Lucky Fox Hunters.—A correspondent from Highville informs us that Alderman A. J. Rambler and Doctor Hare killed, on the season commenced, thirteen foxes—a greater number than ever before in the same length of time.

Fire in Mr. Jones's Factory.

A few days ago a fire broke out in Mr. Jones's factory, in Mill-street, which is the property of the county of Wyandotte. The fire originated from a defective flue, and was first discovered by the night watchman, who, on going his rounds, found the building filled with smoke. The alarm was immediately given, and the fire engines were soon on the spot, but the fire had made such progress that the building was entirely destroyed. The loss is estimated at $2,000, on which there is an insurance of $1,000 in the Phœnix Company.

Sudden Death.

We regret to learn that Mr. Thomas Hall, of Hall's Corners, died suddenly on Saturday last, of disease of the heart. Mr. Hall was a worthy citizen, and his death will be deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Fatal Accident.

On Monday last, as Mr. Thomas Hall, of Hall's Corners, was driving his team of horses attached to a heavily-laden wagon, he accidentally fell between the horses, and was dragged a considerable distance before the horses could be stopped. He was taken up insensible, and died in a few minutes afterwards
