"To-morrow, then; and you must work to-night. I will order you a physician; he will come to-morrow morning—how your pulse throbs!—and when ing—how your pulse throbs!—and when your work is done you may rest. Adieu for the present." And pressing his young friend's hands, the eccentric but benevolent old man departed, leaving Hayda full of new thoughts, his boson fired with new zeal to struggle against adverse fortune. In such does the powers of the spiritual champion wrestle with the powers of the abyss, and mightily prevail.

ily prevail. When Haydn, late that night, threw himself on his bed, weary, ill, and ex-hausted, he had accomplished the first of an order of works that was to endear his name to all succeeding fame. While the artist lay on a sick hed, a rilliant fete was given by Count Mortzin, and Austrian nobleman of immense vealth and influence, at which the most were present. were present. The musical entertainments given by these luxurious patrons of the arts were at that time and for years after the most splendid in Europe. When the concert was over Prince Antoine Esterhazy expressed the pleasure he had received, and his obligations to the noble host. "Chief among your magnificent movelties," said he, "is the new symphony, St. Maria. One does not hear every day such music. Who is the composer." the composer."

The Count referred to one of his friends. The answer was, "Joseph Haydn."

"I have heard his quartetoes; he is no common artist. Is he in your service, Count?" "With your good leave he shall be transferred to ours; and I shall take care he has no reason to regret the change. Let him be presented to us."

There was murmur among the audicuce and a movement, but the composer did not appear; and presently word was brought to his highness that the young man on whom he intended to confer so great an honor was detained at home by illness.

Hand, and sighed deeply. That hand would never trace another line.

Better thus," said Haydn softly, than a lingering old age of care, disease, perhaps of poverty. No, I am happy. I have lived not in vain. I have accomplished my destiny; I have done good. I am ready for thy call, O Master!" "So! Let him be brought to me as

From this moment Haydn lost the calmness and serenity that had marked, the expression of his countenance. The very depths of his heart had been stirred, and ill could his wasted strength sustain the tide of feeling. COMMUNICATED. Where there are so many Fur Stores as there are in the city of Philadelphia it is difficult for the uninitiated to determine where to buy—Those who are versed in the different qualities of Furs, however, know where to go, and those readers of this paper, who are not acquainted with the various grades of Furs, we would advise them to go to an establishment of the best reputation, where they can purchase with the gratest confidence, and be satisfied that they are honestly dealt with. We know of no better or more reliable store than that of Messrs. JOSEPH ROSENBAUM & CO., NO. 510 ARCH. STREET, PHILADELPHIA, being their new location, where we are confident from their long experienc in the Fur business, that persons can get good Furs and the worth of their money.

can get good Furs and the worth of their money.

Their New Store is the centre of attraction on account of the good light in which the show off all their goods.

37-On Saturday they do no business. 38

The most fashionable Furs this season will be the Mink sable, and this is the most ser viceable Fur and they have them in various styles and qualities, and for prices to suit all and since a lady does not wish to get a new set of Furs every season, it is very essentia to know where to go and purchase good Furs To see the silky fineness and darkness an elegance of finish of all their Furs will wel repay a visit to this establishment, and all their Furs are warranted to be genuine as represented. their Furs are warranted to be genuine as rep-resented.

A Mink Sable set cost $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{2}{2}$, and some very rare dark sets bring a little higher; but from $\frac{2}{2}$ to $\frac{2}{2}$ will buy an excellent dark set, and those sets last; a lady from eight to fif-teen years.

Then there is the Hudson Bay Sable, the Sternan Aguirrel, Royal Ermine, German Fitch and Chinchilli and Ladles. Hoods and to the control of the set of the control of the rieting and low priced Furs in endless va-rieting.
