Chesapeake and Ohio Rallroad Company. The Chesancake and Ohio Railroad, connecting the Atlantic coast and the magnificent harbors of the Chesapeake Bay with the Ohlo River at a point of reliablo navigation, and thus, with the entire Rairoad system and water transportation of the great West and South west forms the additional East and West Trunk Line, so imperatively demand-ed for the accommodation of the immensemi-rapidly-growing transportation between the Atlantic schoord and Europeon theomenand and the great producing regions of the Ohlo and Mississippi Valleys on the other.

The importance of this Road as a new outlet from the West to the sea magnifies it into one of national consequence, and inontict from the West to the see magnines it into one of national consequence, and in-surestoitan extensive thorough traffic from the day of its completion; while, in the develop-ment of the extensive agricultural and mineral resources of Virginia and West Virginia, it possesses, along, its own line, the elements of a large and profitable local business.

Thus the great interests, both general and local, which demand the completion of the CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD to the Ohio River, afford the surveit guarantee o Its success and value, and render it the most important and substantial Rairoad en-terprise now in progress in this Coun-

Its superiority as an East and West route, and the provide of an immouse and profitable trade awaiting its completion, have drawn to it to attention and co-operation of prominent Capitalists and Railroad men of this City of sound judgment and known integrity, whose connection with it, together with that of eminent citizens and business men of Virginia and West Virginia, insures an energetic, hon orable, and successful management. The Road is completed and in operation from Richmond to the celebrated White Sulphur Springs of West Virginia, 27 miles, and there remain but 200 miles (now partially construct ed) to be completed, to carry it to the proposed terminus on the Ohlo river at, or near, t mouth of the Big Sandy river, 150 miles abo Cincinnati, and 350 miles below Pittsburgh.

Cincinnati, and 350 miles below Pittsburgh. Lines are now projected or in progress through Ohio and Kentucky to this point, which will connect the Chesapeake and Ohio with the entire Rairond systems of the West and Southwest, and with the Pacific Rairond. 3 its valuable franchises and superior advant-ages will place the CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY among the richest and most powerful and trustworthy corporations of the country; and there exists a present value, in completed road and work done, equal to the entire amount of the mori-gage.
