to meet the wants of the most care investora. The government is no longer a borrower. It ment, and the reduction of the national debi and improvement of the national credit-
