THE LANCASTER WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1870.

CORK, June 27, evening.—The strike here is no longer confined to the journeymen tailors, but has become general. The la-borers in all departments of industry are leaving or threaten to quit work. The steamship works are abandoned, the foun-drymen have left their shops, the lockmen have stopped work, even work women stay at home and newsboys refuse to sell papers. There have been no scenes of violence to-day, but the situation is dangerous, and the excitement and anxiety intense.

months' imprisonment in the District of Columbia Jail. The report was ordered to be printed. The Sundry Civil Appropria-tion bill was considered. Adjourned. WASHINGTOR, June 27. In the U.S. Senate, the Tax-Tariff bill came up, and Mr. Sherman stated that the Finance Committee had agreed to let all the income tax sections go, and continne the income tax sections go, and continne the income tax sections down also the tax also that he attended market, and thought thus to get the money. The bungling man-ner in which they went about it proves that they were no profossional burglars. On Friday night last, a horso belonging to David Hess, Sr., who resides near Con-estoga Centre, was taken out of the stable and shot dead by some scoundrel. Some time ago a mule belonging to John Buckwalter, Jr., in the same neighborhood was killed in the same manner. V. S.

Sr. ANTHONY'S CHURCH. --The (iferman Catholics of this city, finding St. Joseph's Church, entirely too small to accommodate the e-sustantly increasing number of wor-shippers, purchased some time ago the lot on the northeast corner of East Orango and Ann streets, on which they are about creet-ing a very handsome church, to be known as ''St. Anthony's.'' The building will be of brick, with stone dressing, 141 feet 8 inches in length, by 64 feet in wildth, and will be furnished with a steephol 175 feet in height. The body of the church will con-tain 216 pows, arranged in six rows, and tain 216 pows, arranged in six rows, and separated by one centre and two side aisles. The altar which will occupy the rear end of the church, will be very elegantly and elaborately finished, and it is intended to erect a first-class organ. The building was designed by Mr. Edwin F. Durang, architect, and will be an orna-ment to the eastern portion of the city that our people may well be proud of. The esti-mated cost of the structure is about $50,000.

FROM CONTISTOGA CENTRE. -On Friday night, the 17th inst, some burglars tried to break into the house of John W. Urban, of Concistoga Centre. After Mr. Urban had left home during the night, to attend mar-ket in this city, Mrs. U. heard a slight noise at the door, to which she listened for some time, and then made noise, after which the noise at the door ceased. A panel of the door was nearly cut out. Mr. Urban is tax col-lector for Conestoga township, and had that morning taken a considerable sum of tax money with him to pay into the trea-sury. CAPITAL I AND J .- Mr. W. D. Gentry, Nashville, Tenn., makes the following ex-cellent suggestions: "As a telegraph operator and type-setter, I would say to the operator and type-setter, I would say to the public that if in making the letter I (capital), writers would put under it the telegraph character representing that letter, which is two dots, ..operators and many type-setters would be enabled to distinguish I from J, and avoid many annoying errors; and if the public generally, especially school teachers, would adopt the suggestion, the misfortune suffered by all who write the language would be removed."

Such a thought as his breaking out did not enter their minds. For him iron bars were as withes to the glant who bore on his back the gates of Gaza. How he broke them is a wonder to all, but that he made room for his escape was ocularly de-monstrated. Out he dashed, with a maniae fire blazing and flashing from his red, glar-ing eyes. A couple of attendants stood in his way, and tried to prevent his escape. They were as children before the hammer-like blows of his fists. Another attendant ran to the help of these two, and was stretched senseless, with a gash in his head, from the stroke of a short club the maniae had gathered up. By this time no one was disposed to stand in the way of the madman. He escaped, and was soon out of sight. Yesterday evening he had not been even taken or captured. It is supposed he has gone to his old home, near Cleves. language would be removed." THE WHEAT.—A correspondent writes us that the iate continuous rains and unin-terrupted cloudy weather, while the grain was blossoming, did considerable damage to the wheat in the neighborhood of Pome-roy, Chester county, and that there will be less than half a crop. Some fields will not pay for cutting and threshing.

pay for cutting and threshing. POMEROY, June 27th, 1870-Messre. Smith & Co.-By the INTELLIDENCEN of the 15th uit., I see a brother Democrat bragging about tall clover, it being 4 feet 4 inchess long, and wanting to know who could "top" it. I herewith send you a specimen of clover grown on my farm at Pomeroy. Chester county, Pa., which I think "tops" it and some to spare; it is 5 feet high and we have plenty more of the same kind. ABM VANDERSAAL. A Colored Clergyman on the Rampage. A fellow calling himself Oscar Ritter, the colored minister of Flushing, is now on trial for a criminal assault upon a bloom-ing darkey named Julia Jackson. Oscar's bad déeds are nów coming to light, and his intrigues at camp meetings aud elsewhere far excel in rascality anything that has heretofore been exposed. He appears to be a wily customer aud gifted with all the art-ful dodges of an accomplished hyporite.— But the case in question is sufficient. Ac-cording to the evidence taken yesterday, the reverend gentleman visited the home of the fair Julia about - ane o'doek on the morning of the 17th of February last, on the plea of imparting religious consolation to a sick brother of the maiden. With upturn-ed eyes Oscar disposed of his rubbers and the brother having religed, the holy man A Colored Clergyman on the Rampage.
