body's mount fixery of an object of any purpose other than furthering the contenting particularly. In cases touching "reconstruction," which has become to mean the destruction of all political rights—State and imilividual there is generally no difficulty whatever in obtaining the requisite vote to cut off debate. In matters involving tremendors 'jobs,' however, caution is sometimes required beforethegates are attempted to be finally chapped down. A "gentleman" having a piece of patriotism of this sort,' in charge,' deliberately surveys the whole field, and, to ascertain with certainty how the land lies, the Radical worthless do not seruplo to quarrel and bandy epithets with each other just as if they were not rowing in the same boat, although looking in different directions. Upon the "consideration" of the joint resolution to prolong and enlarge the charter of the Northern Pacific railroad, yesterday evening, a ludicrous scene was presented. Mr. Wheeler, 'in charge' of the bill, having reported it pre-whether Mr. Poland "did not know that friends of the bill had been sending in for members and negling them to put the bill through!" When overything had become settled thusly and satisfactorily, the trap was spring, and the "previous" carried by a high and dry vote of '92 to 43, and the main question ordered by 107 to 66. After this victory (which substantially disposed of the bill, J. Mr. Wheeler, allowed Comor two minutes. Wooshward two, Cox five,

The Fifteenth Amendment. The Fifteenth Amendment.
Washington, May 27...."The act to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes," as it finally passed both Houses of Congress, differs from the Senate bill, published in the INTELLIGENCER, in the following particulars:

touching the title to such office arises out of the denial of the right to vote to citizens who so offered to vote on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, such suit or proceeding may be instituted in the Circuit or District Court of the Uni-ted States of the Circuit or District in which such person resides. And said Circuit or District Court shall have, concurrently with the State Courts, jurisdiction thereof so far as to determine the rights of the par-ties to such office by reason of the denial of the right guaranteed by the Fifteenth Article of Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and secured by this act, and that the Senate agree to the same in the writ.

Mr. Hepburn, Jr., opened the argument by contending that the constitutional provisions gives the legislature of Pennsylvania the power to pass the lact of assembly it had passed bearing upon this subject. He principally reasoned to show that the court below seriously erred in the treatment of the evidence of the medical experts; that the law had been entirely ignored in the case. The court below had submitted a bare theory, without any evidence on the subject. He argued at some length and with considerable force upon this branch. C. F. Maglanghtin, Esq., followed S. Hepburn, Esq., for the defendant in error. He insisted that the placing of the matter before the Supreme Court was not right. He thought that this in effect gives the man a new trial, It really made the Supreme Court not only judges of the law in the case, but it gave them to find whether the jury below found the proper verdict or not. In a case of this kind they would sit both as judge of the law and the facts. The Supreme Court had the law and the facts.
