

Poetry.

"GOOD THINGS."

Good things, good things,
In the world of our day,
There are many good things,
That we should not pass by.

How the Umbrella Ran Away with Elsie.

A CHRISTMAS STORY FOR THE CHILDREN.
The old clock in the market place,
Rang out the hour of twelve,
And the children came to school,

The Peril of the Ice.

The broad bosom of one of our northern rivers,
Was covered with a smooth expanse,
Which there was a stretch of clear ice,

Obsequies of a Chinaman.

The ghost of a Chinaman and his wife,
Were seen in the streets of the city,
On the 24th of the month of December,

Interwoven with the Mother of Napoleon.

It was a fine evening day,
When I was in the city of London,
And I was in the company of a friend,

Alaska and its Inhabitants.

The report of General Thomas,
Of the discovery of gold in Alaska,
Has excited the interest of the world,

Remarkable Meteor.

Maglielco, the founder of the library at Florence,
Was a man of great talents,
And his life was a model for all men,

Teaching Bible of Pompeii.

In digging out the ruins of Pompeii,
The excavators have discovered,
A school of children, who were learning,

Tobacco an Exhaustive Crop.

In speaking of the extensive effects of tobacco,
The writer says, that it is a most valuable crop,
And that it is the lifeblood of the nation,

Alaska and its Inhabitants.

The report of General Thomas, of the discovery of gold in Alaska, has excited the interest of the world, and has led to a great many expeditions to that distant region.
