[From the Salt Lake Telegraph, May 3.] (From the Salt Lake Telegraph, May 3.) We learned last evening that Captain Storey had been killed by Alf Horz, a des-berado whom he was attempting to arrest, some time ago Horz killed a man by the iame of Thomas Dunn, in Nevada, and ame to this city, from whence he went to arantsville. Deputy Sheriff Joseph F. came to this city, from whence he went to Grantswille. Deputy Sheriff Joseph F. Carrigan, of Nevada, arrived here in pur-suit, and, acompanied by Captain Storey, on Sunday they started to Grantsville after him. Yesterday morning the attempt to arrest was made at a house on the west side of Grantsville. Sheriff Carrigan drew his revolver, and the Deputy Marshal took out the warrant and commenced to read it. Horz jumped on Carrigan and took the pistol from him and fired at Storey, whom he shot and killed. He then fired two shots at Carrigan, wounding him sightly, and with the girl was soon overtaken and nong to a tree. Two others were found secreted in the town and were hung to the same tree; and the romaining three were also captured, and two of thein were hung. The other at the last accounts was in custody of the citizens, but will probably share the fate of his companions. The universal verdict here is that in this instance, at least, the curvery manyer of indiving number the summary manner of inflicting punish-ment is entirely justified.
