NUMBER 9.

ran off from them, he would then shoot him, and raised his gun to take aim; but my father stepping behind a tree, ran round it while the Indian followed. This for a time gave great amusement to the bystanders, until a young Indian stept up, twisted the gun out of the hands of White Eyes, and hid it under long. The Indians became considerably intoxicated, and seattered, leaving White Eyes with my father. White Eyes with my father where mere the many father where mere though at the base of the cliff; which I saw was washed by water of apparently considerable depth, a ledge running along its face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol,) as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol,) as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol,) as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol,) as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol,) as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol,) as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, offered the accommodative might be from the Capitol, as those face, at pretty nearly two-thirds of its height, and the first look, I saw the scheme was utterly impracticable. No—not of the function of a lore of a nexamination, anyhow. In short, if he was a singular, he was utterly impracticable. No—not of a lore of a nexamination, anyhow. In short, if he was a singular, he was utterly impracticable. No—not of a lore of a nexamination, anyhow. In short, if he was a singular, he was utterly impracticable. No—not of a lore of a nexamination, anyhow. In short, if h

special control problems of the control problems of th

now and then find sufficient energy to arouse themselves from their slumber arouse themselves from their slumber along the margin, and luxuriate, like their livelier brethren of the river, in thesunlight above; and narrow, tangled thickets nestling high up in little hollows with a dangling and elimbing growth of poison ivy—all combine to make up a scene as totally different from anything that the surrounding country presents as are the fantastic combinations of a dream from every-day realiven disappointed and jealous love is no natch for a botanist's appetite—and, above all things, I needed rest. But in order to enjoy either, I must get into the shade somewhere, for my head was ach-ing already, and the rocks on which I heart that beat beneath that unprepossuesing exterior, you found it as royal a one as ever pulsed the life-blood leaping and dancing through the veins of the most favored of the sons of earth.—

And he was not weak, either, if he was lath-like in proportions. Those wiry sinews had borne the brunt of many a hard tussle with the intricacies of thicket and morass; and where more sturdily built limbs would have sunk exhausct and morass; and where more sturdily built limbs would have sunk exhausted on the ground, his had pressed perseveringly onward. He dressed with negligence, but he acted with determination; he could not move with grace but he could with celerity; he would not conform to other's prejudices, whether sanctioned by society or not, but he would sedulously seek to advance their interests or alleviate their distress.

BATE OF ADVERTISING. Business Adventisements, 812 a year per squre of ten lines; 33 per year for each addi-

24 (* 1522) 455 Herz * 72807

GENERAL ADVERTISING, 7 cents a line for the first, and 4 cents for each subsequent insertion. SPECIAL NOTICES Inserted in Local Columns scalped and left for dead one by the name of Archibald M'Cullough who recovered and was living not long since. It was remarkable that with but few exceptions to school that morning. And the account given by M'Cullough is, that when the master and scholars met at the school, two of the scholars informed him that on their way they had seen Indians, but the information was not attended to by the master, who ordered them of their hooks; soon afterwards two, old Indians and a boy, rushed up to the door. The master seeing them prayed them only to take his life and spare the life wildest and sugar loafs, in many places.

foot toward the river, leaving my horse to be cared for at the tavern.

"I was entering now upon one of the then I planted the other alongside of it, and clung with my head just above water and all the tenacity of a dying man's clutch in my fingers. Soon I because of somewhat more than a mile, and this narrow belt is crowded full of where I was, and then observed immediate neighborhood to the height of five or six feet, and bulging out above; a little careful exertion sufficed to place my but with each of the water, but my final escape was still very doubtful.

"I was entering now upon one of the twent is and clung with my head just above water and all the tenacity of a dying man's clutch in my fingers. Soon I because of somewhat more than a mile, and this narrow belt is crowded full of where I was, and then observed immediate neighborhood to the height of five or six feet, and bulging out above; a little careful exertion sufficed to place my but my final escape was still very doubtful.

"My only resource was, as soon as my recovered strength would allow, to call diate neighborhood to the height of five or six feet, and bulging out allove; a little careful exertion suffleed to place me beyond the reach of the water, but my final escape was still very doubtful.

"My only resource was, as soon as my recovered strength would allow, to call for assistance. This I proceeded to do, but for a long time my efforts seemed to be upgaying and I bud almost berun become their books; soon afterwards two old Indians and a boy, rushed up to the door. The master seeing them prayed them only to take his life and spare the children; but unfeelingly the two old Indians stood at the door whilst the boy entered the house and with a piece of wood made in the formof an Indian mall, killed the master and scholars, after which the whole of them were scalped.

The Ledge on the Cliff.

Washed clean and gray by the rains of control to reader the control to water, out control to reader the proposed control to reader the proposed and study for a substitute of the way, ripplied to the master and scholars, after which the whole of them were scalped.

The Ledge on the Cliff. and then a louder one, and emerging in a glade on the opposite side of the tox., f saw some eight or nine equistrian orms—the party of the morning. Oh, now delighted I was at their appearance I sprang almost to my feet—nearly s ipping off the steep inclined plain on which I was rectining—and yelled with tremendous energy. At first they evision to did not be a few from when the state of the steep inclined plain on which I was rectining—and yelled with the few feet of the state of th which I was reclining—and yelfed with tremendous energy. At first they evisently did not know from whence cae sounds proceeded. But their ears soon directed their eyes, and I knew by the cry of surprise and horror which tollowed that I, was seen and recognized. I recognized a voice that came in a shrill scream over the waters, and s form that tottered on beholding me; and it gave a double zest to my anticipations of escape to think that I should recover both his and love together.

tions of a dream from every-day realities.

"When you get nearer the river, you hear the hoarse, distant roar of the falls, rising with almost awful impressiveness amid the silence that reigns on every side; and down the gullies alhead you catch short glimpses of the water hurrying by, with here and there a fleck of foam upon its surface, and the bold Vriginic eliffs, erowned with the growth of woods, and stretching far up and down the river. At last you reach the bank, worn on this side into little semicircular basins, where the eddies keep whirling and whirling around, with huge buttresses of rock between, each of which presents a front of from twenty to several hundred feet. Some distance above fa the great white, roaring mass, piling over the erugs and between the cliffs, and flinging the spray high into the arms of the arms of the arms of the first with the growth of the arms of the first water of the cliffs, and flinging the spray high into the roard of the first with the growth of the arms of the first water of the f down. In a moment more I was sale among my friends again, but the suffer-ing I had undergone, and suddon revul-sion of feeling sonflected me, that it was only a senseless body that they received into their hands. When I came to myself Lynging little room at the tayon, with cliffs, and flinging the spray high into the air. It is a scene of genuine sublimity, if there is any such in existence.

"Well, here at last I found myself, after a long, though successful search, completely tired out by clambering over rocks almost blistering hot, under an August sun, and with every disadvantage that nature, in her most crotchety mood, could devise. I had begun to feel the need of some refreshment-for even disappointed and jealous love is no store for me which I had intertoscated by dared to dream.

"And now, as I see I have bored you sufficiently with this recital of my life and sufferings—there you needn't say a word; I know I have—I will say good-benefit of our reader .- Plcasant Hours Items of Interest.

Two Paris women rushed under the sillotine to dip their handkerchiefs in aupmann's blood. A lady physician in Lafayette, Ind. last year, at $2,500. The deficiency bill has been finished by the Appropriation Committee. It appropriates about $7,900,000 Secretary Seward arrived at Balti-more vesterday, in the steamer Cuba, from Havana. He is in good health. Minister Washburne speaks the purest Sincinnati French with a grunt, which ongue.

A New Orleans woman used kerosenc to kindle a kitchen fire, and now her clothes fit her husband's second wife re-A fund of $50,000 has been left by will for the establishment and maintenance of a free school for indigent white boys